

THE LAST CALL

Do you hear it, Newfoundlanders? It is the call to each and every one of you to help your fellow countrymen to employment and independence.

We have during the past ten weeks brought before your notice Newfoundland's depressed trade conditions. The numbers of unemployed increase daily--unless ALL of you pull together and in the right direction where will it end.

There is only one means by which this can be accomplished, and that is by your CONSTANT purchasing of LOCAL MADE GOODS the manufacture of which keep your country men and women employed.

Below we list many articles made in New Newfoundland that equal and in many cases are more suited to the needs of the country than the imported article. Buy the goods made at home and help to save your country.

Religion and Business.

What a Hard-Hearted Business Man Says of the World's Need.

Roger W. Babson, the celebrated statesman of the United States, has written a rather remarkable book called "Religion and Business," in which he deals with present-day social and business conditions in a rather trenchant but practical way. Mr. Babson is not what might be considered a religious man in the sense of being "evangelical" and there is much in his book to evoke the strongest criticism on the part of the orthodox, but he gets at the marrow of things without sectarian bias. He accuses the Church of failure to bring its followers up to the standards of Christ, and at the same time flouts the idea that the great Teacher was in any sense a socialist. He devotes considerable attention to the relations of capital and labor, and says that religion is the only solution for industrial harmony. By "religion" he means harmony with the teaching of the Sermon on the Mount. He says: "The need of the hour is not more factories or materials, not more railroads or steamships, not more armies or more navies, but rather more education based on the plain teachings of Jesus. The prosperity of our country depends on the motives and purposes of the people. These motives and purposes are directed in the right course only through religion. Legislation, bounties, or force are of no avail in determining man's attitude toward life. Harmony at home and peace with the world will only be determined in the same way.

Religion, like everything else of value, must be taught. It is possible to get more religion in industry and business only through the development of Christian education and leadership. With the forces of evil backed by men and money, systematically organized to destroy, we must back with men and money all campaigns for Christian education.
We are willing to give our property and even our lives when our country calls in time of war. Yet the call of Christian education is to-day of even greater importance than was ever the call of the army or navy. I say this because we shall probably never live to see America attacked from without, but we may at any time see our best institutions attacked from within.
I am offering Christian education as a protector of property because nearly all the great progressive and liberal movements of history have been born in the hearts of Christian educators. I do, however, insist that the safety of our sons and daughters, as they go out on the streets this very night, is due to the influence of the preachers rather than to the influence of the policemen. The safety of our nation, including all groups, depends on Christian education. At no time in our history has it been more greatly needed.

We insure our houses and factories, our automobiles, and our businesses through mutual and stock insurance companies, but the same amount of money invested in Christian education would give far greater results. Besides, Christian education can insure what no corporation can insure--namely, prosperity. As the life insurance companies are spending huge sums on doctors, scientific investigations, and district nurses to improve the health of the nation, so we business men should spend huge sums to develop those fundamental religious qualities of integrity, industry, faith, and service, which make for true prosperity. I repeat, the need of the hour is--not more factories or materials, not more railroads or steamships, not more armies or navies--but rather more Christian education--Baker and Confectioner.

Wedding Bells.

MOULTON-ANTEL.

On the evening of June 15th the S.A. Citadel, Adelaide Street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Mrs. Adjt. Moulton of the Salvation Army and Thos. P. Antel of this city. Colonel Martin, Leader of the Salvation Army in Newfoundland, conducted the wedding and some of the officers of the Salvation Army spoke on behalf of the bride and groom and paid tribute to their long service, both as officers and soldiers. Miss Lily Moulton, daughter of the bride, soloed "God will take care of you." The reception was held in the Young People's Hall and upwards of two hundred guests spent an enjoyable evening. Many and costly were the presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Antel, testifying to the great esteem in which host of them are held.--B.F.P.

Discrimination.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir:--One of the greatest causes of the incapacity of the present Government to help the unemployed question is in the discrimination of the giving out of Government patronage, particularly so when it is entrusted to some of the most pronounced heblers, and well paid heblers at that, to give such work to their particular friends.
I am led to believe that one tailor shop in the city has at least one hundred and fifty suits to make, fifty of these coming from one Government department alone. Now, sir, may I ask is this the way that other shops and tailors should be discriminated against? And with all appearance of a slack season during the coming fall and winter, why were not these orders divided up as evenly as possible to help allay the unemployment question? I am not unreasonable enough to suggest that the party followers should not get the greatest share, but times and conditions are so acute at the present time, or in the very near future, when a proper distribution of work would be more acceptable to the Government and unemployed than charity.

Your truly,
B. D. SPURRELL.

M. C. Wins Rugger Championship.

The Methodist College team defeated the Felldians in yesterday's rugger game by a dropped goal and a try, seven points to 0, thus winning the Inter-Collegiate Championship for 1921. The game was quite a good one, the M.C. forwards pushing their opponents off the ball practically throughout. Since 1917 the Felldians have won the championship and out of the eight years for which the shield has been played the Methodist College has won it three times and the Felldians five.

Just Folks
GRIEF'S ONLY MASTER.

Into the lives of all
The tears of sorrow fall.
Into the happiest hearts,
Grief drives her darts;
No door however stout
Can shut Death's angel out.

Vain are the things we prize,
Treasure and pomp's disguise;
They cannot stay the tear
When the true griefs appear
Where Death will strike to-day
Gold cannot bar the way.

There is no joy secure,
No peace that shall endure,
No smile that man shall keep,
God wills that he must weep,
And in his darkest hour
Vain is all earthly power.

What, then, should guard the gate?
How shall a man be great?
Through the dark days and long,
What power shall make him strong?
Wherein does courage lie,
Since all he loves must die?

When sorrow binds his hands,
Helpless the strong man stands,
One master only grief,
Bows to, and that's belief--
Faith that he'll some day know
Why God hath willed it so!

There Must Be a Reason

That a great many of the garments that we have received in the past month were from new customers who had those garments mislabeled by other dyers and were sent to us as a last resort before a settlement was made with the owners. We were able to doctor up the majority of those crippled garments to the entire satisfaction of those owners. If you have any sick garments of this character send them to us. If our customers don't accept the garments after we doctor them, don't pay us. No cure no pay. We have received a new shipment of dye, the best on the market. Raglans cleaned and dyed at shortest notice. Outport orders get my personal attention.
