

The Good of Fruit

Raisins furnish mineral salts and a rare content of food-iron to enrich the blood. Add raisins, therefore, to your puddings, cakes, pies, rolls, bread, salads, etc., not merely to make them more attractive but to get the good of this delicious fruit.

Grand Falls Supports United Fishermen.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir—A public meeting was held in the Parish Hall last night. The object of the meeting was to ascertain "public opinion" re the Resolutions presented to the Government by the United Fishermen, and their supporters. This matter was outlined by Mr. K. Brown, who was appointed Chairman of the meeting, also by Mr. J. St. George who was appointed Secretary. Speakers were then called for.

Mr. B. Scott availed of the opportunity and made an excellent impression, pointing out the absolute necessity for reduced taxation.

The next speaker was Mr. A. G. Duggan, who unmistakably voiced the sentiments of the United Fishermen, by heartily declaring himself in accord with the movement.

The next speaker to address the citizens was Mr. J. Davis. He contended that the time was opportune for reformatory action, on the part of our representatives in the Government, as the people were loud in their protests against the intolerable conditions existing, as a result of unjustifiable taxation.

Chairman K. Brown, came next and gave an interesting speech on the movement, referring to the Winsors, and their efforts to help the fishermen during the period of the Fishery Regulations, which wrought such financial disaster, practically ruining the fishermen and suppliers, amongst them the Winsors.

The Secretary then read the resolutions adopted by the United Fishermen.

Mr. B. Scott proposed that they be endorsed. This was seconded by Mr. A. G. Duggan and carried unanimously.

The next was a motion by Mr. B. Scott: "That copies of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Press, also to Mr. Jesse Winsor, Chairman of the United Fishermen's Committee." This was seconded by Mr. J. Davis and carried unanimously.

The subject-matter contained herein is an obvious and demonstrated fact that all is not well in "Our Island Home", that the people are awakening to the realization of their duties, and are determined to prevent as far as possible the criminal waste of their money, by the Trustees of the people's confidence, by demanding retrenchment, by reducing expenditures, salaries and taxation as a means to make the prosecution of the fisheries a paying proposition, and not what it is today a cause of emigration, that is probably unprecedented in our history. The same may be said of our other industries—wages going down, and taxation up—future?

If the future citizens of our country on reaching manhood and womanhood come to the conclusion that as

Lewis Meets a Tough One.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Ted "Kid" Lewis, of England, to-night defeated Roland Todd, also of England, in a 20 round fight for the middleweight championship and the Lonsdale belt. Lewis won on points. The men fought at Holland Park Hall. Lewis, who is the holder of the British, European and Empire middleweight championship, was installed the favorite in the betting, but his backers soon realized that the Yorkshire man was a tough proposition for him. Todd was superior in physical make-up; he was cool, and showed excellent defense.

The last two rounds of the bout were the only two in which Lewis had a shade the better of the milliner, winning the fight on points. During the last round the betting shaded in favor of Todd.

Chinese Murderer

MAKES HOMICIDAL ATTACK ON PRISON WARDEN.

PRISONER BECOMES VIOLENT AND HAS TO BE MANACLED.

On Saturday morning a report was quickly circulated throughout the city that the Chinaman, Wo Fen Game, whose trial had attracted such wide spread interest, in the Supreme Court all last week, had attacked Warden Rose early Friday evening, having been taken from the Court to the Penitentiary only a few hours before, suffering from nervous prostration induced by the grueling examination prisoner had undergone at the hands of Counsel. The complete details of this homicidal attack on the prison warden are as follows:—

Superintendent Parsons made the usual inspection of the prison at 7:30 p.m. Friday, accompanied by Chief Warden Manning, and during his rounds paid a visit to the cell occupied by Wo Fen Game. The Superintendent spoke to him, as he appeared to be still suffering from nerves, as pronounced by the doctors only a few hours before. He did not answer at the time, and was lying quite comfortably in his bed. Supt. Parsons found everything in order for the night and returned to his residence, which is near the penitentiary. At about 8 o'clock, Warden Rose rushed into the Superintendent's home and reported that Wo Fen Game had attacked him. The Warden had a cut over his left eye from which the blood flowed freely. Supt. Parsons immediately phoned the General Hospital that Warden Rose needed attention at once.

The warden left the home of the Superintendent and walked unaided to the hospital, where he had three stitches inserted in a gaping wound in his forehead. Dr. Fox attended him. When the alarm had been given, Supt. Parsons immediately returned to the prison, where he learned from the Chief Warden how the trouble had occurred. Chief Warden Manning stated that while Warden Rose was doing his duty on the ground floor of the main corridor, Wo Fen Game, confined in a cell in the same ward, knocked at his door, which was responded to by Rose. He then asked for a drink of warm tea. The Warden went to the kitchen, secured the tea, and returned with it to the ward. He then unlocked the cell door and opened it.

HOMICIDAL ATTACK. Immediately he did this, Wo Fen Game rushed out and struck Warden Rose a violent blow with a brick which he evidently had taken out of an air shaft in his cell. The blow inflicted a nasty wound on the right side of the Warden's forehead. Rose then grappled with the prisoner and they both fell heavily to the floor, in the main ward, outside of the cell door. In the struggle that ensued, Wo Fen Game managed to again get hold of the brick and struck the Warden a second blow; this time on the back of the head, causing a painful scalp wound. Meanwhile, Warden Rose gave the alarm and the Chief Warden, who was in the kitchen at the time, ran out and caught Wo Fen Game, who was then between the first and second doors of the main ward, leading out of the prison, meaning, it is presumed, to make a quick get-away. He was closely followed by Rose, the latter, in spite of his injuries, sticking to his man, and would, no doubt, single handed, have got him back to his cell, if the Chief Warden had not come to his assistance. The Chinaman was placed back into his cell by the Warden, and, fearing he might do bodily harm to himself or the wardens he was immediately handcuffed. Up to the time of the occurrence Wo Fen Game had shown no disposition to be either violent or disobedient.

EVERY ATTENTION PAID PRISONER. After he had been brought back to the penitentiary from the Court House in a state of delirium, as pronounced by the doctor's in their examination, the Superintendent and Warden felt no fear whatever of the man, and, judging by his condition, considered he could be looked after single-handed. He appeared to be very weak when he was placed in bed upon his return, and complaining of being cold, two bricks were ordered to be heated on the kitchen stove for him, which were placed at his feet, while he also drank some hot milk. As to what has already been stated by Superintendent Parsons, when making his usual rounds, when he called on Wo Fen Game in the early evening it was very surprising to all the officials in charge how he became so violent in such a short time. Wo Fen Game's plans, no doubt, meant a bold attempt to secure his freedom. Although he might have been subject to a nervous breakdown, still he could not have been as bad as he made out, otherwise the blow he inflicted on Warden Rose would not have been so severe. He however, would have been felled in his attempt to scale the walls of the prison, because the main door of the jail was securely locked at the time, and there was no other means of his getting out. Warden Rose is still suffering from the effects of the blow received, but is able to make visits to the hospital to have his wounds attended to. He will prob-ly be able to return to his duties in few days.

CONDEMNED MAN ACTS STRANGELY.

After Wo Fen Game received the sentence of death he was removed from the Court House to the jail and was placed in the same cell that he previously occupied, which is on the main floor. He spent a very poor evening on the first night of death hanging over him, but yesterday morning, upon arising, he walked his cell, and appeared very active. His breakfast was brought to him at the usual hour, but when the warden went to see how he was feeling a short time after, it was noticed that the murderer had acted strangely, and found that the wash basin had been broken in pieces, the enamel food pan crumpled, while the spoon which he used was doubled up. He did not eat a particle of food, and all the edibles were found in the receptacle in the corner of the cell. The Superintendent asked him to explain his actions, but he mumbled some words to himself in his own tongue, which could not be understood. Wo Fen Game was then manacled for safety, with a light weight placed on his leg-chains. The handcuffs which were placed on him, were not tightly drawn and gave him lots of room to move about, while the chain from the weight on his leg was long enough for him to walk his cell without inconvenience. Being placed in this position, he could not do any bodily harm to himself. At noon hour yesterday the condemned man did not eat any dinner.

SECOND ATTACK ON WARDEN.

It is learned on good authority that Wo Fen Game made an attack on the Superintendent and walked unaided to the hospital, where he had three stitches inserted in a gaping wound in his forehead. Dr. Fox attended him. When the alarm had been given, Supt. Parsons immediately returned to the prison, where he learned from the Chief Warden how the trouble had occurred. Chief Warden Manning stated that while Warden Rose was doing his duty on the ground floor of the main corridor, Wo Fen Game, confined in a cell in the same ward, knocked at his door, which was responded to by Rose. He then asked for a drink of warm tea. The Warden went to the kitchen, secured the tea, and returned with it to the ward. He then unlocked the cell door and opened it.

VICIOUSLY KICKS DEPUTY SHERIFF.

On Saturday morning, while Mr. L. E. Emerson was addressing the jury, the Court was interrupted by the moaning and groaning of Wo Fen Game in the dock, which made it very difficult for the jurors to hear what was being said. It was ordered that he be removed outside of the court room, in the hallway, but within hearing distance of the court. Sometime after he had been comfortably seated outside, Sub Sheriff Carroll, went over and placed an overcoat around him fearing he might be cold. While the Sub Sheriff attempted to place the garment on him, which was purely out of kindness, Wo Fen Game made a deliberate kick at Mr. Carroll, aiming at the lower extremities of his body, though fortunately not doing any injury. A second incident occurred during recess hour on Saturday, when the prisoner, while seated in a room in the Justice Building, made a bold attempt to jump through a window, which had been left slightly open. The constables on guard, however, frustrated him quickly, and he was manacled securely.

EXPERIENCED STORMY WEATHER

S.S. Prospero, Capt. J. Field, arrived from the northward on Saturday afternoon last, at 4:30. The trip was marked by gale after gale, with blinding snow storm on several occasions, made the passage a very uncomfortable one, occupying 17 days. In Capt. Field's report, he states that on Monday last the storm experienced at White Bay was the worst experienced there by the oldest inhabitants, and considerable damage had been reported. An old land mark, so long familiarly known as "Coney Head," was split in two by the terrific force of the seas. The rocks dimensions were 25 feet in height and 7 feet in diameter. It was split completely down through the centre. In the height of the storm around the White Bay district, two schooners were left to the mercy of the sea, one of which, owned by Mr. E. Breen, having been driven from her moorings at Bear's Cove and dashed on the rocks, while the other, owned by Mr. Jas. Adams of Jackson's Arm, became a total loss. In each case very little of the belongings of the crews were saved.

The Prospero brought a part cargo and the following passengers:—Messrs. M. Alocck, E. Maddon, Clarke, Moore, Davis, Gaulton, Rev. Fr. Thibault, A. Dover, A. Canning, S. Hender, J. Wellman, W. The Prospero also brought up the shipwrecked crew of John C. Mercer, Bay Roberts, who left for their homes by the shore train later in the evening.
