To the disease-burdened we would say, despair not. You may renew fife and establish a condition of health that will cause your friends anazement and wonder. Paine's Celery Compound will do the good work for you. It restores lost vigor and vitality, gives new, fresh blood, braces up the nerves, and builds up flesh and muscle. Paine's Celery Compound—the century's wonder—is no new and untried remedy. It has been tried and tested for years, and has proved triumphant in the most obstinate cases. It has saved life after all other medicines failed, and has the approval of the best medical men on this If the shadows of disease are hovering over you, if you are not as bright, energetic and strong as you were some weeks ago, a few doses of Paine's Celery Compound will

Settled once more in their places in the Commons, there was a pause, when Mr. Laurier entered. The lead-er of the Government looked spick and span. He wore a black morning coat and vest and grey trousers, and car-ried a new silk hat, cane and tan gloves in his hands. His followers cheered him enthusiastically. The clerk called order and the Pre-mied rose. Addressing Dr. Bourinot, he said that in accordance with the inti-mation just conveyed by the repre-sentative of the Crown, and according to the well-known usages of Parlia-ment. the duty now devolved upon the House to select a Speaker. grei that the customary practice and been departed from, (Opposition cheers) Dr. Bourinot put the motion to the House and declared Mr. Edgar duly elected Speaker. The new Speaker was thereupon es-corted to the dais by Mr. Laurier and Sir Richard Cartwright, and the mace, insignia of authority, was placed on the table. The new Speaker, standing on the second step of the dals, conveyed to the House his sincere and hearty thanks for the high honor done him by electing him as Speaker. He said it would be his pleasure as well as his duty to endeavor to deserve this high honor by dealing with all questions which came before him officially with firmness and impartiality. He was fully sensible of his own militness for this position, but he relied confiden-ly on the co-operation of the hon, members on both sides to assit him in maintaining their rules and regula-tions in vindicating they rights and
