Fred Soudy at Parkhill the other night and stole his outfit of razors and appliances.

Mr. Thomas Pardom, who severely sprained his ankle about a month ago, has improved sufficiently to abandon his crutches and he now gets around with the aid of a walking stick.

Dr. Leonard, American Consul, says Port

Stanley is one of the most beautiful summer resorts he ever visited. The doctor speaks of taking his daughter there this summer for a few weeks.

Rev. M. P. Talling has received a unanimous call from the Alisa Craig Presbyterian Church, but it is likely he will prefer to go to St. James' in this city, to which he has also received a call.

One drunk was discharged by the Police Magistrate this morning, one was fined $5 or twenty days, and another remained until Monday to sober off. The charges against Henry Vincent and Wm. Speere of fighting on the street were dropped.

The funeral took place on Wednesday at Newbury of Henry Root, aged 29 years, son of Mr. Malcolm Root, of Weidman, who, while bathing in the River Thames at Kent Bridge, was seized with cramps, and drowned before assistance could reach him.

Mr. Norman McMillan, of East Williams,
