MR. MILLS AT BOTHWELL.

DRESDEN, March 20.—On the evening that the returning officer announced the majority of Hon. David Mills in Bothwell to be 550, a public jubilee meeting was held in the Town Hall. A procession formed at the Wescott House, headed by the Dresden band, and the hall was crowded to the doors. Dr. Semson presided, and the evening was spent in listening to a number of speeches by Mr. J. A. Walker, Mr. Christie, Dr. McCully, Mr. R. Ferguson, M. P. P., Mr. A. Campbell, M. P., Dr. Fleming, Mr. Jas. Dillon, Mr. S. J. Sutherland, Mr. Malcolmson, Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Shambleau. The Hon. David Mills addressed his constituents, expressing himself surprised at the handsome majority given him, though he had always felt sure of success. Mr. Mills before closing said he was delighted that the people of Kent had re-elected his friend, Mr. Campbell, by such a handsome majority. Mr. Campbell had done himself credit during his term in Parliament, and Kent had most generously done himself credit during his term in Parliament, and Kent had most generously recognized his abilities and his zeal for the public welfare. The people of Kent believe, by a large majority, that the policy of which Mr. Campbell is the exponent is the best policy for the country, and he (Mr. Mills) believed that before the Parliament is very old that policy mast triumph; that the members from the smaller Provinces would be starved into the acceptance of free trade, for no one could believe that reciprocity was not as urgently needed there reciprocity was not as urgently needed there as in Quebec and Ontario.
