WEEKLY REVIEW.

There have been only a few changes in values on the market this week. General receints were small, but not less than is usual at this time of the year. There were only a few loads of oats came in. The inquiry for local consumption was steady and better than the supply, consequently prices sdvanced about 5c year 100 lbs since last week's report. The close was $1 15 per 100 lbs.

Wheat sold steady at $1 04 to $1 08; demand and supply both steady.

Nothing was done in any other kinds of grain, owing to no deliveries.

Butter opened at life to 17c, according to quality and quantity, and closed at 15c to 19c. An advance of 1/2 to 2c per lb.

Eggs were steady at 11c by the basket and 12c to 13c retail.

Beef steady at 6c to 7c; supply good. Other kinds of meat quiet and unchanged.

Wool receipts foll off considerable; sales steady at 18c to 19c on 18c retails.

Raspherries brought 10c per quart for tame and $1 to $1 0per peck.

Raspherries brought 10c per quart for tame and $1 to $1 10per not all for wild. Other kinds 40c to 50c per peck.

Raspberries brought 10c per quart for tame and $1 to $1 10 per pail for wild. Other kinds of truit steady.

Hay steady and sold well at $7 50 to $3.

A NEW HORROR I

Ten or Eleven More Victims of the Chicago Holocaust Found.

an Unexpected Find at the Bottom of the Ruinz-One a Woman.

CHICAGO, July 12 .- The Herald this morn-

CHICAGO, July 12.—The Herald this morning has the following: Early this morning it was learned that ten more bodies had been found in the ruins of the cold storage warehouse.

The man who made this discovery tried to keep the knowledge from reaching the public, but it came out in some way. Nine of these bodies are of men and one of a woman. The corpses of the dead lay piled all in a heap near the foot of the elevator shaft. When the searching party discovered the remains a large crowd of morbid spectators surrounded the ruins. The enormity of the unexpected find staggered the firemen who made made

THE FEARFUL DISCOVERY.

After a hasty consultation it was decided not to take the bodies out in the presence of the watching thousands. Orders were given to exclude the reporters from the fire lines. Only a small number of firemen belonging to truck 16, assisted by a dozen guards, weaked over the ruins of the burned building all day yesterday.

Four bodies were discovered up to 5 o'clock, when a fifth was found. Up to that time no more victims were uncovered until about 7:30 o'clock. For an hour before a sickening odor issued from the east side of the ruins, to the left of the doorway. Three men were set to work in this place, and just before the order was given to stop work for the day a heavy beam was lifted, and right between the interstices of half adozen of crossed and broken timbers and bent rods of iron could be seen

A HEAP OF BODIES.

This was the source of the foul smell. The bodies are quite badly burned, but they lay at the very bottom of the ruins, and had been partially protected from the fire by water. It is impossible to tell just how many bodies lie in this terrible pot.

Adjt. Smith said the Columbian guards were all accounted for, but when questioned with regard to the employes of the louding, he replied that there were undoubtedly the remains of some in the ruins.

tioned with regard to the employes of the building, he replied that there were un-doubtedly the remains of some in the ruins. He stated that the department had reports of a number of persons being missing, but he declined to give their names.
