St. Thomas, July 15.-The local team downed the London nine in the second and last game of the series here yester-day. GUELPH FEELS SORE.

A number of the baseball cranks in this city feel very sore over the fact that Guelph is entirely in the cold as far as baseball is concerned for this season. It is said several who were anxious and willing to take hold of matters here held back, thinking other gentlemen in the city were taking steps to bring a team. There is no doubt that if the representative from this city had been present at the London meeting a few days ago, and shown a disposition in behalf of Gueiph for a place in the league, the other cities would have been favorable to let us in instead of Chatham. It also looks as if Bay City had been offered anything worth accepting they would have at least given Guelph a trial before disbanding. For the present baseball will sleep in Guelph, and perhaps it

ANOTHER INTERNATIONAL

LEAGUE SUGGESTED. Globe: With three Canadian cities In the Eastern League, it wouldn't be a bad dea to revive the old International League, now that the organization of that name has gone out of existence. Toronto and Montreal will have a rival for Canadian championship bonors in Ottawa, and a formidable on at that. The ex-Rochester team is stronger now than ever it was, and stands an excellent chance of finishing in the first bunch. It is significant that the team won its first game playing under the Ottawa management vester-There is no question that the capital can support a ball team if the people "warm up" to the game. The Ot-tawalans are good sports, and the en-thusiasts in this part of the country would be tickled to death to see base ball become popular in that city. THE WESTERN LEAGUE. In President Johnson's bulletin of the Western League is noted the release of Nicholl by Detroit and his being claimed by Minneapolis. The Millers had a man named Dennis playing in Campau's field on Wednesday at Columbus, while it has been supposed that Indianapolis would get Nicholl. Among 6-1, 6-2. the list of claimed are the following opposite the Detroit club's name: Shortstop Bone, Outfielder Sharritt, Second Baseman Dean, Shortstop Clancy, and Pitcher Friske. Dean and Friske are with Hamilton, and it is said Boston has secured Clancy. St. Paul has claimed Pitcher Smith and Third Baseman Hickey, of the Western Association; Kansas City has claimed Pitcher Foley and Outfielders Ladd and News. Ladd has signed with Pittsburg, and News with Providence. St. Joseph has released Denny Lyons, and Indianapolis has released J. Weimer and P. Kostal, the players who were farmed in the

THE OPEN DOOR

Britain's Principle in the Development of Her Empire.

New York, July 14.-The Tribune prints the following from its London correspondent with reference to the meeting of the Anglo-American League ing was Lord Farrar's declaration that prudence was as necessary as enthusiasm in the direction of the movement for the promotion of better relations between the two countries. He emphasized the statement by an implicit reference to the policy of expansion upon which the American people were entering, and by a pointed reminder that the "open door" was England's principle in the development of her commercial empire; whereas other nations closed the door in establishing colonies. Consequently, he urged that it was a matter of the utmost importmatches were played in the Canadian ance for England to ascertain whether the Americans, in their career of expansion, would keep the door open or closed."

SHOCKING DEATH

One of Detroit's Best Known and Most Useful Women Decapitated by a Train.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 15.-Mrs. Hannah Schloss, wife of Seligman Schloss, a retired merchant of wealth, whose home is in Detroit, met death in a shocking manner Wednesday morning at Okauchee Station, a summer resort about 25 miles north of Milwaukee. The family were spending the summer at Okauchee Lake, and Mrs. Schloss started for Milwaukee, in company with her son-in-law to do some shopping. The approach to the station is very steep. Mrs. Schloss, who is quite stout, was out of breath when she arrived at the summit, and apparently did not have strength to hurry across the tracks, when she saw a train coming. Noticing the danger, her son-in-law, F. D. Adler, turned back, and at the risk of his own life seized Mrs. Schloss' hand.

Mrs. Schloss tripped on the first rail, and as she fell, Mr. Adler lost his grip. The unfortunate woman's head fell squarely across the other rail, and the next moment the engine had decapitated her, and shockingly mangled

Mrs. Schloss was about 55 years of age, and besides her husband, who was at the summer home at the time of the accident, leaves a daughter, Mrs. F. D. Adler, of Milwaukee, and two sons, the elder Albert W., in Detroit, and the younger, Murray, who is a student at the University of Chicago. Mrs. Schloss was probably the most prominent Hebrew woman in Detroit Mrs. Schloss gave a large share of Hebrew Women's Auxiliary Relief and Sewing Society since its organization in 1882. The name of Seligman Schloss is known to the clothing trade in every city and village of Michigan and a good share of the surrounding states.
