AITHFUL

"It's me," says Cecilia, softly. It is sweetest, if the most ungrammati-little exclamation—and young, alhildish. Indeed, on poor Cecilia, strange, so strong an influence, that it excitement. That coldness of Stairs' has carried her back to the old days, has restored her to the old calm feeling when she was hardly out of her short frocks, or, at all-events, only just into has sprung into her eyes. Phil! you remember me?" Her smile how is one of clear delight—open, frank. The idea of concealment of any Frank. The idea of concealment of any sort is outside and beyond it altogether.

She holds out both her hands to him, I saw it," says Mickey. "That's a year ago. It was then pea-green." from her. It is as though it had never been. Here is her childhood's—her girlhood's friend. It would be absurd to say she has forgotten to think of who may be booking on as she holds who may be booking on as she holds who may be looking on as she holds out her hands to him, or of what they may be thinking, or how judging her. To her there is nothing to think about, save joy at the recovery of Phil; there is no thought of evil in her mind, of gin, or of regret. Everything seems blotted out in her save he and the memory of the old sweet days, when he had been all the world to her, and "In the bed "Think anyth"

She his universe. Stairs had quite recovered himself. now, and advances to her calmly, cold-ly, even although his heart is on fire. The very quick, open cordiality of her greeting has, more than all else, assured him of her indifference to him. She had never cared! What a fool! What a fool! What a fool! The very low, I call it. But what a fool he had here! "Well?"

The refused to give me any information on the subject. Very low, I call it. But what a wet time the first night under canyous expect of a man who sold a dog to a friend of mine, and—?"

The first threshing of this season around Delhi was done on Saturday on "Well?"

What a fool he had been! He smiles pleasantly, takes both the dittle outstretched hands so daintily clad in their dove-grey suedes, and Mickey." presses them lightly.

"I remember," says he.
The words might have had significance, but for the extreme carelessness of the utterance. They sound unemotional—dead. Cecilia's soft smile fades, and with slow haste, if one may so de-scribe it, she withdraws her hands. Mrs. Chance, who has an unpleasant trick of studying her neighbors' moods, retires behind her fan, and gives way

'Sold," she says to herself softly. As has been said, she is very vulgar when

"Oh, do you think so? We usen't to irritating.

No, like one, I said." Nell's voice rings a little sharp.
"Yes. That was what she said," says Grant, who is again reclining at her feet. There is an air of protection in 'It doesn't matter what I said," says Nell supremely, speaking to him only now, and feeling a little annoyed with him for his support. "And I wish you would get up, you are sitting on my dress. I think, on the whole, you are about as tiresome a person as ever I met in my life." "I hope you haven't met many," says Grant, whose temper as a rule is excellent. He looks amused. 'No," says Nell. She struggles with Sweeter than ever.

Grant has risen indeed at her comSeltzer's blowhole. mand, but now he is leaning over her

"Oh, hang it! Here comes Nobbs." says McNamara, suddenly, in a voice of horror, that is a little more Irish

"Then I'm going," says Nell.

"No, no. You shan't. You can't," says McNamara, seizing her skirt, and and the top valve of his breathing apand that of Mr. Smith $600, a reduction of the pastor's salary, has been approved. It makes the salary of the rector $1,300 and that of Mr. Smith $600, a reduction of the pastor's salary, has been approved. compelling her to reseat herself. "I'll hold you Do you think we are going to be left to his tender mercies, with-out protection of any kind? Why, I believe you are the only person in the whole place who has been free from persecution from him. He hasn't fired rid of the water in his lungs. After a day of suffering in the presence of Dr. Bean, Seltzer finally choked, gasped and rose to the surface dead. one quotation at you yet."

"That's what frightens me! I feel The Very Finest

In the Land . . .

Nothing Like It.

Ordinary price in large cities, $5.00 per lb.

We offer a special lot at 75c per lb. to introduce High Grade Teas.

Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co., 169 DUNDAS STREET.

he has been making up a regular fusillade for my benefit alone, and when it

"Here he is!" says Mickey. "He's going for us! He's coming here! We ought to be prepared, you know. He's coming, primed and loaded; I know it by his air. Who's going to stand the first shot?"

"I don't mind to be prepared, you know the stand the first shot?"

"I don't mind to be prepared, you know the stand the first shot?"

"I don't mind to be prepared, you know the stand the first shot?" "I don't mind his quotations," says

Mrs. Chance disdainfully. It is a com-fort to her to be able to disdain some-* ne openiy. "You're a brave woman," says the

Irishman. "I confess I always go down before them—riddled." "God gracious! what's the matter with his hair?" asks Cecilia suddenly. appearance of Stairs has had so She has quite recovered from her lat when she was hardly out of her short rocks, or, at all-events, only just into ler long ones.

Her color has deepened. A soft light as sprung into her eyes.

"Phil! you remember ma?" Her smile is changed."

In as restored her to the old calm feeling was restored her to the old calm f is changed.'

"It is certainly a very remarkable regulated families.

Mrs. Chance is laughing.

"How did he explain it?"

"Gave out that he had the cholera, and hid himself away in his bedroom for three weeks." "Then how did you see him?" asks

"In the bedroom, of course," airily. "Think anything would daunt me in the cause of science? I wanted to know how the dye had come out pea-green; but—would you believe it?—he refused rier, but it turned out a Dachshund!"

"Oh, I really can't believe that,

"You may, however."
"The friend, anyway, had the best of the bargain," says Grant. "Dachshunds, if pure, are valuable."
"Yes, of course, that's why I say one can expect nothing from him. He's a perfect fool." "Hush! he's here," says Grant.

"And a beauty he is!" says Mr. Mc-

CHAPTER XI.

"He said, or right or wrong, what ame into his head."

came into his head."

Here he is, indeed, and perforce the conversation comes to ap end.

Mr. Nobbs is a little man, spare and pade, but of exuberant spirits. He is group upon the terrace, and running down the grass teps, goes apparently towards the golfers.

When hidden from its view of those upon the terrace, he however turns aside, and blundge into the wood, is lost to sight for the rest of this gay afternoon.

"How many a man in smart Find matter to rejicke?"

"How many a man in smart Find matter to rejicke?"

"How extremely good-locking." says Mrs. Chance, leaning towards Cecilia, land purposely addressing her.

"Who? Captain Stairs." says Nell, breaking in quickly. Something about its strikes her as strange, and, without understanding it, it has 61s, turbed her; has given her a queer, unexplained feeling, that she ought to come to her help in some way. And Mrs. Chance's eyes are so pereirating, so very blue. "Good-looking." "Landsome, rather."

"Chance's eyes are so pereirating, so very blue. "Good-looking." "Says Nell, without understanding it, it has 61s, turbed her; has given her a queer, unexplained feeling, that she ought to come to her help in some way. And Mrs. Chance's eyes are so pereirating so very blue. "Good-looking." "Says Nell, without understanding it, it has 61s turbed her; has given her a queer, unexplained feeling, that she ought to come to her help in some way. And Mrs. Chance's eyes are so pereirating, so very blue. "Good-looking." "Says Nell, without understanding it, it has 61s turbed her; has given her a queer, unexplained feeling, that she ought to come to her help in some way. And Mrs. Chance's eyes are so pereirating, so very blue. "Good-looking." "Says Nell, without understanding it, it has 61s turbed her; has given her a queer, unexplained feeling, that she ought to come to her help in some way. And Mrs. Chance's eyes are so pereirating. He had to have her adapting the south of the carry was taken to a market in the cord still about its man, the content of the wood is a few fee

"Oh, do you think so? We usen't to think him handsome, used we, Cissy? You remember, long ago? I was almost a baby then, and you—a betwix and between. Handsome! But then he was like a brother to us, and one never thinks one's brother handsome. That might account for it."

That might account for it."

"Except," says Mrs. Chance, sweetly, "that he," she looks again at Cecilia, as if speaking to her, "wasn't your thinks one, and therefore very near the rose. Nell is the latest importation, and therefore the most deserving of his attention. Besides, she is beautiful, and Mr. Nobbs, as he always says, "adores the beautiful in any shape." It is a little formula of his.

Tuesday. 9 originally came from New Brunswic., and settled in Ontario when the country was new. He was a cousin of Sir Charles Tupper, but differed from him in politics.

A meeting of the directors of the Bayham Central Fair was held on Saturday. The prize list was revised and all arrangements made for holding the fair again this year at Staffordville, on Sept. 23. A large number of special window In the country was new. He was a cousin of Sir Charles Tupper, but differed from him in politics.

A meeting of the directors of the Bayham Central Fair was held on Saturday. The prize list was revised and all arrangements made for holding the fair again this year at Staffordville, on Sept. 23. A large number of special

KILLED BY AN EEL.

Big Whale in the New York Aquarium Drowned.

New York, July 29.—Seltzer is dead. Seltzer was the white whale of the aquarium. The primary cause of his ary, strange to say, as it may seem, water. He was drowned.

On Friday night the keepers noticed that Seltzer was uneasy. He acted in a funny way. He sneezed, snorted and gruinned as if in seemed as it is seen, as it is seemed as it is seen, as i squirmed as if in pain. He had par-taken of an unusually large portion of herself, and then gives way to laughter. "Anyway, you are the worst," says she, but so delightfully, and with says she, but so delightfully, and with such a half-merry, half-defiant glance from under her lids, as makes her sweeter than ever.

T. H. Bean, the director of the aquatium, loaded. Waldron got the full charge in the side of his head. He was taken to the hospital, but it is feared he will not recover.

The water from the tank was drawn immediately. When it was about half store. down the whale had succeeded in ejecta fifteen-inch eel from his blow-The eel had been partly digestso inflamed that he couldn't close it. Seltzer could neither breathe nor get rid of the water in his lungs. After a and rose to the surface dead.

A CHANGE IN TONE.

The Stand Taken by Doctors on the Kent Case Beginning to Weaken.

Ottawa, July 26.—It is safe to say ger. that the statement made under oath by Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, with Chatham on Tuesday, but there was Western Ontario.

Serious Accident to a Sparta Farmer-Lambton W. C. T. U. Convention-Results of Wheat Threshing at Delhi-Burglars at St. George-A Guelph Man Accidentally Shot by His Friend.

James Montgomeij, of Blyth, has started a large cooper shop at Sea-

Mr. J. Morewood, Alvinston, attended the funeral of his brother in Petrolea last week.

The Lambton county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Sarnia on the 29th and 30th of September. W. D. Vanegmond's woolen mill at Seaforth has resumed operations and is turning out some of the best cloth make, at 7% cents.

Gilbray & McKellar, Alvanston, are rushing the cattle business this season. Already over 100 carloads have been shipped this season.

The Clinton council has decided to erect the Stavely Memorial Hall on the east end of the market square. The work will be proceeded with at once. The Boys' Bugade of Trinity Church, Aylmer went into camp at Port Bruce on Monday. They experienced rather og to a friend of mine, and—?"

"Well?"

"Well. He said it was an Irish terier but it turned out the farm of Quance brothers. They threshed 360 bushes of wheat off 13

Councilor William Amburst, Delhi while attending to his work on Sunday, burst a blood vessel in his head. The attending physician has no hope of his recovery.

as the Firby factory. Mr. Arthur Clark, of Sparta, had the

a few weeks since his little girl was shot through the hand. Here he is, indeed, and perforce the The latest acquisition to the Wood-

Tuesday. e originally came from New | yesterday.

Sept. 23. A large number of special attractions will be added. adly burned on Tuesday, at Guelph, y the explosion of a bicycling en-by the iron door of the oven. The acting master in chambers at aquarium. The primary cause of his death was greediness, and the second-filing the defense of Judge Hughes, of

> T. Waldron, of Guelph, was accidentally shot by George Mallot while the latter was showing his gun to his friend. Neither knew that the gun was While trying to rid himself of the Burglars visited the village of St. chair, whispering little nothings to her, and Mrs. Chance, seeing him, and Nell's evident pleasure in society, feels a sense of relief. If only she will fall in love with Alec, what a good thing for her—him—what a good thing for her—Bella!

White trying to he ministed of the himself of the contents of an overloaded stomach, the ech had entered and clogged the nasal passage. This had prevented the valves of the lungs from closing and the water that had entered Seltzer's breathing apparatus had to be expellated.

George on Monday night, entering Mrs. Clinton's house, D. H. Nellis' jewelry shop and W. F. Haas' stores. Attempts were made to drill the safes in Nellis' and Haas' stores, but they falled in both cases. They got a small amount of cash at Mrs. Clinton's house, D. H. Nellis' jewelry shop and W. F. Haas' stores. Attempts were made to drill the safes in Nellis' and Haas' stores, but they falled in both cases. They got a small amount of cash at Mrs. Clinton's house, D. H. Nellis' jewelry' shop and W. F. Haas' stores. Attempts were made to drill the safes in Nellis' and Haas' stores, but they falled in both cases. They got a small amount of cash at Mrs. Clinton's house, D. H. Nellis' jewelry' shop and W. F. Haas' stores. Attempts were made to drill the safes in Nellis' and Haas' stores, but they falled in both cases. They got a small amount of cash at Mrs. Clinton's house, D. H. Nellis' jewelry' shop and W. F. Haas' stores. amount of cash at Mrs. Clinton's, some tobacco and clothing in Haas'

The report of the committee appointed by the vestry of All Saints' Church, respectively, of $100 and $200. A committee of ten will canvass the congregation for subscriptions to pay off the debt of $700. Squire Haley and son, who have been lying in Simcoe jail as the result of the assault on Mr. Jeffreys last week, ppeared before Magistrate Cohoe at Courtland Monday morning. Tom Haley was remanded for a week and his father was admitted to bail on his own recognizance for $6,000. The condition of Mr. Jeffreys is somewnat improved, but he is not yet out of dan-regard to his wonderful recovery from neither wind nor electric disturbance. Bright's disease through the agency of Heavy storm clouds rapidly passed to Dodd's Kidney Pills have definitely decided the question as to whether he thunder storm broke. At the Eau, 20 cided the question as to whether he owes his recovery to this valuable medicine, and has been accepted as a final settlement of the debate. While, however, there is now no objection raised to this statement, there is still berry crop, the largest which has been accepted as a final settlement of the debate. While, however, there is now no objection raised to this statement, there is still berry crop, the largest which has been accepted as a final settlement of the debate. raised to this statement, there is still a strong feeling in the city and neighborhood with regard to the cure, and those who at first combatted the idea as incredible are now loud in their expressions of astonishment that what has been considered an incurable disease should succumb so quickly to a remedy and in their praise of the remedy, and in their praise of the remedy itself.

of men, women and cmidren, earning from 50 cents to $1 a day picking berries, are thrown out of work. Blackberries, raspberries, currants, goose-Le Bing Nam, the Chinese athlete, says that his extraordinary strength is due to his diet, which consists chiefly of boiled rice and boiled ducks' heads. boiled rice and boiled ducks' heads.
The brains of the duck, he asserts, are very strengthening.
Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleas-Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleas-ant, sure and effectual. If your drug-a wet harvest season that has left its gist has none in stock, get him to pro-cure it for you. mark of ruin on every farmstead in the district.

RECENT FISH STORY.

A Boy Catches German Carp With a Dog for Bait.

Middletown, N. J., July 29.—John Hunt, a 15-year-old boy, of Narrowburg, has discovered a new bait for German caro. On Friday 600 boxes of cheese were shipped from the Staffordville cheese factory. This factory is under the management of Mr. D. Leitch, as well as the Fighty fording. ly fellow, and to make sure it would not run away the boy used a stout cord ends of two fingers cut off recently about 50 feet long as a leash.

While setting his binder knives. Only He tied the dog on shore while he took his swim, and then thinking t give the pup its first lesson in swim ming, he entered a boat, rowed about half way across the river and threw

Windsor, July 29.-William Shields, a guest at the Mettawas, while bathing F. J. Franks had his face and arms on Tuesday, stepped in a hole, and, be ing unable to swim, was going to the bottom when Andrew Moore, of Kings ameling oven. Franks was thrown across the room by the force of the ex- him into a boat. It took a doctor half plosion. His forehead was badly cut an hour to bring Shields back to con sciousness. The guests of the hote Practice Economy In buying medicine, as in other mat-ters. It is economy to get Hood's Sarsaparilla because there is more medi-cinal value in Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other. Every bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains 100 doses and will average, taken according to directions, to last a month, while others last but a fortnight.

HOOD'S PILLS are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Easy and yet efficient.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again. No Dessert Handy. You forgot those PAN-DRIED ROLLED OATS left over from OATS left over from breakfast. They're delicious cold served up with cream and They have a rich, nutty avor that pan drying lavor that pan drying flavor that pan drying alone can yield—the flavor that nature gives to the oat when it is fully ripe. ripe.

Sold by the pound at

The Tillson Co'y, Limited, Tilsonburg, Ont.

NO DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION

> necessary a cake of genuine -and you will have the best soap made.

Montreal.

Mammoth Livery Hacks, Coupes, Lendaus, Busses, and Light Hacks, Coupes, Lendaus, Busses, and Light Hacks, Coupes, Landaus, Busses and Ligi Livery. Saddle Horses, Sale and Boardin Stable. Open day and night. Phone 503.

A. G. STROYAN Dundas St.

Navigation and Railways. Take the Fast Passenger Line

MICHIGAN CENTRAL TO THE EAST AND WEST.

CHEAP EXCURSIONS

Nashville, Tenn., To Buffalo, N. Y., G. A. R.

For particulars call at city office, 395 Rich-

WHITE STAR LINE Royal and United States Mail Steamers for Queenstown and Liverpool. GERMANIC Sept. 8, noon

"TEUTONIC Sept. 15, noon
"Superior second cabin accommodation on these steamers.

From White Star dock, foot West Tenth St. From White Star dock, foot West Tenth St Saloon rates—On Teutonic and Majestic, $100 and upwards; second cabin rates, Majestic and Teutonic, $45 and $50; round trip, $85 50 to $25, according to location of berth. Saloon rates on Germanic and Britannic, $75 and up wards. Steerage at lowest rates. Company's office, 41 Broadway New York.

For further information apply to

EDWARD DE LA HOOKE SOLE AGENT FOR LONDON.
Office—"Clock,"corner Richmond and Dundas.

DETROIT.

to enable you to buy

Be sure and get the wherever you can -

The Albert Toilet Soap Co., Mfrs.

OCEAN, LAKE, RIVER

AND RAIL

EXCURSION TICKETS

(The finest train in the world),

White Mountains and Atlantic Coast.

Leaves London every Thursday at 9:55 p.m., for the St. Lawrence River, Montreal,

Will issue return tickets for SINGLE FIRST-CLASS FARE, good going p.m. trains Aug. 14, and all trains Aug. 15 and 16,

Alaska Gold Fields Steamer "Islander" will leave Victoria, B. C., on special trip Aug. 15, for Dyea, Alaska, Port en route to Klondyke, Yukon gold fields. Cabin passage Victoria to Dyea $40. THOS. R. PARKER, city passenger agent, 161 Dundas street, corner of Richmond, City office open 7 a.m.

DOMINION (Elder, Dempster) LINES.

S.S. Merrimac......Thursday, Aug. 5 S.S. Etolia......Thursday, Aug. 12 And weekly thereafter. Montreal to London Direct.

S.S. Parkmore Saturday, Aug. 7
S.S. Marino Saturday, Aug. 14
And weekly thereafter.

And weekly thereafter.

And weekly thereafter.

General Accommodation providing the saturday of the saturday

Persia and Ocean

Toronto to Montreal, Sailing Every Tuesday and Saturday. Cabin fares, Toronto to Montreal, single, $7.50, return $14, including meals and berths. Low rates to intermediate ports, 10:05 a.m. train G. T. R. connects with boat at Toronto.

F. B. CLARKE,

Sole Agent. Richmond street, next Advertiser.

The Attractions of the Big Building Sale

Are varied and numerous. We're crowding interest into every section in the big store, and to say we're busy would be putting it mildly,

While bricklayers and their assistants are busy on the new annex, which is fast getting into shape.

The interior of the store is already being dismantled, and every morning something comes to the front that must be slaughtered.

The Silks and Black Goods have taken a tumble in earnest, and are interesting to customers just now. Some lines about half price and everything new and high class. In the Blouse Section, you'll find greater bargains than ever, with greater crowds of enthusiastic shoppers and still greater reductions in price. Handsome Blouses that were sold for 50c, 69c and 75c, now going at 40c.

Elegant Waists that were sold for 97c, $1, $1 25 and $1 50, now go at 75c. New patterns and colors in Ceylon Flannels, sold everywhere for 15c, our sale price 10c, Wash Crepons, handsome goods for waists or dresses, regular price 20c, our sale price 122c. Large Crochet Quilts, regular price $1 25, our sale

Large Summer Blankets, regular price $1, our sale Black and Colored Parasols, regular $1 50, $2 and $3, now $1, $1 25 and $2. Table Linens that were 68c, 90c and $1 25, now selling for 45c, 65c and 75c. Fine Wide Bleached Cotton, well worth 81c, sale price

Fine Wide Unbleached Cotton, regular price 7c, sale

Wide English Flannelettes, regular price 8c, sale And so the story of the Big Building Sale goes through every department in the house, Runians & Butler.

IMPORTERS

208, 210, 2102 and 212 Dundas St. Navigation and Railways Navigation and Railways

OF CANADA

The direct Route between the West and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie des Chaleur, Province of Quebec; also for New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward and Cape Breton Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax laily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points. day cars are run on all through express trains.
The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are all along the Intercolonial, or are reached by that route, Canadian-European Mail and Passenger Route. Passengers for Great Britain or the Contin-nt leaving Montreal Sunday morning will bin outward mail steamers at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces, Newfoundland and the West Indies; also for shipments an markets, either by way of St. John or difax. Fickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates, on application to N. WEATHERSTON, Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 33 Rossin House Block, York street, Foronto,

D. POTTINGER,
General Manager.

Railway Office. Moncton, N. B., 21st May, 1897.

Royal Mail Steamships, Liverpool, Called on all Bristol steamers.

For rates of freight and other particulars apply to ELDER, DEMPSTER & CO., Montreal or R. DAWSON HARLING, 23 Scott Street, Toronto, Telephone 2,845.

Each M. Byerpool, Derry, Bolfast, Glasgow, London, everything found, $22.50 and $23.50.

Glasgow-New Mork service — From New Street, Toronto, Telephone 2,845.

steerage, $23.50.
AGENTS—E. De la Hooke, "Clock" corner Richmond and Dundas, Thos. R. Parker. southwest corner Richmond and Dundas streets, and F. B. Clarke, 416 Richmond street. L. E. & D. R. R.

PORT STANLEY

Vednesday and Saturday of each week during he season. Fare 30c round trip. Trains eave London at 10:05 a.m., 2:30, 5:25 and 7:25 Cleveland & Port Stanley Line Steamers.

Commencing Saturday, July 24, and each Saturday thereafter, cheap Saturday excurriver sail. Nicest route. No dust; no smoke. C. F. BIELMAN, traffic manager. F. B. CLARKE, agent, Richmond street, next Advertiser.

The position which it will then naturally take.

A man may float in salt water without moving his hands or feet if he has the presence of mind to throw his head back and allow his body to sink to the position which it will then naturally take.

Sions will be run by steamer Flora. Fare only $2.70 for round trip from London. Train leaves London 7:25 p.m.; returning, boat leaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves Cleveland Monday evening 8 p.m., arriving back in London 8:45 a.m., Tuesday morning. Regular sailings of Steamer Flora teaves are the properties of Steamer Flora teaves are the properties of Steamer Flora teaves are the properties of Steamer Flora teaves are the properties