Death of St. Thomas Lady.

St. Thomas Journal: The death occurred on Tuesday night of Mrs. Ann Page, wife of Joshua Page, Balaclava street north. Mrs. Page, while not in the best of health for some time, had been around as usual on Tuesday, but during the evening was taken ill, and died within an hour. Heart trouble was the cause of death. The deceased had been a highly esteemed resident of the city for the past 24 years. She was born in England, and at the time of her death was in her 66th year. She is survived by two daughters, and one son, Mrs. T. Allan, Mrs. Pameson and John Page, all of this city. Mrs. Fred Simmons, of London, is a sister. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 4 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Gundy, of the Grace Methodist Church, of which deceased was a member.

FEAR INTERRUPTIONS

Engineers Say Possibilities of Delay Impairs Value of Niagara Power.

Detroit, June 23.—Because of the great risk of interruption in the service, the large power and electric light dispensing companies of Detroit are not greatly impressed with the possibilities of bringing electric power to this city from Niagara Falls. Representatives of various firms in this business in the city have expressed their views on the subject.

"The Edison Illuminating Company has nothing to do with the project for bringing Niagara power to Detroit," said Alexander Dow, president of the Edison Company, yesterday. "In view of the fact that it is no harder to cross the Detroit River with cables than to cross the Niagara River, and that the Edison Company, the D. U. R., the Murphy Power Company, the public lighting commission and other companies which dispense electric light and power are constantly on the lookout for cheaper sources of electricity, it seems that these companies have been overlooking a good thing, or else there is something wrong with the plan to bring Niagara power to Detroit."

A representative of another concern gave instance of the ease with which the service might be interrupted. "Limbs of trees, birds, and other minor causes are enough to cause delays and intermissions in the service and you cannot expect to run power over 200 miles without these troubles," he said.

DEMAND $8,000 RANSOM

New York, June 23.—Dr. Mariano Scimeca, whose 3-year-old son, Michael, is supposed to have been carried off by blackmailers, received today a letter demanding $8,000 ransom for the child.

"We have your baby. He is safe. We will deliver him to you when you pay $8,000," the letter read.

Dr. Scimeca turned the letter over to detectives.

A substance called paraphenylenediamine is now much used in hair dyes instead of nitrate of silver. This drug appears to change to a poisonous substance called quinone di-idide upon exposure to the air and oxidation. Many cases of poisoning, the London Lancet says, have resulted from hair dyes containing the drug.

A will was contested not long ago in New York because the testatrix had bequeathed a grand piano, several oil paintings and five pieces of Japanese pottery to a police station. The protesting legatee won out, and there was a reversion of those art treasures to the regular heirs.

SOME GUESSES OVER THE VETO CONFERENCE

Any Tangible Results Are Possible But Not Probable.

London, June 23.—A special to the Toronto Star says: The conference in which the leaders of the two great political parties are engaged is important in the last degree. While it may prove futile, the mere fact that a conference has been entered in at all indicates a possibility of a settlement.

The position of the leaders of either party is an unenviable one. The less known of the Unionist peers, and the more unbending among the rank and file of their party, are furious with the Unionist leader for entering into the conference, and with the journals of their own party which have suggested compromise. Mr. Asquith's attitude is being watched by the Irish and Labor members, and by the extremists of his own party with suspicion, particularly as they have always suspected his Radicalism. It is in a large measure due to two men with particularly sane heads. Mr. Long on the Unionist and Mr. Haldane on the Liberal side that the conference has materialized at all.

It should be mentioned that the leaders on either side do not go into the conference armed with the powers of plenipotentiaries.

One Great Objection.

The three principal Liberal objections to the House of Lords, as at present constituted, are in respect of first, its hereditary principles, secondly, its control over finance as exemplified by its rejection of last year's budget; thirdly, its paramount control over general legislation, as exemplified by its rejection of the education and licensing bills. The Unionists, as a whole, are undoubtedly prepared to abandon the peers' hereditary principle in the manner indicated by Lord Rosebery's series of resolutions and it is barely possible that, in obedience to official pressure they may consent to abrogate the control over the finance at present claimed by the Upper House. But there is high authority for stating that they are practically unanimous in their determination not to agree that bills, relating to matters of general legislation should become as of right, at the instance of the Government of the day supported by a majority in the House of Commons, the law of the land within the lifetime of a single parliament.

Nothing More Tangible.

The gaining complete control over finance—assuming, as is just barely possible, the Unionist consent to this being yielded up by the peers—would be, beyond all question, a notable triumph for Liberalism. Still, it is doubtful whether even this would make up, in the eyes of the Radical stalwarts, for the inability of the Liberal leaders to gain at the conference, practically supreme control over general legislation for the House of Commons.

Thus is cannot be said that the prospects of anything tangible in the way of a constitutional settlement resulting from the conference which has been convened within the first six weeks of our new King's reign, look particularly favorable.

THE OHIO DEMOCRATS NAME GOV. HARMON

Go Into Campaign With Him as Candidate for State and Presidency.

Dayton, O., June 23.—The Democratic party of Ohio goes into the state campaign this fall with Judson Harmon as its candidate for governor and president. The state convention indorsed him in the strongest terms.

The belief that the governor will resign shortly after the beginning of his new term to become a candidate before the next democratic national convention was voiced by ex-Governor Campbell. He was introducing Atlee Pomerene, the nominee for lieutenant-governor.

"Here is the man," he said, "who will be lieutenant-governor for six months and the governor for a year and six months."

Both of these nebulous promotions, however, were accomplished against the earnest protests of their beneficiaries. Governor Harmon made a futile request of the resolutions committee that they omit the presidential indorsement resolution, saying that he is making his present fight on state issues and did not want national issues injected into the coming campaign. He was told that it could not be prevented.

Atlee Pomerene, who himself was a candidate against Harmon for the nomination in the state convention two years ago, almost angrily demanded that he be not compelled to make the sacrifice, as he termed it, of accepting the nomination for second place. Although his name was not placed in nomination he received nearly enough votes on the first ballot to nominate him. He formally withdrew, but on the second ballot, before the roll call was completed, the nomination was made unanimous. He asked time to consider the matter and after an hour's conference with his friends announced he would accept.

MISS RITCHIE BROKE.

New York, N. Y., June 23.—Adele Ritchie, the actress, filed a voluntary petition in the court of bankruptcy here, admitting liabilities of $15,259, and giving her only assets as $250 worth of wearing apparel. Exemption is claimed for this.

Drygoods firms, jeweler and outfitter are the heaviest creditors. Some of the debts date back as far as 1906. One of them is $519 67 on a judgment for photographs; another is $181 60 for restaurant charges, covering a period of three months.

JARVIS, JUN., DYING.

Detroit, June 23.—Harold Jarvis, the concert tenor, who is in Dresden with his son, Harold Jarvis, jun., 16, who has been ill since January, cabled to Detroit friends Tuesday that but little hope for his son's recovery was held out by German specialists. Harold Jarvis, jun., and Mrs. Jarvis have been in Dresden for two years. The young man was making a special study of piano. Mr. Jarvis was called to Dresden last February.
