I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running ship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running brook, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact the average man does not thus worship."

Here are a few benefits to be derived from church

You will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if you are not familiar with the Bible, you have suffered loss.

"You will take part in singing some good hymns. "You will meet and nod or speak to good neighbors. You will come away feeling a little more charitably inclined toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a saft performance.

"Join in church work for the sake of showing your faith in your works." Make your start in church service tomorrow. A fair trial of church attendance will convince you it's well worth while.

Relates Many Interesting Facts Concering Vote for Church Union

SOME less known facts of the Lucknow, Latona, Lancaster, "Church Union Vote," are Lachine, Lachute, fold by Dr. E. Scott, editor of Maxville, Markh the Presbyterian Record. To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir.-On the far-off coast of Labrador the Presbyterians had long maintained a mission. The union could not affect them, for the Methodists had no work there; but a missionary, under official direction, secured fifty communicant votes, all for dishanding the church that so long had helped them.

The other extreme of that eastern section was two missions in the State of Maine, where. under like direction, fifty-seven American votes were secured, all for discontinuing in Canada a Presbyterian church.

In a score and a half of missions between these two exfremes of the Maritime Synod, a combined majority of ten to one was secured for a similar end.

On the other hand the selfsupporting churches in a score and a half of the oldest and fargest centers in that eastern section: Halifax. Two reasons for the vote of the missions were: first, many of the people were not Presbyterians, but had joined for the time the church that was nearest; and, second, most of them had heard but one side of the ques-There were more than five hundred missions in Canada lish, three French, one Ruthenunder Presbyterian oversight, after all overlapping in home missions had been practically
