

YES, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running ship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running brook, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact the average man does not thus worship." Here are a few benefits to be derived from church

attendance

"You will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if you are not familiar with the Bible, you have suffered loss.

"You will take part in singing some good hymns. "You will meet and nod or speak to good neighbors. You will come away feeling a little more charitably inclined toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance. "Join in church work for the sake of showing your faith in your works." Make your start in church service tomorrow. A fair trial of church attendance will convince you it's well worth while.

Relates Many Interesting Facts Concering Vote for Church Union

Some less known facts of the Lucknow, Latona, Lancaster, "Church Union Vote," are Lachine, Lachute. Melbourne, Morewood, Mount Presbyterian Record. Forest, Midland, Mitchell, Milton, To the Editor of The Advertiser: Milverton.

Sir.-On the far-off coast of Labrador the Presbyterians had long maintained a mission. The people knew little of our church; the union could not affect them, for the Methodists had no work there; but a missionary, under official direction, secured fifty communicant votes, all for disbanding the church that so long had helped them.

The other extreme of that eastern section was two missions in the State of Maine, where, under like direction, fifty-seven American votes were secured, all for discontinuing in Canada a Presbyterian church.

In a score and a half of miscions between these two ex-fremes of the Maritime Synod, a combined majority of ten to one was secured for a similar end.

On the other hand the selfsupporting churches in a score and a half of the oldest and largest centers in that eastern section: Halifax. Dartmouth, Lunenburg, Bridgewater, Yar-mouth, Windsor, Truro, Hopewell, Stellarton, Westville, New Glasgow, Thorburn, Pictou, Sydney, North Sydney, Sydney Mines, Glace Bay, St. Johns, Nfld., Charlottetown, Summerside, Antherst, Moncton, Campbellton, Chatham, Newcastle, Sussex, St. John, St. Stephen, Woodstock and Fredericton, gave

-not each of them a majoritybut a combined total majority for continuing their own church. Two reasons for the vote of the missions were: first, many of the people were not Presbyter-, but had joined for the time the church that was nearest; and, second, most of them had than two to one. heard but one side of the ques-There were more than five hundred missions in Canada under Presbyterian oversight, ian, and one Chinese, and their after all overlapping in home

The regular congregations in these two hundred places, all the cities, towns and villages in this great central section, nearly two-thirds of the entire church gave-not each of them a majority-but a total combined major ity for continuing the Presbyterian church.

There is not space to note the missions in this central section, let one local sample suffice. Older Montreal had eight historic churches, with an average of nearly eight hundred members each. These eight churches each. voted to continue Presbyterian by a combined majority of more

In the same city and suburbs were eight missions, three English, three French, one Ruthennearly three hundred votes were secured, all but one dozen of them, for transferring the eight churches to another possession measure the so-called and control.

Still westward to the third section, note a few facts:

1. Out of the nearly eighty thousand members, then reported from west of the lakes, only thirty-two thousand, a little more than one third, voted for the One Big Union.

2. Many in the west were against it. Take about a score and a half of familiar names from the lakes to the coast: Fort William, Stonewall, Kildonan, Elkhorn, Melita, Manito tawa, Kingston, Peterboro, To- Indian Head, Moose Jaw, Battleford, Galt and Guelph -- and fall, Olds, Red Deer, Medicine other places not so large but Hat, Calgary, Cranbrook, Kamand true, alpha- loops, Vernon, Chilliwack, Ladner, New Westminster, Victoria; Almonte, Arnprior, Allison, the regular congregations in these places gave, not each o them a majority, but a combined total majority for continuing the Presbyterian church.

Some missions of foreign ers in the west, under official oversight and supported almost wholly by the church, voted solidly for disbanding that church. Take a few samples Winnipeg, Ruthenian, 23; Winnipeg, Hungarian, 34; Ethelbert, Ruthenian, 30; Brighton, Ruthenian, 31; Otthon, Hungarian, 132, and so on.

4. Of the total 720 charges west of the lakes, 330 were missions, under the oversight of the church, and most of their votes were secured for the O. B. U. 5. Three hundred of these missions returned a combined total communicant vote, larger by several hundreds, than their combined total membership at that same date, as given in the

The figures given in this letter were taken from official returns of the church union vote.

Presbyterians who do not wish or purpose the merging of their church into the O. B. U., on the vote of one third of her membership, will be confirmed in their purpose when they see how that one third vote was secured.
