A recent visitor says that Gen. Butler has taken a new lease of life since his election as governor of Massachusetta. The deep wrinkles on his face are filling up, and the husky voice is smooth. He is very busy new finishing up the law business he has on hand, and getting ready to assume the duties and hunors of his high office.

Mrs. Mary Austin, who lately died at Washing on, had forty four male children eleven of whom survive. She was a doctor of medicine and surgeon, and served through the war with the rank of major. Dr. Mary Walker is small potatoes, indeed, as compared with this lady, never even having had twins, while Mrs. Austin had triplets air times.

A London paper describes an American girl in that city who "wears a gown with a girl in that city who wears a gown with flight of embroidered swallows, beginning on her left shoulder and ending at her right foot, and swallows also fly about her parasol." The American youth in London is also addicted to 'swallows,' but they don't begin on his left shoulder. They begin under his nose and run down his

Joseph Beaudin, M D. Hull, P Q. writes:
Dr Thomas' Eelectric Oil commands a large and increasing sale which it richly merits.
I have always found it exceedingly helpfulg I use it in all cases of rheumatism, as well as fractures and dislocations. I made use of it myself to calm the pains of a broken leg with dislocation of the foot, and in two days I was entirely relieved of the pain.
