

Lahontan) Kitchi is "Great in the way of Merit, Valour, Courage, &c." The Koriaki, 155, call great, Kootcholloon. The Hurons call Heaven, Toendi *. The Kittawini, 164, call the same Tain. Bell says the Chinese "worship one God, whom they call Tien, the Heaven or the highest Lord," &c†. The Iroquois call a Wife, Sannatella: the Persians, 76. San and Sen: the Curdi, 77, Senne. The Indians of Pennsylvania call Bread, Pane †: Indians of New-England, Paune **: the Delawares, * Ach-paan: the Onondagos, lochbarácbqua: the Cheerake, Kawtoo; the Woccons Ikettau. The Curdi, 77, Pan. The Eskimaux call the Eye, Killick or Shik: the inhabitants of the Kurile-Isles, 162, Schoek, or Seek. The former call an Egg, Manneguk: the Tchiochonski, 54, Moona: the Estlandians, 55, Moonna: the Vogoulitchi, 69, Moongee: the Semoyads, 123, Maina: 124, Monna: 125, Monoo; the Kamasthini, 132, Moonee. The Eskimaux call the numeral three, Ke: the Semoyads, 120, Koe: 121; Ko. The Algonkins call a

---

* Lahontan.

† Travels, Vol. II. p. 140. It deserves to be recollected, that the Chinese call the Moon, Tien.

‡ On the authority of William Penn.

* Purchas.