

rides, a very companionable, genial man who knew Canada well from end to end, having hunted and fished from Nova Scotia to Vancouver's Island; several military and civil officers of the

WITHOUT THE GATE, BAB-EN-NASR, CAIRO.

Khedival Government; some missionary travellers; an American gentleman who had gone round the world, and our Canadian party. In our many donkey-rides and explorations, and at the pleasant table intercourse, we soon became thoroughly acquainted.