Our Pastor delivered two appropriate and highly instructive sermons last Sunday. He chose for his morning text, Malachi 3, 14, "Ye have said, it is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts?" In the evening he spoke from the text, Galatians 6, 7, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatever a man soweth that shall he also reap." The Lord's Supper was administered at the close of the evening service. It was a grand day, large number attending all the services.

We are pleased to meet so many of our church members again in the services. They having returned from vacation with renewed energy and glad heart, to take up the work of the church. Pastor and people thus working together, may expect grand results. Why not expect a revival.
