THE JUVENILE PRESBYTERIAN.

INDIAN ORPHANAGE SCHEME & JUVENILE MISSION.         Already acknowledged,
1st year, per Mr. W. C. Clarke,
From the Sabbath School of Rev. Mr. Herdman's Church at Pictou, Nova Scotia, to support an orphan, per W. Gordon, Esq., <ul> <li>From the Sabbath School at L<sup>i</sup>Orignal, to support an orphan at Bombay, per Rev. W. Johnson, 4 0 0 Donations in aid of the Canadian School :</li> <li>From St. Andrew's Church Sabbath School at Quebec, per J. W. Cook, Esq., two subscriptions, 6 0 0</li> <li>From Sabbath School at Fergus,</li></ul> an orphan at Bombay, per Rev. W. Johnson, 4 0 0 Donations in aid of the Canadian School Quebec, per J. W. Cook, Esq., two subscriptions,       6       0         From Sabbath School at Fergus,       1       0       0         Do.       Do. at Niagara,       1       0       0         Do.       Do. at Portsmouth, in connection       1       0       0         with St. Andrew's Church, Kingston,       1       5       0
From Sabbath School at Fergus,       1       0       0         Do.       Do.       at Niagara,       1       0       0         Do.       Do.       at Portsmouth, in connection       1       0       0         with St. Andrew's Church, Kingston,       1       5       0
Do.Do.at Niagara,
Do. Do. at Portsmouth, in connection with St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, 1 5 0 with St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, 1 5 0
Legacy of Emeline Malloch, remitted by the Rev.
Wm. Bain, 0 5 0
Donation per John Lovell, Esq., Montreal, 0 15 0
Mrs. Hamilton, Kingston, 1 0 0
£106 0 7
Received on account of Orphans,£80 10 7
In aid of Calcutta School,
As above,£106 0 7 JOHN PATON, Treasurer. Kingston, 16th Feb., 1858.

THE TWO ADVISERS.

There was once a little girl, whose name was Kitty, and she had two advisers, who were always telling her what she had better do. One generally spoke the quickest, and that I shall call the first adviser: the other, who was modest, though very faithful, shall be called the second. Sometimes she minded one, and sometimes the other, and according as she heeded the one or the other, so she behaved.

Kitty slept in a little room near ther mother's, and her mother usually waked her up in the morning with, "Jump up, Kitty." Early one winter's morning, "Jump up, Kitty," waked the child, and she lifted her head, and it looked early, and felt quite wintry. "I would not get up," said

195