

Useful Information.

THE AVERAGE BOY

and a good-sized lump of maple candy form the materials from which we might deduct self-evident conclusion regarding the facility with which attachments are formed in early life, when the circumstances are at all favorable. Among other good illustrations we might also particularize the case of the little fellow, who, as an inducement to his indulgent maternal relative to make an addition to his customary dose of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion suddenly brought the matter to a focus by exclaiming appealingly:—"Just gimme one more teaspoonful and I'll go right off to sle-p."

Prepared solely by Hannington Bros., Pharmaceutical Chemists, St. John, N.B., and for sale by Druggists and General Dealers. Price $1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.

WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it: there is no mistake about it. The Bad and Worthless are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprung up and began to steal the notices in which the press and people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B., and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money on the credit and good name of H. B. Many others started nostrums put up in similar style to H. B., with variously devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits. Beware of them. Touch none of them. Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch or cluster or green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits.

"EAGAR'S PHOSPHOLEINE is the best Emulsion yet made," is what a leading druggist in Canada writes; "we have no doubt of it." It is not the advertising, but its sterling worth that is making it known, and it is amongst the physicians and more intelligent of our merchants, mechanical and laboring classes that it is used.

A writer says: "I would not be without Eagar's Wine of Rennet in the house for double its price. I can make a delicious dessert for my husband, which he enjoys after dinner, and which I believe has at the same time cured his dyspepsia.

ANOTHER GREAT VICTORY

EAGAR'S Phospholeine

Below is another certificate from a grateful patient who has been rescued from that dread disease,

CONSUMPTION.

W. F. EAGAR, ESQ.: DEAR SIR,— My wife, Laura A. Finson, was taken ill early this year, and suffered severely with a bad cough, accompanied by expectoration of mucus containing blood, and great weakness of the chest, general prostration and clammy night sweats, and continued to grow worse until I was recommended to procure for her some bottles of your Phospholeine and Wine of Rennet. This I did, and after using about five bottles of the Phospholeine, taking a teaspoonful at a time in a wineglass of milk, increased afterwards to a tablespoonful, and shortly after each dose a teaspoonful of your Wine of Rennet, she became thoroughly well, her improvement commenced after the first half bottle had been taken. She can now superintend her household duties without inconvenience, eats and sleeps well, and every symptom of consumption has been removed. I have to thank your medicine for her restoration to health.

WALTER R. FINSON, Vanceboro', Maine, U.S. The statement of facts contained in the above certificate is in all respects accurate. I feel assured that I owe my cure to your medicines. LAURA A. FINSON. September, 1882.
