THE DOMINION CANALS. OTTAWA, July 11 .- A supplement to the report of the Commissioner of Inland Revenue has been issued, giving the canal statistics for the navigation season of 1882. The revenue from canals in 1882 has increased by $17,413 over the previous year, the increases being as follows; -Welland Canal $29.687, Chambly $3,302, Bldeau $934, Ottawa $5,411, Newcas. tle district $113; a decrease is shown in the receipts of the St. Lawrence canals of $17,-557, Burlington Bay Canal $928, St. Peter's Canal $649. The quantity of grain carried through the Welland Canai last year was 306,482 tons, and the tonnage of heavy goods was 282,984. In 1881 the figures were 269,395 and 189,188 respectively. THE NEW DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH. ONE OF THE MOST BLEGART BLACKGUARDS AMONG THE BRITISH NOBILITY."

New York, July 10 .- The Louden correspondent of the N.Y. Sun cables the follow-

The Duke of Malborough fell dead of heart disease as he was about getting into bed on Wednesday night. He was one of the most respectable members of his distinguished family. He gambled a good deal, but he always paid up, even if te had to sell off the wonderful art treasures of the family to enable him to do so. He was not lucky, and he was wonderfully ignorant; but he made a very fair Lord Lieutenant when he was in Ireland. His son, the Marquis of Blandford, who enjoys the distinction of being one of the most elegant blackguards emong the British noblity, succeeds to the litle and to the hereditary pension of $25,000 a year voted to the first Duke with the palace of Blenheim and the honor and menor of Woodstock. In the present temper of the English Commons the pension will not last long, but there are rich pickings about Woodsteck, including

His present Grace married Lady Alberta Hamilton, daughter of the Duke of Abercore, and has by her a son and three daughters. For family reasons she condoned his adultery with Ludy Aglesford, a case in which the Prince of Wales was deeply compromised; and she even forgave him for knocking her down at the breakfast table with a blow of his fist. It was only when she discovered his relations with a woman of low station, and found how irreclaimable he was, that the celebrated Blandford divorce case sued. The decree nisi will become absolute in about three weeks, until when she will be Duchess of Marlborough, relapsing afterward to her former title of Lady Alberta Hamilton, and going probably to Cauada with her sister Lady Lansdowne. If is understood that the new Duke intends to marry his present mistress, by whom he has two children. She also has two others, acquired earlier and more promiscuously, toward whom his Grace will perform the duties of a stepiather.
