

A A A A A A A A A A A A CIL OTUE CE MILESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY The True Witness Printing & Publishing Co

LIMITED

653 St. James Street, Montreal, Canad P. O. Box 1188.

MS, and all other communications intended for publication or notice, should be addressed to the Mditor, and all business and other communication to the Managing Director, TEVE WITHERS P. & P. Oc., Ltd., P. O. Bmz 1138.

Discontinuance-Remember that the publisher must be notified by letter when a subscriber wishes his paper stopped. All arrearages must be paid.

Returning your paper will not enable us to dissontinueit, as we cannot find your name on our books nnless you; post office address is given.

The date opposite your name on the margin of your paper shows you up to what time your subaription is paid.

We recomine the friends of THE TRUE WITHESS by the prompt manner in which they pay their subverintions.

Always give the name of the post office to which your paper is sent. Your name cannot be found on eur books uniese this is done.

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 6, 1897

OFFICIAL.

The following letter was read by Rev. Father Quinlivan at High Mass, on Sunday last, st. St. Patrick's Church.

MONTREAL, October 2nd, 1897. REV. AND LEAR FATHER :- As I have noticed from reports in the newspapers that what I said in St. Patrick's on Sunday last, in reference to a Catholic paper, was somewhat misunderstood, I wish you would explain to your people that what I then suid on that subject was meant entirely for the TRUE WITNESS. In fact I did not advise the founding of s new paper, but the joining of efforts to make more power'ul the organ which axists. The true Catholic spirit which for some years past has animated that journal, and the self-sacrificing devotedness of the gentlemen who have con ducted it, since it came under the present management, make it deserving of the united support of all who have Catholic i steres ts at heart.

If the English peaking Catholics of Montreal and of this Province consulted their best interasts, they would soon make of the TRUE WITNESS one of the most prosperous and powerful Catholic papers in this country.

I heartily bleest hose who encourag "this excellent work, as well as that of the Catholic High School, of which I way Catholic officials and guards have of England axes. We look to Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick to see that in Quebec in any case this kind of thing is not repeated.

CHANGES AT ST. ANN'S CHURCH.

The sorrow of the people of St. Ann's in losing the Rev. Father Schelfault, C.SS.R., who for the past four years has proved himself their faithful pastor, is not unmixed with consolation in that they have had restored to them the Rev. Father Catulle, C.SS.R., whose patient Libor and loving kindness had done so much for the parish. In being deprived of Father Schelfault St. Ann's suffers a oss which it feels keenly. His amiable and cheerful disposition and his elcquent discourses made him popular with his large flock, and in and out of season it had ever his undivided attention and devotion. St. Ann's is happy in the possession of pastor and priests whose sole sim is to discharge their sacred duties in behalf of the people over whom they hold spiritual sway.

THE YELLOW JOURNALIST AND THE YELLOW JOURNAL

We have had the yellow dog, the yellow cat, and now we have the yellow | migranta," has been doing. In a recent journalist and his child the yellow jour | article he criticites the TRUE WITHING nal. The two former are the results of for suggesting that the Irish people of accidents of nature, the last is a work of the devil engineered to spread all the lowest vices broadcast through the land. No respectable Catholic, no sincere father of a family, no one who has any respect for the future of his children, should allow these pestiferous emanations of besotted human brains enter his home. They are not only of the world, worldly, but of Satan, satanically. Prurient stories, immoral pictures, and records of events which never ought to ready to do more than their share in find their way into print, form the sum and subject of matter in their columns. It is not matter, it is filth, and as such ought not to be tolerated in any decent community. If the Government of Canada did its duty, it would refuse admission through the mails to these disgraceful examples of latter day journalism. There are any number of respectble newspapers both in Canada and the United States which, while chronicling the daily events of the world, make safe and proper reading for young and old. Some of our excharges seem to think that Catholics mainly support these sheets. Speaking for Canadian Catholics in general, and Montreal Catholics in particular, we give the statement an emphatic denial. One has only to keep his eyes open where these papers are for sale to find cut what class of citizens buy them. It is not the Irish or French Catholic, but the business men, who look data from local bank managers. For as eagerly for these journals as if they were presented on th fallen there before the Orange. and Sons [brought the bluth of shame even to the boys scarcely in their teens were allowed to witness them and in fact formed the larger part of the audience. Where such degrading speakacles are allowed to come and go, it is impossible to protect youth. Let the revisors see to this.

> "To make boodling difficult," is the title of an editorial in the Herald, discussing the City Charter. The first proposition laid down by the writer is that our present system of municipal government is not satisfactory in that twentysix aldermen have the control of expenditure large: than the total annual expenditure of the Province. The aldermen are not to be trusted, saith the Herald. It is the same old story. Toronto has a commission, and, therefore, so must Montreal. The western municipal commission may be doing good work, but if it is we have not heard of it. Before Montreal adopts the commission ides, it would be well to see whether it works well in its sister city.

IF there is anything an editor controversially inclined delights in is creating a man of straw for the purpose of knocking him down, and this is what the writer in the Quebec Daily Telegraph, on the subject of "The Ship Fever Im-Quebec raise a few thousand dollars for the purpose of maring a fitting monument. It was decidedly far from our thoughts when the above words were penned to expect for a moment that the full burden of such an enterprise should fall on the shoulden of our co religionists of Quebec, although, despite the carping of the Daily Telegraph, we believe that there are any number of true-hearted this picus work.

THE Liberals have gained a great victory in Wales. In the East Division of Denbighshire, Mr. Samuel Moss, the party's candidate, defeated Mr. George T. Kenyon, the Conservative, by a majority of 2.327. Mr. Mors, in his nomination speech, said he placed implicit faith in a "union of hearts cemented by proper concessions to the reasonable demands of either Welsh, or Irish, or Scotch Nationalists, as expressed by their lawfully constituted representatives."

PROFESSOR Coleman, at the recent big convention of scientists in the Capital of Ontario, read an address on "Glacial and Inter-glacial Dep-osits in Toronto." It is to be hoped, for the knowledge of posterity, that he secured some of his glacial or inter-glacial feeling for expres-

Lines was vinnes wit dom would not have tolerated this but most hardened, And young girls and that was before the money lender ran Earopean politics to suit himself.

> THERE is no truth in the story that Sir Oliver Mowat is about to re-marry. The Minister of Justice is wedded to politics, and, the shrewd old-diplomat ist that he is, feels that he cannot serve two masters, even although use of them might be a lady.

ALD. KINSELLA is an Irish Catholic and therefore is a fit subject for an attack by La Patrie. The stalwart representative of St. Ann's Ward will survive the piteful attempt made to do him an injury among a certain section of the electors in the district he represents.

SENOR SAGASTA is now Premier of Spain, vice Premier Canovas assessinated. It is to be hoped that the successor will not meet the fate of his predecessor. Spain at present is passing through a critical period in her existence. as a nation.

HIS HOLINESS the Pope has been so pleased with the admirable music furnished at the canonization, that he has bestowed the dignity and decoration of Commander of the Order of Pius IX. on the masstro of the Sistine Chapel, Commendatore Mustafa.

THE Star has a sensational cable from Limerick about an alleged fight in that city over the election of a Mayor. There has been actually no fight, but the Star's correspondent, with commendable enterprise, expects it.

THE American Archbishops are going to meet this year at Washington, and the date of their convocation has been sons of Erin in the citadel city who are fixed for October 21. There are fourteen archdioceses now in the United States.

> La Patrie has already arragned a nice soft place for Hon. Mr. Tarte. It has nominated him for the Lieut. Governorship of the Province of Quebec, vice-Lieut. Governor Chapleau to resign.

BISHOP DART AND THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE

In the matter of interview the Daily Witness can always be relied on to faithfully reproduce the sentiments and conversation of the people its reporters ask for their views. Therefore, it must be taken for granted that the words of Rev. Dr. Dart, the Anglican bishop of New Westminster, B.C., as published in its columns, are a correct reproduction of with him some very curious impressions, To tell the truth, if one is to believe that his lordship is sincere, he is just on the wrong side of the fence, and, with very little more encouragement, will join the true Church. He acknowledges that there is no unity of action outside of our holy faith, and that, as matters now stand, the idea of a union of the separated denominations is a very difficult one to bring to a successful issue. In answer to the question whether the American bishops admitted in any degree the authority of what the reporter called the Mother Church (Church of England), Bishop Dart replies :---"No, nor was there any attempt to impose such authority. There was the utmost jealousy-a jealousy which cer-tainly I did not share-lest the very smallest beginnings of such an authority should appear. There was really no prelates by whom he was surrounded. The fact is, there was not a shred of authority in the conference. It was an inwhich was purely moral.'

in the location has but your little claim. The next thing we will be told is that Inther is not the father of the so-called Reformation; and that the new "mother" church is as old as the Apostles. Will Bishop Dart tell us whether the Presbyterian body is an offshoot of his "mother" church, or was it fathered by Calvin ? Whether the Unitarians, the Trinitarians, aye, even the Methodists, found prime of life. any of their tenets in any part of the doctrine of the Protestant Church of England ?

Bishop Dart ought to study a little more the religious history of the world, and then he would not commit himself so very badly. He would have us believe that his "mother" church is the Protestant Church of the Englishspeaking world, that all its separated systems of worship sprang from Canterbury, and, to quote his own words, is prepared to accept all these religious malformations under her shield. The interview goes on to say 1-

" It is because of this distinction that his lordship thinks the Church of England is best fitted to be the mediator for the bringing about of Christian unity. "That being the case, would it not be advisable for the church to formulate s plan which would be acceptable to the great dissenting bodies. Hitherto, as lar as one may judge, there has only been the expression of a pious wish for unity.

True, but I think the church will, in time, utter a decisive word on the subject. It is in the air. The subject presses upon the attention. Meantime every thing that makes for peace tends in this direction. We desire a better mutual understanding. Each needs to learn something of the other. Perhaps we all need to forget some things. Unity, however is a subject with which the church is deeply soncerned. This unity need not necessarily mean the interference with individual liberty, and it is for this reason that I think the church is best fitted to bring it about, because, by her constitution, she is elastic."

Bishop Dart says the Church of England is elastic. She would need to be to cover all the ground he proposes she diocese, as well as being created a Canon should. And what a happy family ! If in 1860. He was successively chaplain ever his idea-we cannot believe it is the sentiment of the Lambeth Conference-comes into being, the Protestant Archbishop of Canterbury will have no sinecure. The poor prelate will be dead within a year and the ecclesiastical lords will all be in the insane asylum. Touching the progress of the Catholia

Church in England, Bishop Dart does not think it is a prosperous one. He 8276 :---

" Do not think, because you hear here and there that an Anglican has gone over to Rome that the English nation is being converted to the Roman obedience. Every such convert is announced with a prodigious blowing of trumpets, which are heard at the four corners of the earth. You do not hear a word said about the Roman Catholics who come that gentleman's remarks. Bishop Dart | over to us. No; yet they come, priests has been to the Lambeth Conference of and others. Nothing is said, first, because the Church does not desire to Anglican prelates and has brought away make a noise about the busines; second, because not a few of the converts, particularly those who have been priests, desire silence lest they would be subjected to certain forms of persecution. But all the same there are not a few Anglican clergymen today in the Church who were Roman Catholic priests. Not that I myself believe in proselytism; but when people of their own volition change their faith, the case is different." We wonder whether his lordship came across with Chiniquy, and in the throes of sea-sickness saw several Chiniquys instead of one. It is the only possible hypothesis, because we have failed to hear or read of any perversions to the Anglican or another separated church in England or elsewhere. If Bishop Dart can give us a little information on the subject we would be only too happy to apologize for the scepticism we now feel in regard to his assertion. There is to Nolan, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department. On the previous Saturday, our mind not the slightest doubt that the while in a heated condition, at the Hayes Right Rev. Dr. Dart, Lord Bishop of House fire. Mr. Nolan was drenched with New Westminster, British Columbia, water, which resulted in a very severe cold, followed by an attack of pneu-monia. On Friday his removal from when he finds time to study his interview as published in the Daily Witness, his residence, over No. 1 Fire Station, to will come to the conclusion that he has the General Hospital was ordered, but be made some very foolish statements. did not rally, and breathed his last at

000 000 in 1850 below 6,000,000 in 1856 and below 5.000,000 in 1884, the lowest point being reached last year. The immigration which took place in 1896 comprised 8.842 from the province of Leinster, 15,485 from Munster, 7,434 from Ulater and 12,234 from Connaught. Of the total emigrants from Ireland last year 6.9 per cent. were under fifteen years of age, 887 per cent. between fifteen and thirty-five years old and 9.4 per cent. were thirty five or upward, The great bulk, therefore, were in the

The Late Canen Lublanc,

The death of Canon Lebianc last week caused a feeling of sadness and regret over all Montreal. Closely connected with our people for almost a half century, his loss will be felt keenly by all nationalities. His life, devoted to God and the Church, was one great example of self-abnegation and those who were intimately acquainted with him knew his loving and charitable heart. Many of his penitents were Irish Gatholics, and his words of consolation and advice will be long remembered by those who had the happiness to kneel at his feet. A faithful servant of the Archdiocese cf Monireal, in which, in turn, he was the assistant to three distinguished prelates who graced the episcopal throne, his death was the cause of the greatest sorrow to Archbishop Bruchesi, between whom and the dead there existed the affection of a father and child. On August the second, His Grace administered the holy sacrament of Extreme Unction to the dying priest.

By the death of Canon Leblanc the Chapter of the Archdiocese loses its oldest member. Born in the parish of St. Denis on July 18th, 1827, he was ordained sub-deacon on September 29th, 1850, and on October 8th of the same year was made deacon. Eight days later the dignity of the priest-hood was conferred. Transferred to Montreal from St. Hyscinthein 1842 he vas appointed editor of the Melanges Religioux, then Assistant Secretary in 1857, and in 1859 Procureur of the Archof the Bishop's College, of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, of Convent of Villa Maris, and Mount St. Mary's College. In all these offices he impressed all who knew him with his mildness, charity and love of souls. Canon Leblanc in all the years of his priesthood devoted himself more particularly to the propagation of the faith and the building of churches.

The funeral service, which was held on Saturday at St. James Cathedral, was attended by a large number of the clergy from the city and surrounding districts and by the parishioners of the different parishes in Montreal.

Mr. Jeremiah Fogarty.

It is our painful task to chronicle the leath of Mr. Jeremiah Fogarty, one of the best known parishioners of St. Patrck's Church. The sad event occurred on Sunday with a suddenness which shocked his large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Fogarty was one of the leading

he tal an Br la Cl uø Br m(ali th for ed pli AC sp wi Re Lo Su an İet an F. Di E. Sn Mi Ja M Cu Sa an Ke

-sloo spoke last Sunday, and which I deem -yo necessary for the spiritual welfare of our children.

Believe me to be Rev. and dear Father.

Yours very it-ily, PAUL, Anchbishop of Montreal. BEV. J. QUINLIVAN, S. S.,

St. Patrick's Church, City.

A "TRUE WITNESS" BUILDING.

A meeting of the representatives of the various Irish Mational, Benevolent and English-speaking Catholic organizations of Montreal will be held to morrow evening at St. Patrick's Hall, Alexander street, for the purpose of considering the or, if he has, has never studied, the project of erecting a permanent home for THE TRUE WITNESS, and a public reading room for the English speaking Catholics of this city_ There is a very enthusiastic spirit at present existing in the ranks of the members of our Catholic associations to carry out such an undertaking, and it is expected that some steps will be taken at this meeting with this end in view. Rev. Father Quislivan, pastor of St. Patrick's, will preside at the meeting. The hour is 7.80 o'clock.

IRISH CATHOLIC PRESON OFFICIALS is destitute."

There have already been some changes in the Kingston Penitemtiary and in the sister institution at St. Vincent de Paul. One of the latest in the latter is the removal of the Deputy-Warden, Mr. Mc. Carthy. No special reason is given for his superannuation, except that he is too old for his duties, although, in point of fact, he is more efficient than some of those he has left behind. Be that as it of the Sanitary police, and all these sugand it is but justice to expect that one of the revisors of the City Charter. that nationality should fill the vacant position. It is said that one of High but we are of the opinion that his office should not be made a graduating class for penitentiary officials. The present Acting Warden, Contant, was one of Mr. Bissonnette's underlings, and forcing influence with the Government should. see that our rights are conserved.

melbods adopted in Kingston and the that at one place of entertainment scenes were the latest market reports.

THE "HERALD'S" CHARITY.

The Montreal Herald has of late been controlled by western ideas and methods, and under its new management never ceases to inculcate its theories on that portion of the public which are its readers. Its latest d liverance is on the subject of public charities and how they ought to be dispensed. In the first place the fact is forced upon the reader that the writer in discussing the question does so in a peculiarly matter of fact, if not cold blooded style. It is evident that the writer has either never heard, words, "the quality of mercy is not strained." Reading the article gives us the impression that the Herald writer would like to put charity in a strainer and let him do the straining. His sensitive nerves are shocked at seeing so many beggars on the streets, and mildly censures the people who listen to their prayers. Out door relief he considers a blunder, or to quote his own words : .

"As to out-of-door relief to families, the merest novice will know that it is a blunder to give food, clothes and fuel to an applicant simply because he says he

Then he tells us what to do. Investigate, call at the home of the unfortum. ate, etc., etc. It is ridiculous. Western people seem to think that we are behind the times, that our charitable people and our charitable organizations have been asleep and do not know how to attend to their business. Have all the cripples placed in a home, he says, and establish a city relief bureau in charge may, Mr. McCarthy is an Irish Catholic; gestions are humbly laid at the feet of

Not one reference to the great work performed by the religious organizations Constable Bissonnette's men is after it, in behalf of charity. We are not surprised. The Herald is an exponent of the secular idea, not alone in matters of charity, but also in regard to our schools.

TALKING about the City Charter and another in looks too much like a family its proposed revision, there is one subcompact. Those of ourmace who have ject that should attract attention, and that is a closer supervision of the local ates that in the Armenian massacres life. He calls the present Church of thestres and a stricter censorship on the during the last two years 200 000 persons England the mother church. If was There is already angri talk about the Diays presented. It is an open scoret, sion the heads of these institutions can give pointers to the greatest living scientist when the latter's deposit is at a low ebb.

MR JOHN MORLEY, M P., for Montrose Burghs, and leader of the Liberal party of Great Britain, has opened the autumn political campaign. In one of his speeches referring to Iteland he said that the Government's proposed measure ex tending local popular government to the Irish counties would only make the demand for Home Rule more audible and strengthen the forces behind this demand. He cited the case of Canada as justifying Home Rule,

The month of October has been consecrated by our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIII., to the Blessed Virgin Mary, under | danger, for the Archbishop of Canter the title of the Rossey. There is no bury is the last man in the world to asmore acceptable prayer to be laid before | sume to impose any authority upon the the throne of God than that of the Holy Rosary, and those who use it become stronger in religion and more faithful in formal gathering, the binding force of those good works that spring from faith alone.

HIS GRACE, ARCHBISCHOP BRUCHESI,

leaves for Rome on Friday evening next. but previous to his departure on the evening in question special services will be held in St. James Calledral at which His Grace will attend. He will then be-His Grace will attend. He will then be Lambeth Conference, where men of stow his blessing on the faithful, all of diverse views met in harmony, would be whom are invited to be present to bid farewell to our beloved Archbishop and pray that his voyage may be prosperous, his mission successful and that he will once more be returned to his flock safe men who hold divergent-divergent to and in good health.

WASHINGTON, the capital of the Dis trict of Columbia, is fast becoming a great Catholic education: I centre. The Capuchin branch of the Franciscan Order is the latest addition. It has sent to Washington two representatives, who have purchased fifty-four acres of land near the Oatholic University with a view of establishing an affiliated theological.

college.

He denies that this was a disadvantage by the following peculiar train of reasoning :-- highly centralized organization, but she has not learned to combine liberty with authority. It is all authority with her, and no liberty. Such a gathering as the impossible in connection with the Church of Rome, when the curé stands behind the Pope."

Church of England, that it is a home for some extent-views. There is freedom of thought and opinion within her pale. She is not narrow and illiberal. She exects a certain authority at the same time; but she combines authority with liberty. This is her genius. This is her distinction. She is not, as some say, made up of disconnected units. She is an organism ; but she is not a mechan ical organism, bound to a hard and fast formula. There was thus no attempt to set up a papacy in the conference, which would have been opposed to the church."

Bishop Dart's arguments are pure sophistry. Where there is no authority there is no union. Where there is no

IRELAND'S POPULATION.

Some Interesting Statistics From the Report For 1898.

The report of the Registrar General of Ireland for the year 1896 has been issued as a blue book. It states that the marriage rate in 1896 was consider-ably in excess of the decennial average and was the highest for any year since the state of the serving. Capt. Nolan is survived by a widow and eleven children, with whom much sympathy 1871. is felt.

The birth rate was above the average Tuesday, was one of the largest that has and was the highest for any year since been held in this city for some time in 1884, while the death rate was below the connection with the burial of a fireman. average, being only 16.6 per thousand, About 8.80 the funeral cortege left the the lowest for any year since 1871. The excess of births over death was 31,941. residence of the deceased, No. 1 Fire Station, headed by six policemen and the Police Band. These were followed As the loss by emigration amounted by some fifty representatives of No. 1 to 38,955 there was an apparent decrease Branch of the American C.M B.A., with of 7,054 in the population during the Mr. John Lappin, President of the Branch, and Mr. F. Lawlor, Secretary, of which deceased was a member. Then year. But against this decrease there is a set off in immigration.

The estimated population in the middle of the year was 4,560,878.

under command of Captain Loye, of No. The rate of immigration last year per-5 Station, followed by a large contingent of firemen, commanied by Assistant Chiefs Beckingbam and Dubois: Behind 1,000 of the estimated population was 8.6, the average rate for the previous ten years being 12.7. The population in THE New York Freenan's Journal head there can be no body ; where there Ireland, including the military, naval says .- Mr. Lecky, the historian setime is no controlling spirit there can be no and merchant service amounted in 1822 the hearse were the chief mourners, and a large line of friends. The cortege proates that in the Armenian massacres life, He calls the present Church of during the last two years 300,000 persons England the mother church. It was from her bosom it is true sprang many it there sprang many it there sprang many it the seeds of heresy which now cumber out a process of decime, falling below destNeige Ceneter and the seeds of heresy which now cumber out a process of decime, falling below destNeige Ceneter and the set of the seeds of heresy which now cumber out a process of decime, falling below destNeige Ceneter and the set of th one o'clock the following alternoon.

The deceased was only forty-eight years of age. He was a native of Montreal, and joined the Fire Brigade in or sbout 1866. He was promoted to the captaincy of No. 1 station in 1876, and a year later came near losing his life in the St. Urbsin street fire, being rescued with some trouble from the death that befell seven men of the brigade. At the

The funeral, which took place on

came the same number of policemen

ne Ge th Mi Mi Cu th he chi ECA Br 1 Cai the lar Os pla Mc Gri feli by ter the Gri asr dut chi ł uta Clu ide rea Ap boi Sai ba 87 vie ni of suite fur fur of th di p: gr to th sr m m te fo. .10

"No doubt. the Church of Rome is a

"This is the grand feature about the