

nothing in the evidence entitling him to escape liability on that ground. He failed to live up to the bargain which he made, and he knew or should have known its meaning, and the consequence of his failure to keep up the payments which, it had been made clear to him, he would have to make if the stock declined. Judgment dismissing the action with costs, and allowing the defendants the amount of their counterclaim, $18.10. The plaintiff, in person. A. G. Slaght, for the defendants.
