

restriction of personal liberty for any acts or omissions committed prior to that person's surrender, other than that for which the person was extradited, except in the following cases:

- a) when the Requested State consents. A request for consent shall be accompanied by the documents or information mentioned in Article VIII; or
- b) when that person, having had the opportunity to leave the territory of the Requesting State, has not done so within forty-five days of that person's final discharge, or has returned to that territory after leaving it.

ARTICLE XVI

Re-Extradition to a Third State

1. When a person has been surrendered to the Requesting State by the Requested State, the Requesting State shall not surrender that person to any third State for an offence committed before that person's surrender unless:
 - a) the Requested State consents; or
 - b) the person, having had the opportunity to leave the territory of the Requesting State, has not done so within forty-five days of that person's final discharge, or has returned to that territory after leaving it.
2. Before acceding to a request pursuant to sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this Article, the Requested State may require the production of the documents in support of the request of the third State.
