

- (b) the Secretary-General of the Organization has received information in accordance with Article 39 that those persons in such states who would be liable to contribute pursuant to Article 10 have received during the preceding calendar year a total quantity of at least 750 million tons of contributing oil.
2. This Convention shall, however, not enter into force before the Liability Convention has entered into force.
 3. For each state which subsequently ratifies, accepts, approves or accedes to it, this Convention shall enter into force on the ninetieth day after deposit by such state of the appropriate instrument.

ARTICLE 41

1. This Convention may be denounced by any Contracting State at any time after the date on which the Convention comes into force for that state.
2. Denunciation shall be effected by the deposit of an instrument with the Secretary-General of the Organization.
3. A denunciation shall take effect one year, or such longer period as may be specified in the instrument of denunciation, after its deposit with the Secretary-General of the Organization.
4. Denunciation of the Liability Convention shall be deemed to be a denunciation of this Convention. Such denunciation shall take effect on the same date as the denunciation of the Liability Convention takes effect according to paragraph 3 or Article XVI of that Convention.
5. Notwithstanding a denunciation by a Contracting State pursuant to this article, any provisions of this Convention relating to the obligations to make contributions under Article 10 with respect to an incident referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2 (b) and occurring before the denunciation takes effect shall continue to apply.

ARTICLE 42

1. Any Contracting State may, within ninety days after the deposit of an instrument of denunciation, the result of which it considers will significantly increase the level of contributions for remaining Contracting States, request the Director to convene an extraordinary session of the Assembly. The Director shall convene the Assembly to meet not later than sixty days after receipt of the request.
2. The Director may convene, on his own initiative, an extraordinary session of the Assembly to meet within sixty days after the deposit of any instrument of denunciation, if he considers that such denunciation will result in a significant increase in the level of contributions for the remaining Contracting States.
3. If the Assembly at an extraordinary session convened in accordance with paragraph 1 or 2 decides that the denunciation will result in a significant increase in the level of contributions for the remaining Contracting States, any such state may, not later than one hundred and twenty days
