

and division as in the two preceding paragraphs.) B. 379.

Question on amendment to second reading.

74. If an amendment is moved to the motion for the second reading, the Speaker says: "The question, Honourable Senators, before the Senate, is for the second reading of Bill intituled, &c. In amendment, it is moved by....., seconded by....., &c." If a debate follows, after it is over, he says: "Is it your pleasure to adopt the amendment, &c." (If a division takes place, see pars. 71, 72, 73.) M. 390, sqq.; B. 317-318, 510-511.

Further questions.

75. If the amendment is carried, the Speaker says: "The question is now on the main motion as amended. Is it your pleasure to adopt the motion as amended?" If the amendment is negatived, he says: "The amendment is lost, Honourable Senators. The question is now on the original motion for the second reading of the Bill; is it your pleasure, &c., &c." "Call the next Order:" if negatived, or "Read the Bill," if carried.

Withdrawal of amendment.

76. If a Senator offers to withdraw his amendment, the Speaker says: "Is it your pleasure to allow the Honourable Senator
