

excluded from the School by the Dean at his discretion, but no one shall be permitted to remain on trial after the Christmas examinations.

27 The examinations for elementary, for kindergarten and for intermediate diplomas shall be the sessional examinations of the School, the results of which shall be considered, together with reports on ability to teach and to govern rendered by the Dean of the School. For all such examinations, one-half of each examination paper may be set by the Central Board of Examiners, whenever the Board wishes to exercise this right, and such tests of ability to teach and to govern must be met as may be indicated by that Board.

All results, including examination questions and answers, shall be submitted to the Board by the Dean of the School, and in view of these results diplomas shall be recommended.

28 The Dean of the School for Teachers shall be the custodian of the final examination papers and shall retain them subject to orders from the Central Board, or from the Department of Education, for at least one year.

29 The examinations for the high school diplomas shall be the examinations in arts and in the history, theory and practice of education of Canadian or other British universities.
