

PROPOSED
ARRANGEMENTS,
For the 13th October, 1824.

The 1st and 4th regiments of Lincoln militia to parade at 10 o'clock A. M. and to form a lane, their right on the gate of fort George, and their left extending along the road to Queenston; the ranks about 40 paces distant—within this line, a GUARD OF HONOUR, consisting of the 76th regiment, to form in parade order, its left on fort George.

On the BODY being brought out of the gate, the GUARD OF HONOUR will present arms, &c.—and the detachment of Royal Artillery will fire a SALUTE of 19 guns;—the guard of honour then to break into a column of 8 divisions, right in front, and the procession to advance in ordinary time, in the following order:

A STAFF OFFICER.

Subdivision of Grenadiers.

BAND OF MUSICK.

RIGHT WING OF 76th REGIMENT.

THE BODY.

A. D. C. to the late Major General Sir Isaac Brock

COMMISSIONERS FOR THE MONUMENT.

Heads of Publick Departments of the Civil Government.

JUDGES.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

THE EXCELLENCY, AND SUITE.

Left Wing of the 76th Regiment.

Officers of militia not on duty—junior ranks first forward, 4 deep.

As the procession passes along the lane of militia, the latter to wheel inward by subdivisions in succession, as soon as its own front is clear, and follow the procession. At a certain distance from fort George, (on the word being given,) the quick march may be taken up, and arms sloped, &c.—when the members of the procession may take their carriages, &c., preserving, as near as possible, the order above mentioned, and the whole to proceed on the road to Queenston.

The 2d and 3d regiments of Lincoln militia, in like manner, to form a lane, its left resting on the Heights, near the entrance of the Monument, and extending along the road towards the village of Queenston. On reaching the commencement of this lane, the procession to resume its formation, all horses, carriages, &c. keeping in the rear; and when the head of the column approaches the Monument, it must incline to its right, to allow the Body to proceed direct to the entrance—The Guard of Honour will then halt, and form in parade order—the 2d and 3d Lincoln regiments following the procession, in like manner as the 1st and 4th.

On the Body being deposited in the Vault, (on a given signal) the Guard of Honour to present arms, and the Artillery posted on the Heights, to fire a Salute of 19 guns.—After which, the troops to march, in ordinary time, round the Monument, and then separate to their respective parades.
