

METHODISM IN CANADA

'The Warwick and Adelaide Mission includes part of three townships; land as rich, well timbered and watered as any I have seen. The people are industrious, sober and generous. Cannot occupy more than half the ground; work for two young men. From the settlers we hear the Macedonian cry, but cannot answer it. Fifty-five have been received on trial.'

At the Brantford Centenary meeting, Lewis Burwell, Esq., in the chair, £105 was raised; at Mt. Pleasant, £82 15s., and at Governor's Road, £82 15s.

'At Adolphustown our chapel was filled and $250 contributed; at Ernestown, $200, and over that amount next evening at Waterloo; in Kingston, $250, notwithstanding opposing efforts; at Gananoque, $50; Elizabethtown, $178; meeting in the rear, $127; Kitley, $165; then in the teeth of the severest storm known here for years, we proceeded twenty-five miles to Crosby and received $189; in Bastard, $46; Perth, $668—more than double our most sanguine expectations; Mr. James Flintoff, £50; A. Alexander, £25; Capt. Adams, £12 10s.; H. Glass, Esq., Presbyterian, £13 10s.; Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Church of England, £10,' etc.

The Rev. J. Stinson, October 14th, reports Centenary meetings: Niagara, $776; Glanford, $416; Copetown, $276; Jerseyville, $104; Brantford, $400; Mount Pleasant, $323; Blenheim, $216; Oxford, $760; London, $660; Delaware, $120; Chatham, $320; Dolson's, $140; Sandwich, $130; Amherstburgh, $200.

From the Ottawa District Rev. H. Shaler reports: L'Orignal, £44; W. Hawkesbury, £22; Chatham, "My heart said it must be £50," but it reached £73; Lachute, £71; St. Andrew's, £161.

October 18th, Rev. E. Ryerson reports: Lanark, £68;
