therefrom such medals and impressions as may from time to time be required.

He shall have charge of all specimens, moulds, plates, seals, books, etc., arrange, prepare, or distribute the same under the direction of the Board.

He shall receive all moneys due or payable to the Society and pay the same over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same; shall hold all bonds filed by the officers for the faithful performance of their duty, and all vouchers for every class of expenditure.

He shall countersign all drafts ordered by the Board of Managers or Finance Committee, and record the names of life and annual members in a book kept for that purpose in alphabetical order; and shall, at the annual meeting of each year, prepare a tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Society, and place the same in the hands of the committee on printing, for publication or not as may be deemed best; and when required present the same to the Board of Managers.

He shall prepare all reports to be made by the Board to the Society, and perform such other duties as the Society or the Board of Managers may require, and for his services he shall receive such compensation as the Board shall decide to pay.

DUTIES OF TREASURER.

SECTION 7. The Treasurer shall receipt for all moneys received from the hands of the Secretary or any other person; shall disburse the same when audited and allowed by the Finance Committee or on an order from the Secretary.

But this provision shall not apply in the payment of premiums on the fair grounds, but he may there pay demands against the Society where satisfied of their justice.

He shall hold in trust all bonds, notes, deeds, or other evidence of debt or possession belonging to the Society, and shall transfer, invest or dispose of the same only by direction of the Society or by written order of the Board.

He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, file with the Secretary a bond for the faithful performance of his duty, said bond to be approved by the Board.

He shall, at each annual meeting make the Board of Managers a detailed report of all his doings during the year, for
