"The Siren" Coming to Princess.

A charming Viennese operetta, possessing the lure of youth and a series of bewitching musical numbers such as seldom ever heard here in a single entertainment, is "The Siren" in which Charles Frohman will present Donald Brian at the Princess Theatre next week. Mr. Brian has a part admirably suited to him. He is not only a clever actor, but also an excellent singer, and as a dancer he is without a peer. There are many who contend that it was Brian's unusual and graceful dancing in the original "Merry Wildow" that did so much for the Siren" he will be seen to even greater advantage in this regard.

Accompanied by dainty Julis Sandarson, he will be seen in the nowfamous weltz-caprice that captivated New York, Chicago and Boston last season. In addition to Miss Sanderson, the will be seen in support of Mr. Brian such well-known artists as Will West, Ethel Cadman, Cyril Bidduiph, Florence Morrison, John Mogan, Grace Walsh, Harry T. Delf, Cissy Sewell and others. The chorue of sixty has been recruited from among the member of Mr. Frohman's American and English organizations.

The third annual engagement of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company nees will be given. The engagement will be the first in this city at which a scale of prices less than a dollar and haif has been charged.

At Shea's Theatre this week the headline feature is Jessie Busley and her players in Rupert Hughes' one-act play of department store life, "Miss 318." This is Miss Busley's first appearance here in vaudeville, and she is well remembered for her success in her tour as star in "In the Bishop's Carriera". Carriage." She is supported by an excellent company of ten people, and "Miss 318" promises to be one of the best offerings of the season.

The special attractions for the week are John E. Henshaw and Grace Avery, presenting the merry skit, "Strangers in a Strange Flat," and Charles Drew & Co. in his up-to-date comedy sketch. Other acts to be seen are the Mowatts, Lads o' Melodie, Clara, Ince, Adonis, Poulson and Goldie, and the

The show is styled the big musical comedy surprise. The costumes of the chorus and show girls, changed with great frequency, are chosen with skill, and the stage settings are elaborate. The catchy of the control of tings are elaborate. The catchy songs and dances are many and well done. Encores are so frequent that, in several cases, the performers have to resort to ruses to get the comedy's action under way again. Fine Photo Plays.

The opening performance of photo plays, which will be given weekly in Massey Hall, under the management of experienced theatrical man and the entertainment offered Saturday was of an exceptionally high-class nature and was one that is seldom to be equalled in moving picture theatres. The bill was headed by the well-known singer, Howard Russell, winner of the Earl Grey competition last year, who rendered a number of songs beautifully illustrated in colors. The motion pictures were numerous and of a wide and varied nature, including travel scenes, comic pictures and an intensely dramatic film entitled "A Nation's Perill," in which were illustrated the methods of diplomatic agents to secure secrets of foreign nations and how the love of a woman agent saved a nation and her lover from disgrace. The bill was witnessed by large audiences at all performances, including a number of clergymen, who commented most forwardly on the offering favorably on the offering.

A Simple, Easy Method which any Lady can use at home and quickly obtain a large and beautiful Bust.

By MARGARETTE MERLAIN

Well do I know the horrors and instense humiliation of being flat-chested; of having the face of a woman set on the form of a man; and I cannot find words to tell you how good I felt and what a terrible load was lifted off my mind when I first saw my bust had really grown six inches in size. I felt like a new being, for with no bust I realized I was really neither a man nor a woman, but just a sort of creature half way between.

With what pity must every man look at every woman who presents to him a
