

AT THE THEATRES

The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia and Mrs. Paterson enter-tained at a small ball at Government

House, Victoria, in honor of Her Royal Highness Princess Patricia. The as-semblage was honored by the presence of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, as well as their daughter. The duchess was gown-ed in old gold satin with an overdress of lace and a tunic of jet. H. R. H. Princess Patricia wore old rose satin with a gold sequinned tunic and a diamond ornament in her halr. Their Royal Highnesses, accompanied by the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pater-son, entered the ballrooom at about ten o'clock to the strains of the National Anthem.

The Toronto Hunt Club Steeplechas and gymkhana took place on Saturday afternoon under most favorable wea-ther conditions, it being much warmer than usual for the occasion. The array of motors was very large, filling one side of the course. A few of those present were: Mr. George Beardmore, Mr. Alfred Beardmore, Mr. and Mrs. Torrance Beardmore, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hawes, Mrs. Cecil Gibson, Miss Cibson, Mr. and Mrs. A Burritt Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burritt, the Misses Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. William Beardmore, Mr. and Miss Brouse, Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin, Miss Isabel Saunders, Major and Mrs. Bick-ford, Miss Norton, Mr. J. W. Mackenzie, Mr. C. Cronyn, Mr. J. W. Macken-zie, Mr. C. Cronyn, Mr. and Mrs. Suy-dam, Mr. and Mrs. J. Suydam, Mr. Norman Perry, Mr. Arthur Colvill, Mr. W. The Daily Hint From Paris Symphony Orchestra Thursday. * The public sale for the Toronto Symphony Orchestra concert on Thursday evening next, Oct. 17, orons this morning at Massey Hall. As this concert marks the beginning in Toronto of another symphony season, of which the season subscription sale has been the largest in the history of the organization, all intending purchasers are requested to secure their tickets without delay. The com-plete program will be as follows: Sym-phony No. 1, in G minor, by Kalinnikov, aria "Ministri di Baal," Meyerbeer; over-ture, "Le Carnaval Romain." Beriloz; "Berceuse," by Jarnfelt, and "Elfen-reigen." by Helimesberger. Madame Louise Homer, the great contraito and leading soloist of the Metropolitan Opera, will be the assisting soloist. In addition to singing the Meyerbeer aria, Madame will give an interesting group of songs with piano accompaniment. They are: "Der Schmied," by Brahms; "Mit delnen biauen augen," by Strauss, and two by Sidney Homer, "The Fiddle of Dooney" and "The Song of the Shirt." ing purchasers are requested to secure

"Excuse Me."

"Excuse Me." The extraordinary sale for Mr. Henry W. Savage's production of Rupert Hughes' furiously fumny farce, "Excuse Me." which opens a week's engagement tonight at the Alexandra Theatre in-dicates that one of the largest week's business in the history of this theatre will be done by this hilarious play. Last year it set Toronto laughing as no other theatrical production had ever done, and as the cast and production which Mr. Savage sends here is practi-cally the same, theatre-goers well know the treat in store. Tonight Willis P. Sweatnam, who originated the prin-cipal role, that of a Pullman car porter, and glayed it during the solid year's run in New York City, will be seen in the cast.

The big scream. Tom Miner's "Bohemian Burlesquers," will open at the Star The-atre to-day for a week's engagement and Ida Nicolai, in their well-known characters of "Patsy Bolivar" and "Roxie"; Flossie Gaylor, the Suffragette: the Bohemian Trio, consisting of Hughy Bernhard, Dolly Sweet and Marie Revere: Miner's Merry Minstrel Maids, considered the biggest and best act ever seen with a burlesque company, and numbering forty son Green, Frank Austin, and the features of all features and the sensation of both forms a mare feat in mid-air, constituing one of the best aggregations on the road. ## Coming "Three Dukes."

Coming "Three Dukes." The comedy average of the Charles Waldron's Trocadero Burlesquers' pro-stram goes considerably skyward by the presence of the trio of fun-makers. Frank Finney, Sam Adams and Murray Simons. Frank Finney's career in the burlesque comedy-producing field has never been so promising as it is this season, for in bis new comedy he has hit the public's desire, and that is more laughs; not that he hasn't always presented laughing shows, but this new one has more laughs than ever. The Trocaderos begin a week's engagement at the Gayety Theatre, open-ing with a matinee today, and the mill-taire evolutions of the Smiling Chorus as West Pointers, and Uncle Sam's Middles, to the martial popular brass band music, is a decided hit.
