Doctors Said Operation Was the Only Hope-But This Man Saved His Life and Toes at the Same Time.

Cookstown, Reb. 20.—There has been a great deal of suffering from frost bites on account of the extreme cold this winter. This recalls the case of Mr. Wm. Watters, who was so severely frozen a few years ago that the doctors despaired of his life unless he would submit to an operation for the amputation of his toes. Here is Mr. Watters' sworn statement:

turned black. Some friends total in turned black. Some friends total in turned be foolish to have them taken in the manufacture me forty-eight ours to live, saying that I was prachours to live, saying that I was practically committing suicide and refused any treatment unless I submitted to the operation. I applied Dr. Chase's Ointment persistently and used the Kidney-Liver Pills to carry the poison out of my system. I kept up this treatment for four months, and can positively say that they cured me, Except for the loss of the nail from Except for the loss of the nail from the big toe my foot is perfectly sound, whereas if I had followed the advice of the doctor I would have become lame for life."
