BOSTON RED SOX TAKE FIRST GEO. WHITEMAN SAVED GAME

Sensational Fielding by Former Leaf Kept Cubs From Scoring—Barrow's Men Tallied Once and Cubs Were Whitewashed—Pick Was Sad Failure.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—One of the smallest crowds which ever turned out for a world's series opening saw the Boston Red Sox of the American League today defeat the Cubs of the National League, 1 to 0, in an errorless game.

The battle was a pitching duel between Jim Vaughn and "Babe" Ruth. These two giants fought it out all the way, and although Ruth allowed six hits to his opponent's five, the "break" went to the invaders and they were consequently making confident claims to the world's championship tonight.

The effect of the war was everywhere apparent, especially in the temper of the crowd which, largely local, saw the home team drop the first game without a protest. There was no cheering during the contest, nor was there anything like the usual umpire bawling.

Today's attendance was 19,247. Rain caused postponement of the first game scheduled for yesterday. Today the downpour had ceased and the grounds were comparatively dry. The sun showed itself, and there was a stiff, chilly breeze from the north. The crowd occupied in the upper tier of the second floor of the grand stand, and the right section of the stand was practically empty. In the left section there were many vacant seats.

A number of boxes also were without occupants, and in the bleachers the three lower rows all around the field were vacant.

The one-handed spear by Scott of Vaughn's hot grounder in the seventh inning provided the one spectacular feature of the contest. It was a beautiful play, but at the time the Cubs were not threatening. The whole game failed to produce a hit for extra bases, nor any real test of speed for the outfielders.

Whiteman Was Great. George Whiteman, Boston utility outfielder, and a former Leaf, started in the outfield for Boston, and doubtless prevented the Cubs from scoring. He was also the only man of the invaders to make two hits, one of which figured in Boston's lone but victorious tally.

Vaughn's momentary weakness in the fourth inning cost him the game, walked when the giant Cub twirler attempted to work the corners on Umpire O'Day. Strunk, who followed, fled to Vaughn on an attempted sacrifice, and Whiteman delivered his second, sending Strunk to second. Paskert's quick reaction prevented the Red Sox second base.

Boston	1	Chicago	0
Second and third games at Chicago;
fourth and other necessary games at Boston.
Attendance at first game, 19,247.
Two former Leafs took part in the first game. George Whiteman was a star at the bat and in the field. Whiteman was the only Boston player to get two hits. Charlie Pick failed miserably at the bat and was only fair in the field.
The Cubs had only two good openings for runs in the first game yesterday, both of them came with two men out. In the first instance, Merkle was passed, and Pick was unusual to the task of driving in the runs. In the second instance, Deal railed the hopes of the Chicago fans by driving a home run to left, but it fell foul, and his next attempts was captured by Whiteman. The game lacked almost all regular features which usually accompany a world series contest, but this had no effect on the quality of play, which was worthy of champion teams.
FANS CHEERED WHITEY—WHO HAD TWO SINGLES
The only small crowd attended the first world's series game yesterday in Chicago. The local interest seemed certainly no less than in other years, possibly because the rival teams were led by former Toronto managers, Barrow and Mitchell. The game was reproduced in the Star Theatre to a well-filled house, with fans rooting for their favorite just like at Hanlan's Point.
Both sides cheered Whiteman, who hit safely twice, his second helping along Dave Shean, who later scored the only run of the game on a single by McInnis. Charlie Pick, of the Cubs, also a former Leaf, failed in a pinch the first inning with the bases full and two out when he hoisted to Whiteman. The second game will also be reproduced today at the Star, starting at 3:30. Toronto will have the third game.

Leafs Win at Ingersoll;

Anderson Behind the Bat

Ingersoll, Sept. 5.—By a score of 7 to 6 the Toronto International League champions, defeated the local baseball team at Victory Park this afternoon. Although weather conditions were unfavorable, several hundred witnessed the game. The locals were not as strong as expected owing to the fact that some professionals who were expected did not arrive. The visitors contributed Alchele and Anderson as a battery. Horche and Fisher were the Toronto battery.

RUTH GOT BREAKS IN PITCHING DUEL

Boston Put Over Only Run of Game in Fourth Inning.

McINNIS DID IT

Drove in Shean—Scott Pulled Most Sensational Play of Game.

The detailed story of the first game of the world series follows:

First Inning. Boston—Hooper was cheered as he walked to first. Vaughn's first was a strike. Hooper batted the second offering down the first-base line and was out. Merkle to Vaughn. Shean took two strikes and then dropped a Texas Leaguer right-strutted forced Shean. Deal to Pick. The Chicago second-inning man losing a chance for a double-play as a momentary fumble forced Strunk to go down on a short passed ball and was thrown out. Killifer to Hollocher. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Chicago—Flack fanned, the third strike being called out. Hollocher grounded out, Shean to McInnis. Mann sent a base runner at Shean, but the ball hopped over the second-base man's head for a single. Paskert singled sharply to left and Mann went to third. Paskert taking second on the throw to the far corner. Merkle ran his string to three and two and then walked, filling the bases. This brought up Pick, who made his world series debut in a world series pinch. Pick, on the third pitch, fled to Whiteman. No runs. Two hits. No errors.

Second Inning. Boston—Whiteman opened with a single to centre. It was a fast grounder between Hollocher and Pick. McInnis sacrificed. Vaughn to Merkle, placing a base bunt close to the line. Whiteman went to second. Scott took a ball and a strike, fouled out to left. Merkle on the second strike, and then fled to Flack. Thomas' grounder bounced high in the air, but a fast play retired him. Merkle to Vaughn. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Chicago—Ruth's control seemed not of the best. His first two pitches to Deal were high and wide. The next two were called strikes, and Deal then grounded out. Ruth to McInnis. Killifer was grounded out. Shean to McInnis. Vaughn also drew a pattern of applause from the fans. He fouled out to Agnew. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Third Inning. Boston—Agnew waited until the call was three balls and two strikes, and then went out steadily. Ruth was cheered when he came up. He drove a hard liner to centre. Paskert stumbled, but recovered quickly and captured the ball. Hooper caught a curve on the end of his bat and drove it safely to left. Hooper went out steadily. Killifer to Hollocher. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Chicago—Flack started in the centre. Hollocher sacrificed. Thomas to McInnis. Vaughn to Merkle. Flack made a good catch of a wide throw. Flack went to second on the play. Mann grounded out. Vaughn to McInnis. Flack taking third. Paskert up. Paskert grounded out. Scott to McInnis. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Fourth Inning. Boston—Control and passed. Shean. Strunk batted a pop fly to Vaughn. Whiteman made his second out. Shean, which was cleared. Hollocher's mitt. Shean went to second. Shean scored on McInnis. Vaughn to Scott. Scott batted a pop fly. Deal caught on the spot. Second in safety. Deal fanned, swinging heavily at the third strike, which was low and wide. Killifer. On Merkle drove a high fly to Hooper. Pick fanned, offering weakly at the third strike, which was low and wide. Deal put up a high fly, which Hooper had no trouble in capturing. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Fifth Inning. Boston—Agnew out. Deal to Merkle. Ruth was again cheered when he came to bat. Vaughn worked carefully and drew the big Boston pitcher. The fast first hot cheering from the shivering crowd. Hooper grounded out. Vaughn to Merkle. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Chicago—Killifer's high fly dropped into Whiteman's hands. Vaughn dropped twice, then swung at a curve and missed for the third strike. Flack was hit on the head, but showed no ill effects as he went to first. Hollocher fled to Strunk. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Sixth Inning. Boston—Shean ran his string up to the three-and-two count and then fled to Hooper. Paskert hit safely to centre and the rooting started again. Merkle drove a hit thru the box and over second base. Paskert advancing to the middle station. Pick, with orders to sacrifice, popped a foul fly on his first attempt. He then grounded out to McInnis unassisted. Both runners moved up. Deal fled to Whiteman. No runs. Two hits. No errors.

Seventh Inning. Boston—Innis fled to Paskert in short centre. Hollocher made a fine stop of Scott's sharp grounder and threw him out at first. Thomas fanned on three pitched balls. No runs. No hits. No errors.
