and he appealed for an amendment to the Public School Act, which would meet the views of a large portion of Regulations Sufficient.

Regulations Sufficient.

The reply of the Minister of Education did not indicate that the government would be in much of a hurry to change the Public school system along the lines suggested. He quoted a resolution passed by the Ontario Educational Association in which the strong disapproval of that body of the voluntary school system was noted, and deprecating any attempt to introduce religious instruction into the Public school curriculum. Mr. Harcourt thought that the existing regulations providing for optional religious instruction for half an hour after 4 o'clock were sufficient.

The deputation answered that the present regulations penalized the children and they did not remain after 4 o'clock for the instruction.

Mr. Harcourt suggested that in order to get over this feature it might be advisable to make the time from 3.30 to 4 p.m. If that would meet the view of the deputation he would see what could be done along that "Give us voluntary schools," re-marked several of the deputation while the Minister was speaking, apparently being satisfied with nothing short of the full demand. After the deputation withdrew several of the Synod representatives re-marked that they were not overmuch pleased with the tone of the Minis-

Another Deputation. The recent changes in the university curriculum point to a general revision of educational methods, and the need of a more practical commercial edu-cation is but too evident. The Cana-dian Manufacturers' Association does not wait for things to come its way, but gets right to work and goes to meet them. A deputation consisting of W. B. Tyndall, J. P. Murray and J. F. M. Stewart, waited on the Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education, to suggest that something be tional course in commercial education.
The deputation stated that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association would appoint a committee to act in conjunction with and give any possible assistance to the Education Department.

Reference was made to the new degree now adopted in Birmingham, Eng., known as the Commercial De-gree, and which included a knowledge of the live languages used in modern business operations, and among other subjects, commercial geography.

Mr. Harcourt said he would accede to the request, and a conference will be held.

Carlers Visit the Pile. The visiting cuplers from Bonnie Scotland were shown thru the big pile in Queen's Park Friday morning by Mayor Urquhart, Ald. Ward, Dr. Lynd, Ald. Ramsden, Ald. Graham, Ald. Stewart, ex-Ald. McMurrich, Corporation Counsel Fullerton and City Clerk Littlejohn. Hon. G. W. Ross and Hon. E. J. Davis received the visitors in the Premier's quarters. The Premier made Premier's quarters. The Premier made a neat little speech of welcome and a heat little speech of welcome and afterwards invited the Scotchmen to inspect the building "where," he said jocularly, "we make the laws of the country, including prohibition and other laws for the suppression of vice and immorality of the people." Rev. Mr. Kerr, captain of the team replied, and then three cheers for the Ontario Hon. Mr. Davis' Resignation.

To-day the North York election protest will come up at Osgoode Hall, and, if the judges agree, no evidence will be offered. After the protest is dismissed the Minister will hand his resignation to the clerk of the House as the member for North York. He said yesterday that he had no reply to make to the statement of T. Herbert Lennox of Aurora on Thursday. While case is before the courts it would be becoming for him, as a memof the government, to make any there would be something coming to-day after the protest was declared off. This statement would give an explana tion of the whole course of events in North York since the defeated candi-date decided to attack the election. There is an impression around the building that the by-election in North York will be brought on without any unnecessary delay, as the House is due to meet soon, and if North York is to stay in the Liberal column Mr. Davis' vote is needed as soon as the
