"THE BALANCE OF ARGUMENT"

Is always in favor of 'SALADA Ceylon Tea. Expert tea men and food specialists are unanimous on

Is sold only in sealed lead packets, with the name in bold print on each. 25c, 30c, 40c, 5tc, 60c.

of took it as a token that-that you had forgiven me," Vere murmured. Ernest's brow flushed redly.

Forgiven you!" he said in a low tone. "I have nothing to forgive. It was aif my fault."
"Oh, no," she said, quickly; "I treated you shamefully, and I am so sorry. Can you ever really forgive and for-get, Mr. Kerry?"

"Forget-never!" he said passionately. "My few days of happiness when you were my affianced bride are my dearest remembrance; but forgiveness-

He turned away, unable to command his agitation. "You don't mean that-that you care still?" Vere stammered.

"Care?" he echoed. "You know that I shall adore you as long as I live.'

"After the shameful way I have treated you" she said. "It was not your fault. You never added, wistfully.

"Oh, I shall be happy!" Vere cried, radiantly; and then, before either could speak again, the door opened to admit looking much put out. "Vere, what is this?" her father said "Here I fi a Harry alone in the drawing-room and you shut up with Mr. Kerry"a contemptuous stress on the nan-"What does It mean? As for you, s —turning sharply on Ernest—'I foreid you the house. Do you hear? My daughter is to be married shortly, and I desire that her acquaintance with you shall cease."

"You are unjust, father," Vere said, haughtily. "Mr. Kerry holds a secret of Sir Harry North's, and I have been trying to beg him to give me a certain paper he holds, I believe"-turning with a dazzling smile to Ernest-"that he is going to do it. Won't you?"

He looked at her with the hopelessness of despair in his eyes. "After what your father has said, I love you, give up my hold over him." He handed her in stience a folded pa-per. Vere, without a word, threw it in-for that trade are expected to be nuto the fire that was glowing in the merous later on. Values in all lines of

"Now, Sir Harry, you are free, she said, turning on her old lover; "and I have been good. Canadian so ities hope you will begin a new life abroad." have been in good demand during the week, and there has been a marked abroad," he answered carelessly. "I've appreciation in the price of bank just come into a fine property here, and stocks. here I intend to stay.'

"I may remark," Ernest Kerry said, coolly, "that my father's firm holds a sealed and attested copy of that state-

"They have instructions to open and act upon it in the event of my deathor disappearance; but I give you my word of honor that if you will go abroad I will burn it at once."

"And now, perhaps," said Lord Martry, whose rage had been simmering all this time, "you'll go. Neither I nor my daughter desire your acquaintance in

"Yes, I will go," said Ernest Kerry for Sir Harry, and I am sure I wish him well; but I have no intention of becoming his wife."

Lord lartry, crimson with rage. "Did you r see such a girl! I believe you are mad."

'I'm not mad nough to marry Sir Lady Vere, compos-Harry," dly, "and nows why."

Lord Martry turned his angry eyes on the baronet, and his looks told plainly that he did know why.

"Well, at any rate," Lord Martry said, you needn't detain Mr. Kerry here. This affair does not concern him."
"Oh, but it does," said Vere quietly. "Because, you see, I'm going to marry

If a thunderbolt had fallen in the stately old library it could not more greatly have astonished the three men

Sir Harry lifted a fierce, sullen face; and then looked down again. Lord Martry was almost apoplectic in his rage. Ernest's heart beat almost to suffocation. Was she playing with him? Lord Martry recovered his breath at

"You shameful girl!" he cried. "Would you disgrace me by marrying a country solicitor's son?"
"I'm not going to argue," Vere said, quietly. "My mind is fully made up.

Telephone 485.

New Roquefort ...Cheese

JUST ARRIVED.

Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co

I've had quite enough of society, I can assure you. I can be happy at Ravenscroft." "I won't countenance it! hear? Do you hear, Kerry? Not a penny of my money shall you have-not a penny. "That won't make any difference," said Vere, "will it Ernest?"

"Any difference! I should think not, he said passionately. "Oh, Vere! Do you really mean it? Will you really be my wife?"
"If you will have me, after all," she answered, softly. "If you take her, you take her a t once," said Lord Martry. "I've done with her if she marries you."

"Very well. Do you wish her to go now? My mother will be delighted to receive her," Ernest said suavely.
"Yes, go! The girl's a fool! Take her and marry her." But Sir Harry stepped forward. "You mustn't do that, Lord Martry," he said, firmly. "The world would cry shame on you. You mustn't send your daughter away. Kerry has won her fairly. I've been a fool and a villain, but I'll make a fresh start, upon my honor, Vere. I don't forget what you've done for me, and I-I might have *killed

"What do you propose?" Lord Martry said, gruffly, a little ashamed of himself now that his anger was over. "A license and a wedding tomorrow,

Sir Harry responded. "Very well," said Lord Martry; and the details were arranged.

"Tomorrow at 2, then," said his lordship, turning to Ernest. "Yes," he responded, and then he turned to Vere.

"You won't fail me this time?" he whispered agitatedly.

She smiled in reply. Then she pulled up her sleeve and disclosed a bracelet on her wrist. It was Ernest's wedding gift of months ago.

"Do you remember telling me I should see what was in this some day when I learned to love you?" she asked. "Well, I found the spring one day, and—I have learned to love you." She stooped and kissed the photo, but

Ernest protested energetically. deceived. You never pretended to look me. It is only my misfortune that you should love—the other. If only I could half-proudly, Vere lifted her lovely young face and gave her lover his first

[The End.]

Lord Martry and Sir Harry North, both "NEVER MORE

Bradstreet's Review of the Business Situation in Canada-A Grand Outlook.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 6.-Bradstreet's weekly review of Canadian trade says: A steady improvement ... trade has been displayed at Montreal the past week, and the prospects for business generally were never so promising at this season as they are this year. Payments are satisfactory.

A good average trade is being done at Toronto, and the merchants antici- years ago. have no choice. If you, knowing all, pate a steady expansion as the season elect to marry Sir Harry North, I. who goes on. Some good-sized orders for the Alaska trade have already been staple goods are firm, and imported "Now, Sir Harry, you are free," she lines are strong. Country remiddle turning on her old lover; "and I have been good. Canadian se lities

A feature in business at the coast has been the brisk demand for goods for the Atlin mining district. The rush of prospectors created a big demand for goods, including camp supplies, as well as mining kits, and it is likely to continue brisk as the place is developed. The active building operations going on at various centers of the province, and particularly at New Westminster, are having a good effect on trade at Van-couver. Business men are preparing for an active spring and summer trade. A good volume of business for the season has been transacted at Winnipeg. The large arrivals of new setquietly; and he made one step to the tlers, and the promise of further augmentations to the province's population "One moment, Mr. Kerry," and Lady during the coming spring make the Very laid a detaining hand on his arm. business outlook very promising. The turning and addressing ord preparations for activity in building at Mai 19, "you and Sir Harry North are various points are very encouraging, under a misapprehension. I am sorry and an active year in that line is expected. A number of new blocks will, it is understood, be erected in Winnipeg during the present year. The re-'Well, upon my word!" spluttered cent rough weather checked the farmers' deliveries of grain, but the sharp advance in prices seemed to have a tendency to encourage the farmers to market their wheat.

> Paper floors for dwelling houses are coming into use in Germany. They are formed of several layers of stout paper, dampened, pasted and rolled.

its fangs into his very vitals. Should a man think he has consumption," you ask, "just because his appe-tite is poor and he is losing flesh and he has a little cough and a general feeling of weakness and incapacity?" No: that doesn't necessarily mean consumption, but it means that the system is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being tainted with bilious poisons that the liver hasn't power to throw off and any day that which is now only a probability may suddenly develop into a certainty. "My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs. She had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again," said Mr. W. A. Sanders, of Hern, Mason Co., W. Va., in a very instructive letter written to Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. "But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. Should you think this will do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine they may enclose seif-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer the same as written in this letter."

But the me to use this medicine is now little weaknesses are slowly breaking down. Awaken in time and throw on he deadly danger before it strikes you a vital spot. This glorious "Discover will give you appetite and digestive power, pure blood and solid substantial strength.

Write to Dr. Pierce about your condition.

The Grand Trunk Station at Bright Destroyed by Fire.

Sudden Death of a Sarnia Youth-Fitiful Case of Poverty in Woodstock.

The smallpox patients in Colchester have recovered. The house where they lived will be burned down. Some of the Huron township councils are experiencing difficulty in persuading their indigents to go to the house of refuge.

The town of Seaforth is making application to the Ontario Legislature for a private bill to pay $10,000 as a bonus to woolen mills.

Mr. A. W. Graham has been chosen chairman of the St. Inomas board of education. Mr. Geo. Lucas over the Sarnia board, and Mr. Gray over the Woodstock body.

Mr. L. Walier, of Tilsonburg, shipped 18 fine horses to Brandon, N. W. T., last week. There were three drivers among them. The others were all draft horses, weighing from 1,300 to 1.500 bounds.

Rev. Robt. McIntyre may shortly resign his pastorate of the Alma Street Church, St. Thomas, although he has not decided to do so. He has been extended a call from the Presbyterian Church at Delaware.

A carload of pure bred cattle, sheep and swine was shipped by the C. P. R. from Melbourne for Calgary, Wednesday, under the auspices of the Dominion Live Stock Association, of which Mr. F. W. Hodson is secretary.

The creditors of Walters Bros., drygoods dealers, of Sarnia, at a meeting at Toronto decided to give the insolvents time to make an offer of compromise. Assets are placed at $11,000, with liabilities of $19,000. Brophy, Cains & Co., of Montreal, are the largest creditors.

The death occurred Tuesday night of Mrs. Bennett, wife of the Rev. Bennett, of Port Dover, formerly of West Brantford, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Smith, in Brantford. Deceased was 31 years of age, and has been ill for eight years with lingering consumption.

On Tuesday, Jan. 31, Mrs. Rachel Cascadden, mother of Mrs. W. D. Morse, died at her son-in-law's residence at Aylmer, in her 82nd year. Mrs. Cascadden has been one of the old residents of that locality, and has for some time made her home with her daughter and son-in-law there.

Mrs. Susan O'Brien, wife of Michael O'Brien, St. Thomas, died Thursday night very suddenly, aged seventy years. She had been as well as usual all day, but about 11 p.m. went off in a faint, and died in a few moments. She was born in the county of Wexford, Ireland, and came to this country with her husband forty Probably two of the largest logs that have ever been brought to Exeter were delivered for Mr. Adam Beck's agent, Mr. McDonald, there, the other cay. They were cut on the premises of Mrs. Sanders, Stephen, and were drawn by Messrs. William McKenzie and John Graham, of East Williams. They were of the white oak variety and contained an average of 15,000 feet each.

There is a pitiful case of poverty at 30 Mill street, Woodstock, that should receive the attention of charity workers of that town. Mr. and Mrs. McGinn are lying very ill with la grippe, and are in such destitution that they are utterly incapable of helping themselves. They have appealed for aid, and beg that "some good Christian people respond to their appeal." It looks like a serious case.

George Smith, of Aylmer, has been committed for trial on a charge of securing $5 50 from Ethel Abbott, of the same place. George and Ethel came to &:. Thomas a few days ago to purchase some wedding presents, as they intended to get married in a short time. George borrowed $5 50 from Ethel to buy a present. Then he disappeared, and the woman didn't see him again until she secured a warrant and had him arrested.

Mr. Searle has instituted proceedings to unseat Mayor Shaw, of Clinton, on the ground that he had been a member of the Collegiate Institute board at the time of his nomination. which, it is claimed, disqualified him. Sooner than contest the matter, the mayor tendered his resignation to the council. O. Johnston was appointed to act as presiding officer during the vacancy. It is reported that Mr. Searle will claim the seat.

Rev. James Pritchard, a retired Presbyterian minister, died at his residence, Goderich, on Sunday, aged The funeral took place to the G. T. R. depot, the remains being conveyed to the old home. Forest, where the interment took place from the Presbyterian Church, of which he had been pastor for twelve years, resigning last May owing to ill-health. Mr. Pritchard leaves a son, aged 16, and a daughter, aged 5.

The Grand Trunk station in Bright was burned Thursday morning. The fire broke out about nine o'clock, and originated from a defective stovepipe. The blaze was discovered in time to get all the furniture and books out before they were damaged, but the building itself was completely destroyed, as it had gained too much headway to be extinguished by the efforts of the neighbors and employes unassisted as they were by any fire brigade. It was a frame building, and it is known what the loss will be. Mr.

Waugh is station master. An old man named Rutherford, who has been put in Walkerton jail for a long time, was taken to the house of refuge last week, and in a few hours became violently insane. He was brought Another old man named Winter, who has been cared for by a farmer in Brant for several years, begged so piteously not to be removed that his kindhearted protectors relented and allowed him to remain. He is 87 years old, and has been helpless for a long time. The annual meeting of the West Elgin Caledonian Society was held at Queen's Hotel, Dutton, on Wednesday evening, the anniversary of Robbie Burns. After disposing of routine business the election of officers was proceeded with, resulting as follows: Chief, Alex. McWilliam, Mr. McMillan declining re-election; chieftains, Alex. Willey, James Duncanson, D. McKay, C. St. C. Leitch, D. Macnish, M.P.P., P. Stalker and Squire McColl; treasurer, James Pool; secretary, J. D. Blue; marshal, A. C. Gordon; standard bearers, D. McEachren and Arch McAlpine; auditors, C. S. C.

Leitch and A. C. Gordon.

A Drowning Man

needs help—and needs it at once—delay can have but one re-Sick kidneys are very much like a drowning man-their cry for help is just as imperative—their need just as vital— May be simply a case of backache first-but backache is the warning note of the more serious trouble to follow.-Backache is the cry of the sick kidneys for help-

They're not able to do the work demanded of them—system is getting clogged up with poison—

> There's only one way out of it—only one never-failing cure that reaches out after sick kidneys, as the life-line reaches for the drowning man-

> Doan's Kidney Pills-They've cured thousands of people—are curing others

every day-Take a London citizen's word for it:

MR. JAMES JACKSON, the well-known carpenter, lives at 646 Maitland Street, London, Ont. He says: "I had a bad attack of la grippe four years ago. Since that time I have suffered severely from pain in my back, so that I could scarcely walk across the room. My sleep was fitful and uncertain, and gave me no rest. I had other pronounced and painful symptoms of kidney disease, and until I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills had almost despaired of a cure. It was a happy day for me when I got these pills, because they removed all my distressing kidney troubles, drove out the pain in my back, restored restful sleep, and have made me a strong, healthy man."

Doan's Kidney Pills'are for sale by all druggists at 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto. Remember the name Doan's, and refuse all others.

peddlers who are going through the Hobbs' county with a lot of their shoddy cloths. If the people want clothes they should patronize the town merchants on whom they can depend, and from whom if goods are not as represented, they can get their money back. These peddlers offer goods which they Bicycles claim are English and Scotch tweed at what they say are reduced prices, but which in reality are not worth half what they ask for them. They also tell all kinds of stories to help make sales. This is the third visit of these peddlers to Essex county, and ous visits should be enough to make the farmers give them the cold shoul-PRICES: George Ormrod, 16 years of age, of Sarnia, died suddenly on Wednesday Model 24, 28-inch wheels..... morning. He had not been feeling well for a day or two. When bedtime came, about 10 o'clock on Tuesday Model 22, 30-inch wheels. New Winchester. 32-inch rear wheel, 30-inch front wheel..... night, he took off his collar and tie before going to his room, and remarked to his mother that he would just leave them on the table where they would be handy in the morning, as he intended going to work. The boy retired, as did the rest of the family. Shortly after midnight his parents cause of his death is given as pneumonia and heart failure. At a meeting of Lambton sportsmen, held at Sarnia the other day, a resolution was adopted against the petition to the legislature, now being circulated, asking that body to alter the present law with regard to the protection of quail, and praying that the season for taking or shooting these birds commence on Nov. 1 and end on Dec. 15. It was also resolved, that, whereas, petitions to enact a law making it illegal to carry firearms after December in each year for the purpose of killing rabbits, or "cotton-tails," believing that rabbits, or cottontails are a pest, and one that is very destructive to crops and young orchards, would urge upon the legislative assembly of the Province of Ontario that no such enactment should be made, as it is the interest of the farmer that he should be permitted to take or destroy the said rabbits, or the lessons taught by their two previ-were awakened by the lad experiencing a choking sensation. He recovered from the attack, but about one o'clock life took its departure without any warning whatever. The

You Should Know

any means, except by poison.

"cottontails," at all seasons, and by what Hood's Sarsaparilla has power to do for those who have impure and impoverished blood. It makes the blood rich and pure, and cures scrofula, salt rheum, dyspepsia, catarrh, rheumatism, nervousness. If you are troubled with any ailment caused or promoted by impure blood, take Hood's Sarsaparilla at once.

HOOD'S PILLS are the only pills to ficient, easy to take, easy to operate. c

The dew that is annually deposited on the surface of England is equal to five Montague, of Dunnville, Cured of Ul cerated Itching Piles. Mr. Robert Montague, of Dunnville. Ont., writes: "Was troubled with Itching Piles for five years, and was so badly ulcerated, they were very painful, so much so that I could not sleep. I tried almost every medicine known, when I was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box and from the first application got relief. Have used two boxes and am now completely cured." The number of cigarettes made in North Carolina last year was 27,749,000 less than the year before.

FAGGED OUT .- None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They back to the jail, and in a short time died. After an inquest he was buried live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dande-lion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

After a trial of two sessions daily in the high schools of Cleveland a return has been made to the one-session plan. A Thousand Tongues.

not express the rapture of E. Springer, of 1,125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest, and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." Essex Free Press: The public Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50 cents little bells in order to the warned against a gang of shoddy and $1. For sale by W. T. Strong & Co.

Winchester ...FOR 1899....

IN ONE QUALITY ONLY. AS GOOD AS MONEY CAN BUY.

Model 26, 28-inch wheels...... $ 40 00 Unapproached in new ideas, quality and finish by any maker on the Continent.

Brasswork at 121 Clarence Street, LONDON, ONTARIO.

We make Bells and

London, Ont., Jan. 5, 1899.

MR. JOHN LAW, 121 Clarence St., City.

Dear Sir,—Yours of the 4th inst., asking us how your babbit metal suits us, to hand. We might your babbit metal suits us, to hand. We might say that we have been purchasing babbit metal from you for a number of years, and have always found that you furnished us with good goods. We have put the journal metal to very severe tests, and have always found it to hold up well. We have also found the special wrist pin metal to be just what we required and much better than brass, and we would not hesitate to recommend your metals whether in babbit or brass to those requiring such. Yours very truly. Yours very truly,
THE GEORGE WHITE & SONS CO.,
Limite

and cannot be beat. What John Law says is true-21tf 22tf

Our Babbits Metals are equal to any

Railways and Navigation

On and after Sunday, Feb. 5, the following changes in the departure of trains from London will be in effect: GOING EAST.

Lehigh Express, 3:43 a.m., instead of 3:48 a.m. New York Exp., 4:40 p.m., instead of 4:50 p.m. GOING WEST. Chicago Exp..... 3:35 a.m., instead of 3:20 a.m.

Chicago Exp. 3:35 a.m., instead of 3:20 a.m. Lehigh Exp. 11:95 a.m., instead of 11:30 a.m. Detroit Exp. 6:35 p.m., instead of 6:25 p.m. Detroit Exp. 6:35 p.m., instead of 6:25 p.m. Stratford B'nch. 6:25 p.m., instead of 6:35 p.m. L. H. and B. 4:40 p.m., instead of 4:45 p.m. E. DE LA HOOKE, City Passenger and Ticket Agent, "Clock" corner Richmond and

New York to Liverpool via Queenslowi S.S. MAJESTIC, Feb. 8..... S.S. GERMANIC, Feb 15... S.S. TEUTONIC, Feb. 22.... S.S. BRITANNIC, Mar. 1

S.S. MAJESTIC, Mar. 8....

Rates as low as by any first-class line. Berths secured by wire.

E. De La Hooke, Sole Agent for London, "Clock" Corner.

Railways and Navigation

Fast Vestibuled Trains

MICHIGAN CENTRAL "The Niagara Falls Route."

DAILY, FOR Chicago and all Western and North western Points. Leaving London 9:30 a.m. and 8 p.m., con necting at Chicago with all night and morning trains for the West and Northwest. Rates, folders and all information at City Ticket Office, 395 Richmond street.

JOHN PAUL City Passenger Agent. O. W. RUGGLES, Gen. Pass. and Tkt. Agt.

CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR

WESTWARD BOUND. CPR CPR directly or with its connections reaches Detroit, Chicago, Kanches Detroit, Chicago, Kanches Detroit, Chicago, Kanches Denver, San Francisco, Los CPR Denver, San Francisco, Los CPR Angeles, Sault Ste. Marie, St. CPR Paul, Minneapolis, Port Arthur, CPR Rat Portage, Winnipeg, Calgary, CPR Kootenay, Cariboo, Pacific Coast CPR and Yukon points.

CPR It will pay you to consider the merits of the Canadian Pacific CPR Defore purchasing by other CPR routes.

CPR routes.
CPR CCPR C. E. MCPMERSON, assistant general passenger agent, I King street east, Toronto.
CPR THOS. R. PARKER, city passenger agent, 181 Dundas street corner Richmond.

CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR

OF CANADA

The direct Route between the West and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie des Chaleur, Province of Quebec; also for New Brunswick. Nova Scotia. Prince Edward and Cape Breton Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity, and heated by steam from the locomotive, thus greatly increasing the comfort and safety of travelers.

Comfortable and elegant buffet, sleeping and day cars are run on all through express trains The popular summer see bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are all along the Intercolonial, or are reached by that route.

Canadian-European Mail

and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain and the Continent can leave Montreal Tuesday morning and join cutward Mail Steamers at St. John on Wednesday, or they can leave Montreal on Wednesday morning and join cutward Mail Steamers at Halifax on Thursday.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces, Newfoundland and the West Indies; also for shipments of grain ard produce intended for the European markets, either by way of St. John or Halifax.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates, on application to rates, on application to

A. H. HARPIS,
General Traffic Manager,
Board of Trade Building, Montreal D. POTTINGER, General Manager.

Railway Office, Moneton, N. B., May 21, 1897

Royal Mail Steamships, Liverpool Calling at Rimouski and Moville. From St. John. From Halifax.

NUMIDIAN Feb. 13 Feb. 14
CALIFORNIAN Feb. 26 Feb. 27
From Portland to Liverpool Direct.

MONGOLIAN Jan. 28
LAURENTIAN Feb. 4
CASTILLIAN Mar. 4
Steamers from Portland do not call at Moville. MONGOLIAN Jan. 28
LAURENTIAN Feb. 4
CASTILLIAN Mar. 4
Steamers from Portland do not call at Moville.

From New York. STATE OF NEBRASKA...March 30, 12 noon RATES OF PASSAGE.

FATES OF PASSAGE.

First cabin, Parislan, Californian and Castillian, $55 and $70; Numidian and Mongolian, $50 and $60. Second cabin, including London, $35—all steamers, Steerage, Liverpool, London, Glasgow, Derry, Belfast and Queenstown. $22 50 and $23 50.

Glasgow-New York service—Cabin—$47 25 and upwards; return, $89 75 and upwards; second cabin, $32 50; return, $61 75; steerage, $23 50.

AGENTS—E. De la Hooke "Clock" corner.

will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50 cents and 31. For sale by W. T. Strong & Co.