SECOND IN TESTINGS BY MEDICAL BOARDS

Nearly Twenty-Nine Thousand Have Already Been Examined.

12,597 ARE IN CLASS "A"

Official Notice of First Call Will Be Issued on Saturday.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.-Official notice will e published throughout the U.S. on Saturday calling the attention of Canadians to the first call under the military service act. All British subjects, who have resided in Canada since the declaration of war and are of military age are liable to military service under the act, and the notice will call the attention of Canadians resident across the line to this provision.

London, Oct. 11.—The official state-ment issued by the British war office While the first class is not technically called up till the official proclamation is published throughout the Dominion on Saturday, medical boards are everywhere working to the limit. Up to the week ending October 6, there had been considerable activity during the night 28,609 men examined, of whom 12,597 were placed in medical category "A," men qualified from the medical point of view for general service overseas. Last week alone there were 15,951 examinations. The Toronto military district headed the list in number of examinations; London came second, with Montreal a close third.

Montreal Branch Manager Tells of American Meats Handled.

Bain, K.C., Government counsel, examined the witness, who said he had been Montreal manager for four years. They dealt mostly in American meats. "In 1916 what American product went to your plant compared with Canadian hogs? Would it be three-quarters?"

"I should think roughly twenty percent American. About 1,000,000 pounds of American sides had been handled in 1916 and about 90,000 Canadian hogs." witness said. -Photo by George Henry.

DR. A. B. PINGEL, who is one of the seven members of the London tribunals named by the joint selection committee at Ottawa, witness said.

"That would be 60 per cent Canadian and 40 per cent American?"

"Yes."

"Any change in the quantity in 1917?"

"Yes. More American hogs were sent us because we had more business with the British war office."

U. S. FOOD PROFITEERS BLOCKED; HOARDING AND SPECULATION TO BE PREVENTED BY GOVERNMENT

Washington, Oct. 11.—The machinery of the food administration was Washington, Oct. 11.—The machinery of the food administration was set in motion today to complete preparations for Government control by November 1 of twenty of America's principal foodstuffs. Authority to assume supervision over the leading articles of diet is vested in Herbert Hoover by a proclamation of President Wilson issued last night.

Under the terms of the order license will be required for the manufacture of the process of the facture, storage and distribution of flour, bread, meats, potatoes, sugar, milk, butter and dairy products, canned foods, rye, staple vegetables, and other stipulated commodities.

Farmers and small dealers are specially exempted. Decision to extend food control to the foodstuffs mentioned was founded on a determination to prevent unusual profits and eliminate and speculation.

U. S. Coal Operators Call Conference To Avert Fuel Famine

Will Discuss Plans To Co-operate With the American Government.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 11.—A general conference of the country's coal operators at Pittsburg October 23 has been called by J. D. A. Morrow, secretary of the National Coal Association, for the purpose, it was announced, of helping the fuel administration avert a coal famine.

"We want to insure," said the announcement, "the best work possible on the part of the coal-mining industry during the fall and winter months and throughout the war. The coal producers wish to co-operate with the fuel administration in the most effective manner possible to prevent any serious coal shortage.

THE WAR SITUATION

Extremely bad weather on the Flanders front is limiting the activities of the beiligerents. Notwithstanding the difficulties created by turning of the battleground into a mud field, however, the Allies have maintained themselves in the territory they gained in Tuesday's great drive. At only one point has their hold slipped at all, and that was in a particularly low sector along the British front, below Poelcapelle, where, as announced yesterday, their advance posts were drawn in a little.

Counters Held Off.

While the work of consolidation and preparation for the renewal of the offensive is proceeding, German counterattacks are being held off by the Entente guns. Last night the French fire.

Some attention is being attracted by the persistence of the German efforts to regain ground on the French front in the Verdun region. In this connection it is noted that recently one of the German military critics, in alluding to the situation in Flanders, spoke of the peril to which the Germane might be subjected on the Verdun front if the German military critics, in alluding to the situation in Flanders, spoke of the peril to which the Germane might be subjected on the Verdun front if the German lines in the Belgian area should give way.

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 11.—
The Chicago White Sox, thrown back by a stinging defeat at the hands of the New York Glants, attempted a counter-thrust today on the National League champions in the fourth game of the world's series at the Polo grounds battlefield. The Glants, inspired by a victory over the American Leaguers, planned to make it two straight today and even up the series. Probably 33,000 persons saw the fray!

"We needed that one to get us going," said Captain Charlie Herzog, "and more, too, the Sox are not so cocky now that they have had the harpoon thrown into them just when they felt so sure of a walkover."

"I told the boys when we were coming east that McGraw's men would play a harder game on the Polo grounds, and they would see a difference," said Jackson today.

The Giants' manager looked to Sallee or Schupp for the artillery work, with Perritt held in reserve. Manager Rowland indicated that either Russell or Faber would go on the firing line for the Chicago men.

A showery morning was followed by clearing weather. Some seven thousand fans had stretched in a solid line away from the turnstiles when they were opened at 11 o'clock. The playing meadows were fairly fast, the ground-keepers having blanketed the diamond and paths last night, which shielded them from the rain.

Applause greeted the Giants as they came on the field, Benton and Robertson, heroes of Wednesday's struggle, coming in for cheers Schupp, Sallee and Perritt took part in the practice.
