

CATTLE TRADE WAS SLOW AND EASIER

Calves Prices Broke Sharply, But Good Lambs Are Strong.

With a run of around 1400 cattle on the market yesterday, trade was inclined to ease off a bit, but not so much on the prices as on the fact that trade was very slow all day, and but for the fact that the commission houses conceded a little here and a little there, it would have been a pretty slow market. It looked as though the decline might run around from 5c to 20c, and 20c of Tuesday's prices on most classes of cattle would undoubtedly have broken sharply. As it was, it was a heavy run of calves, with a shade of slow and easier. But calves held about steady. We will probably have a few more calves on the market on sale today, the wind-up of the Easter week.

Sheep and Lambs

With around 250 sheep and lambs on the market yesterday, there was a fair demand for the good grade sheep and lambs, but the medium and common stuff was a little slow. There was a good demand for the light, grain-fed sheep, and the choice lambs sold from $14 to $15; choice sheep, $9 to $10; heavy lambs, $10 to $11; and heavy sheep, $11 to $12. There was a fair demand for the medium and common stuff, but it was a little slow. The market was a fair one, and the prices were about steady.

Calves

There was about 200 calves on sale and all classes sold, a good 10c to 15c from Tuesday's prices, which in turn were notably weaker than Monday's quotations. With a light run, the calf trade is very weak. Choice calves sold from $14.50 to $16 per cwt; medium, $11 to $12; common, $9 to $10; and heavy, $10 to $11. The market would not move, with quite a few calves left.

Burial of Robert Wilson.
No more articles, and the love and esteem in which the late Robert Wilson (whose death took place on Monday) was held, could be given than was evidenced at the last sad rites which took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of the late Mr. Wilson, at 210 George street, this city.

Mr. Wilson was hit by a day preceding his death, the news of which caused the most profound sorrow.

At the family residence yesterday the service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Scott, pastor of High Park Methodist Church, who referred in tender and sympathetic terms to the loss sustained by the family and community in the death of Mr. Wilson.

The pallbearers, all intimate friends of the late Mr. Wilson, were: Fred Mayhew, John Adams, Joseph Seagram, Carl Davis, Frank Verral and Robert Stewart.

The funeral service was especially beautiful.
