INTERNATIONAL TREATIES

Question No. 163—Mr. Forrestall:

1. How many international treaties, conventions, accords, etc., have been signed by Canada but have not been (a) ratified (b) implemented by either the (i) provinces (ii) Parliament of Canada or the executive of the government of Canada?
2. What treaties are involved and on what date did Canada sign them?
3. How many such arrangements has Canada ratified but have not implemented, if any?
4. What consideration is Canada giving to implementing the recommendation of the Special Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Commons on the Constitution of Canada (1972) that international treaties be ratified by Parliament rather than the Executive and the Crown?

Mr. Fernand E. Leblanc (Parliamentary Secretary to Secretary of State for External Affairs): In so far as the Department of External Affairs is concerned, the answer is as follows: An identical question was asked during the last session: No. 5,359. Our answer was given on July 13, 1976, see Hansard, page 15297. That answer remains the same.
