

Poetry

[FOR THE OBSERVER.]

The following lines are from a person, who has drunk deep of the cup of sorrow...

Farewell to my home, to my ever dear cottage. The pride of my youth, and the sweet hope of my age...

A Parody on Bruce's Address to his Soldiers.

Friends who never have been led, I made one last effort my peace to sustain...

VARIETIES.

A Whig administration has never been able to maintain itself in England. Will the present be the universal interrogatory...

The great Hebrew Synagogue in Duke's place, was on Monday night broken open and robbed by persons as yet unknown...

Railway.—The expense of making the new Railway from Liverpool to Manchester was £35,000 a mile...

Mental Anxiety.—After Sir F. Boddert's return for Middlesex, he received a bill from an attorney employed by his committee...

Tailors' M. P.—The Edinburgh corporation of tailors, in their petition for reform, put forward one argument, in a way judiciously keeping with the fractional characteristics of the craft...

Newspapers in Great Britain.—The total number of newspapers printed in Great Britain amounts to 295...

French papers.—The names and circulation of the Parisian journals are given as follows:—Constitutionnel, 14,476...

A Hint.—In the Chamber of Deputies, at Paris, on Thursday, the members having become very noisy, the President, after ringing his bell in vain for a considerable time...

Single Senators.—Duke Bernard, of Saxe-Meiningen, in his North American travels, relates that at Cahawba, the chief town of Alabama, he found the legislature in session...

Dark Eyes.—I never could fancy a dark eye in a woman, notwithstanding the praises lavished upon it by poets...

try independent of foreign nations for a supply of wood, a trade of vast magnitude has grown up...

On the motion of Mr. Weldon, the time for the Select Committee to commence their investigation, was fixed for Monday next...

Mr. Haywood presented a petition from 444 freeholders of the County of York, stating that G. F. Street Esq. was not duly elected at the last election...

Mr. End observed, that when he reflected on the many benefits of education, and on the present state of the country, he felt inclined to vote for the bill...

Mr. Barlow and Mr. S. Hamhart briefly stated the existing inconveniences in carrying on corporation suits in St. John, and the necessity of the bill...

Mr. Scott was not convinced of the benefit of the proposed alterations. As to teaching in a private house, he (Mr. S.) would only say, that that would not be the way to promote the education of the poor...

The Council and Assembly therefore most humbly implore Your Majesty to take the foregoing circumstances into your most gracious consideration, and earnestly pray that your Majesty's Government may not be induced to alter the present system of protection to the Colonial trade...

The Report was received by the House; after which, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

On the motion of Mr. Barlow, the House went into a Committee of the whole, on the Bill to prevent delay and inconvenience in the administration of justice in the city of St. John...

Mr. Barlow and Mr. S. Hamhart briefly stated the existing inconveniences in carrying on corporation suits in St. John, and the necessity of the bill...

Mr. Scott was not convinced of the benefit of the proposed alterations. As to teaching in a private house, he (Mr. S.) would only say, that that would not be the way to promote the education of the poor...

The Council and Assembly therefore most humbly implore Your Majesty to take the foregoing circumstances into your most gracious consideration, and earnestly pray that your Majesty's Government may not be induced to alter the present system of protection to the Colonial trade...

The Report was received by the House; after which, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

Mr. Partlow, on the motion of Mr. Partlow, the house resolved into a committee of the whole, in consideration of the address.

He considered the present licence fee far too much to be paid by a teacher of a semi-annual school. It should be divided or reduced. He thought more good would be derived from semi-annual schools in new counties, than would be derived from twice the money expended on annual schools...

Mr. S. Hamhart was for the most liberal manner of appropriating public money that can be. He thought the house ought never to withhold anything that could give aid to the education of the poor...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

He considered the present licence fee far too much to be paid by a teacher of a semi-annual school. It should be divided or reduced. He thought more good would be derived from semi-annual schools in new counties, than would be derived from twice the money expended on annual schools...

Mr. S. Hamhart was for the most liberal manner of appropriating public money that can be. He thought the house ought never to withhold anything that could give aid to the education of the poor...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

Mr. Chandler observed that as a school trustee himself, he had frequently boasted of the act now proposed to expire; he had frequently found it very pleasing to contemplate its operation...

NOTICE. Public in general, that he has purchased the improvements belonging to the BREWERY in Carmarthen-street, Lower Cove, formerly belonging to Mr. JOHN MONAHAN, where he offers for sale the following BEERS:—BURTON ALE, MILD Do. PORTER and TABLE BEER. YEAST, GRAINS, and VINEGAR.

PUNS and Hints. Extra Proof JAMAICA SPIRITS, SUGAR in Barrels, COFFEE; Boxes ARROW ROOT, Do. Superior Spanish SEGARS, A few HIDES; and 78 Logs MAHOAGANY. All which will be sold Cheap from the Wharf. E. DEW. RATCHFORD.

WILLIAM ROBERTSON, TAILOR. RESPECTFULLY returns thanks for the very liberal encouragement he has received since his commencement of business in this City, and begs to intimate to his Customers and the Public generally, that he will continue the above Business, in its several branches, at his shop, North West corner of the Market-square, adjoining the Drug and Medicine Store of Mr. W. O. SMITH, and hopes, by strict attention and a disposition to please, to merit a continuation of their patronage.

NATHAN GODSOL. All Persons having any legal demands against the Estate of WILLIAM WATERS, late of this City, deceased, are requested to render the same, duly attested, to the undersigned, within Twelve Months from the date hereof; And all those indebted to said Estate, are desired to make immediate payment to SARAH WATERS, Sole Administratrix. St. John, November 23, 1830.

ASSIZE OF BREAD. Published February 1, 1831. THE Sixpenny Wheaten Loaf of Superior Flour, in weight, - - - - - 2 4 The Sixpenny Rye - - - - - 2 4 And Sailing, Three-penny, and Penny-half-penny Loaves in the same proportion. LAUCHLAN DONALDSON, Mayor.