ST. JOHN MEN IN CASUALTY LIST

(Continued from page 1) Private Joyce went overseas as a member of the 148th Battalion, and soon after his arrival in England he was sent to France as a member of a draft from that unit for a Canadian Mounted Rifle unit. Michael Joyce, now in France, a member of a local infantry battalion is a brother, and Private Vincent Joyce, who recently arrived home from the front is another. Private Vincent Joyce was severely wounded in the leg and as a result of his wounds he had to have his leg amputated.

Word was received this morning by Mrs. Jennie Killorn of 20 Erin street, that her son, Private Matthew Gerard Killorn, was at No. 14 General Hospital, Wimereux, suffering from contusion of the buttock. Private Killorn went overseas with the 148th Battalion and was transferred to another regiment. He has been one year in the trenches and only on last Saturday the family received a letter from him stating that he expected to go up the line again. His brother, James Leo, is home after service in France with the original 29th.

Lieut. N. C. Christie

Warren Christie, of Amherst, has word from Ottawa that Lieut. Norman Cahill Christie is officially reported killed in action on October 28.

Lieut. Christie was the youngest son of the late Charles Christie, and was born in Amherst on Feb. 19, 1889. He married Miss Ethel Chase, of Minneapolis, who is now there with her parents. Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother, one sister, Emily, and one brother, Warren, in Amherst. He was a member of The Christie Trunk and Bag Company.

On Oct. 18, 1915, he enlisted as a private with the 88th Nova Scotia Highlanders in the rank of Corporal. Because of his excellent work he was recommended to take an officer's course. He received his commission in Feb. 1916, with the 188th. He spent some time at River Hebert training the enlisted men in that vicinity.

He was trained at Halifax, Aldershot, N. S., and Whiteby, England. On the breaking up of the 188th he was transferred to the 2nd Battalion, and later assigned to the Royal Flying Corps, and for three months was flying in France. On medical advice he ceased flying and was transferred to the 85th.

In talking of his service with his brother, Warren, he said, "Of course, I must go, and I feel that I can go easier than you."

He was a member of the First Battalion in Amherst, and of Alexander, Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and the Amherst Curling Club. As a business man he was highly esteemed, and his sudden coming as a shock to his host of admiring friends.
