EIGHT THOUSAND FREED FROM SCHOOL CARES

Holiday Time Tomorrow—High School Graduating Class Largest in School History—Marjorie Fitzpatrick Leads

Eight thousand happy Canadian children will be freed from their school cares and spring terms of study in the public schools tomorrow afternoon, when they will be free to enjoy the cherished days of vacation. Special exercises of an appropriate nature, generously interspersed with musical and speaking selections indicating the patriotic spirit of the hour, will be gone through with in the school buildings throughout the city, amid profuse decorations of summer blossoms and bunting and doubling in the presence of many interested parents and officials.

LARGEST GRADUATING CLASS IN HISTORY

Chief among the closing exercises tomorrow will be those of the High School, Union street, where the principal, W. J. S. Miles, will graduate the largest class in the history of the city—a highly creditable achievement. A deeper appreciation of the value of grades and certificates on the part of scholars and a growing ambition on the part of parents to have their boys and girls finish their public school course properly, are advanced as among reasons for this large class. In the graduating class will be forty-eight girls and thirty-two boys, a total of eighty.

The leader of this record class is Miss Marjorie Fitzpatrick of West End, daughter of Capt. David Fitzpatrick. Miss Fitzpatrick tops the list with the remarkably fine standing of 90.84, a mark equalled only three times in twelve years. Edith Trentowsky comes second in the list of honors with 89.76, a close second indeed. The honor list also includes the following:

Sidney Murray, Gladys Burritt, Grace Slipp, Francis Wetmore, Marguerite Barrett, Kenneth Sullivan, Marjorie Robertson, Marjelle Owen, Aubrey Clark, Kenneth Naves, Kathleen Blizard, Marion Smith, Zella Parlee.

The graduation class complete in the alphabetical order of names is as follows:

FORMER REPORTER HERE DIES IN THE WEST

Harry M. Leonard Passes Away in British Columbia

News of the death of Harry M. Leonard, son of the late Edward Leonard, for years a valued member of the St. John fire department, reaches the city by letter. He died at Cabrobo Bay, Victoria, B. C.

Mr. Leonard succumbed to a brief illness of cerebral hemorrhage, although previous to this, a peculiar ailment had not been in his usual state of good health for several months. He was thirty-seven years of age and leaves besides his aged mother, his wife and two small children, a son aged four and daughter two years. Mrs. Leonard, Jr., will be kindly remembered here as Mabel Andrews of North End, and the wife of James Andrews, carriage builder.

Before leaving for the Pacific Coast about eight years ago, Harry Leonard was engaged in newspaper work in this city and was a young man of excellent habits, many bearing and ability along the lines of his chosen work. He is most respectfully remembered by his fellow parishioners here. In Victoria he was alert and progressive and had provided a cosy home for his little family and mother. Therefore his death at such an early age is especially sad, and the sympathy of a large number of St. John people will undoubtedly go out towards Mrs. Andrews and her saddened household.

GROOM IS ST. JOHN MAN

In St. Bernard's church, Moncton, on Wednesday, with nuptial mass, Rev. P. Savage united in marriage Miss Lena LeBlanc, to Joseph Connell, of St. John. The bride was given away by her brother, "Pat," friend of the C. G. H., while Foster Perry supported the groom. The bride wore white silk tulle, with veil, trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Following the ceremony they went to the bride's home, where luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Connell left on the C. P. R. for Sydney, returning via the Annapolis Valley. The groom is a C. P. R. dispatcher. The wedding gifts were valuable and numerous, including a substantial check from her brother. The bride's traveling suit was a handsome blue serge, with hat to match.

OFF FOR REPAIRS

The steamer Aramoor, which runs between Boston and Yarmouth, and which forms an important link in the only remaining water connection between St. John and the states, has been taken off the route and laid up for repairs. It is expected that she will be able to resume the service early in July.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED, FIRST WORD OF IT IS FROM HIMSELF

Gunner W. H. Howard's Letter Brings the News to Parents

Although seriously wounded, Gunner William Henry Howard was able to write a few lines to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Howard of 182 Broad street, telling of his condition. This was the first news of the casualty that his parents had received and it came as a great shock to them when his eagerly welcomed letter was received.

Inquiries for further particulars have been made through the records office in Ottawa but so far the family have been able to secure no additional information. Since going overseas, Gunner Howard has been inclined to make light of his troubles in his letters home and so the fact that he writes that he is "quite seriously wounded" in the leg and back have caused his relatives great apprehension. He suffered from shell shock just before Christmas in 1916 and did not get back to France until last July. Before enlisting in a siege battery with which he went over, Gunner Howard was employed with Harry Weatherhead, plumber.

PTE. F. H. SAUNDERS DIES OF WOUNDS

Mrs. E. S. Russell of 28 Dorchester street has received word that her nephew, Pte. Frederick H. Saunders of Cambridge, Mass., was severely wounded on June 2 and died of his wounds on June 18 in France.

He went overseas with an American unit. Private Saunders visited St. John every summer and had many friends here who will learn with sincere regret of his death.

WOOD-WHITE

William L. Wood of this city and Miss Emma E. White of Whitehead, Kings county, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the groom, 266 1/2 Pitt street, in the presence of a few friends of the contracting parties. Rev. R. P. McKim was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Wood is a returned soldier. He went overseas with the 1st Field Ambulance in the First Contingent, was wounded and returned home in October of last year. The bride received many gifts, and the good wishes of many friends attend her and her husband. They will reside at 266 1/2 Pitt street.
