Rev. about equal. The spirit of friendly rivalry which exists between the two counties has been productive of much good. Both the secretaries, C. W. Farham and Miss A. V. Calder, received hearty applause upon giving their reports.

A strong spirit of enthusiasm is upon the convention and it promises to be very successful. The organization of one day class was demonstrated at the evening session.

Rev. Mr. Ganong acted as president, and with the assistance of Rev. W. C. Ross and Robert Reid, showed the plan for formation and carrying on of the important branch of Sunday school work.

RHEUMATISM CURED

Zam-Buk Will Give You Relief

When you have any deep-seated pain in the joints, the back, the wrists or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it in. The penetrating power of this "embrocation balm" is very great. It kills pain and removes stiffness. Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 23 Gay Avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one ointment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt any of the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. My joints seemed to penetrate to the very marrow of the bones, driving them completely out, and I am now quite cured."

So many of the ordinary embrocations and liniments are imperfectly prepared and not sufficiently rubbed to penetrate even the skin, much less the underlying muscles. Zam-Buk is totally different. Zam-Buk is of refined and its essences and juices are so concentrated, that when rubbed into the muscles for rheumatism, sciatica, sprain, etc. its effect is very quickly felt.

If rubbed on the chest or between the shoulders in cases of bad cold in the chest, Zam-Buk will relieve you from its use as an embrocation. Zam-Buk will be found a cure for all ordinary forms of skin diseases at 25c or most free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

S. S. CONVENTION REPORTS CHEERING

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 12 (Special)—At this afternoon's session of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association the reports from the different departments were given. The home department, the temperance and the Bible reading, all reported through their different superintendents. All the reports were of a very encouraging nature and were received with much applause by the convention.

The reports from the different counties were worthy of special note. The first named claimed to be a banner county, but Carleton surpassed it only in the amount collected for the advancement of the work. In the number of schools reported, the number kept open, and also in the number contributing, both counties
