LABOR VICTORY IN SANFRANCISCO We take the following from the column of The (Chicago) Publie, of May 3rd:

The San Francisco street car strike came to an end on the 26th, The Business Committee meets first the victory being with the strikers. The tie-up was complete. Three the sand men were out, and all San Francisco was obliged to walk. The difficulty originated in an effort companies to crush a union. When the mayor had refused to allow either side to arm, the companies consented on the 22nd to go into conference with their employes. Four days later the settlement was effected."
Commenting on the above, The Pub-
