The above is an extract from a statement made by W. A. Anstie, secretary of the Mountain Lumbermen's association, who returned to the oligination. sociation, who returned to the city from a two weeks' trip to the coast and intermediate points during which time he visited a number of the mills. "Lumbermen generally are feeling very optimistic regarding the outlook for next season's business," continued FOR CALIFORNIA Mr. Anstie, "as the excellent crop returns throughout the prairie provinces cannot fail to have the effect of in-creasing the demand for British Columbia lumber, which means a renewal of activity amongst the mills.' Concluding Mr. Anstie was asked regarding the car supply, and stated that he found it gratifying to be able to say that the lumber manufacturers of the interior have had their requirements very well attended to during the past season by the C.P.R., which airship and aeroplane factory will be is evidence that the railway company empleted here in the near future.
