If You Have Houses To Let Advertise in Progr

PROGRESS.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1890.

VOL. II., NO. 96.

the more bumptious aldermen in due sub-

Mr. Chesley is also a good looking man, russels Patterns. any size. 1g Stock

ROOMS.

TS, with 5-8 Borders

NNER. HOMES!

2'S

890.

TUDE OF FAULTS.

appier for living in harmony-f your home neat and handsome, 175 Charlotte street. He will do dy with the painter's skill and t least, in your house. Give it STAPLES makes a specialty of to Moncton, to visit her sister, sussex, was in Petitcodiac or n, of British Columbia, was Halifax Banking company, is with Mr. Forbes-ent Sunday in St. John, with Jones. CHERUES.

USSEX. le in Sussex by R. D. Boal and

Mrs. Frank Theal returned ended visit to Shediac. he illness of the rector, Rev. lesday services were not held tt is recovering slowly from spent Sunday in Sussex. ty, of St. John, have been ith Mrs. D. M. Fairweather, Cowie went to Dorchest d is confined to his how te and his brother spent Sun raska, brother of Rev. Mr arrived here yesterday, and had been at his home in a grippe, has returned to s visiting at her uncle's, Mr.

CASTLE.

Aiken entertained some of evening. We are always the Manse. 1 arrived home last week. thas left us again, but only ess has taken him to Boston. home, having spent a few of Boston has been in town

I. Walliston have fully re-out again. ad her little daughter are on, formerly of Chatham, friends and relatives here, t for her home in the West TACITA. TACITA. edding took place in St. a, last week, when Miss of Boston, but who has are past with her cousin, son, was married to Mr. St. John. The ceremony le's cousin, Rev. N. Power. St. Fathers Dickson, be Bev. Fathers Dickson, he bride received a number ability.

MR. CHESLEY IS WILLING as against the Law-Busby combination.

IN THE FIELD AS A CANDIDATE FOR THE MAYOR'S OFFICE. His Good Points and These of Mayor Lock Situation in Prince and Victoria Wards Fienty of Time For Mayor Lock Situation in Prince and Victoria Wards Fienty of Time For Mayor Lock Situation in Prince and Victoria Wards Fienty of Time For Mayor Lock Situation in Prince and Victoria Wards Fienty of Time For Mayor Fan Yet. It has been a dull week in civic politics. Candidates have been scarce and quota-tions few. It is possible that business will improve when the weather gets more as fair chances for a second term. "The, "YE DEVOUE WIDOWS' HOUSES."

they meet you on the street; others only know you once in a while. Some are past of the aldermen as foils to set off his looks, how you once in a while. Some are past patriarchs of temperance societies; others are fast patrons of gin mills. Some are very pious; others very wicked. As a body, they resemble the collection in the sheet let down unto Peter, wherein were all manner of creatures, clean and unand any fault that has been found with him has been that he has failed to keep some of and would appear to advantage in the big arm chair, provided he assumed the boiled shirt and white choker as Mayor Lockhart There is one lawyer who is neither very old nor very wicked, as the world views does when presiding at the board. Mr. Chesley has undeniably a thorough know-ledge of civic affairs. The chief point for old nor very wicked, as the world views things. He is, indeed, rather pious than otherwise, and combines with a studious temperament a good deal of religious zeal. Perhaps it was his reputation in this re-spect that induced a widow to trust him with a claim against the city of St. John, He was finally caught by the Montreal debate is whether he could do any better than Mayor Lockhart has done in keeping his associates in order. His friends say that he would, and that with his knowledge of the rules of debate he would make a many moons ago. The claim was for damages caused by a good presiding officer. It is claimed that he would not, for instance, hav-ing made a decision, permit an irre-gular and unseemly debate calling that decision in question. Against this sup-position is his record as mayor of Portlandi which had the most disorderly council in Canada, if not in the world. It will be re-membered that when PROGRESS exposed good presiding officer. It is claimed that he would not, for instance, havjobbery which prevailed, or that he was asked for his bill, and as the woman jobbery which prevailed, or that he was unable to prevent it. And it had faith enough in his integrity to accept the latter supposition. As a candidate for mayor of St. John, therefore, it lies with him to ex-the idea of such a sum and insisted that it be made larger. The doctor, finding that the idea of such a sum and insisted that it be made larger. The doctor, finding that the money was to come out of the city, they were in Portland, for that the conthen put in a bill for $40.

dition of affairs was very bad indeed, cannot be denied by any same or honest man. So bad were they, indeed, that in con-In due time the case was settled for $140 and the money was paid to the attorney When the doctor, after a time, began t sequence of the exposures made by PRo-GRESS, the people of Portland voted for enquire for the $40 which he supposed was due him, the lawyer told him that he would have to look to the widow for his pay. The doctor, knowing that the lawyer had union to escape the existing evils. The act would not have been carried had the true style of affairs not been so well the money, refused to do this and threatened known. It is, however, possible that Mr. Chesley can give a satisfactory explanation of his with the original bill for $15, which he finally consented to course, and if so, there is no reason why accept, with the understanding that the he should not poll an excellent vote. He balance of $25 was to go to the widow. has many friends, and has undoubted The widow has been less fortunate. She had on a previous occasion given the attorney a bill of $10 to collect, and subwill not be a candidate in Queen's ward, in which event Mr. W. Watson Allen will

When a Thief is to be Caught the Polico-men Should Have a Chance to Catch Him -Some of Them Might be Bright Enough to Recognize Him If They Met Him.

Please of Time For Maro Fan Yet. It has been a dull week in civic politics. Candidates have been scarce and quota-tions few. It is possible that business will improve when the old lots will be alcared out at a sacrifice. The most important item is the adverts of 20 y's ward, but it has not materialized as the position of man comes forward it is believed that he description of him, and a fac-similie of his handwriting. A very plain scar on his forehead made him particularly easy to identify, and yet for ten days he sojourned at one of the hotels, walked the streets, made purchases at the leading stores and apparently took no pains to conceal himself. The reason for this was that has fair chances for a second term. The idea, which some consider unwritten law. that a mayor who behaves himself should have a second year, is in his favor. Mr. Lockhart has undoubtedly behaved himself, and while he has done nothing to make his name or that of the city immortal, he has taken no course to provoke hostility from those who have been his supporters in the past. He which the chief is remarkable, been kept as if it were a great state secret, and its contents divulged only to two inspectors and the detective. None of these gentle-men were able to find Walton, though it is man, who did not show any extraordinary ability in finding him, simply because he had secured his address from his pals.

Canada, in not in the word. It will be re-membered that when PROGRESS exposed the state of affairs, it did not direct its fire at the mayor, but at the body over which he presided. It had to take the view either that he sympathized with the disorder and jobbery which prevailed, or that he was and file might have succeeded in "landing the fish." It is more than probable that it would have occurred to some one of them adopting other precautionary which do not seem to have suggested themselves to the quartette who were in the secret. It is true that in such case the honor and the reward might have gone to some one who was not a detective, but while this might have been a misfortune from an official point of view, it cannot be denied

There may be men on the St. John force who are quite as intelligent, competent and faithful, as those who are in the inner and Does any one imagine that had every man on the force had the facilities for inrobably run. In Prince ward no new men have come o the front, though it is not because there a lack of good material. The trouble is the force, who knew nothing of the case, his intentions. He went to Philadelphia, had a long talk with the fugitive one day, and might have recognized him if he had as himself, took a six mouths' course, each known such a man was wanted. He might living on the not extravagant sum of six not have done so it is true. One of the cents a day. That amount purchased quartette who did know all about the case enough bread and milk to suffice for their

GIVE THE MEN A CHANCE through sheer terror when they heard he was after them, that his friends were really CHARGED WITH A CRIME. and the police description, which stated that she had a "slouchy gait," was a gross A BRIGHT WOMAN WHO IS NOW AN eastern train to follow up a clue somewhere else. Before leaving, he presented the chief with a fancy pin and the detective The Serious Accusation Brought Against Mrs. Georgias Weeks, of Charlottelown-Her Trip to St. John-How She Looks, Talks, Acts and Meets the Charge.

with a pair of patent handcuffs.

" HEAVENLY LOVE."

A Picture that Should Do Much to Educate the Popular Taste. Everybody who has a taste for the beautiful in art should see "Heavenly Love," men were able to an introduc-reported that one of them had an introduc-tion to him under his alias of "Harry Simpson," and did not recognize him. They took the plan of watching the rail-way trains, and finally formed the theory that Walton, if he had been here at all, a d crossed the bay in the Monticello. and sol art present the subject has already appeared in Pho-GRESS, but no idea of the picture can be gained by mere description. It may be said, briefly, that it is admirable from every point of view, with the pos-suble exception that it is a little crowded, and should have had a larger stances, was preparing West Indies. He was finally caught by the Montreal man, who did not show any extraordinary canvass. As' regards correctness of drawing, color and perspective, it is simply admirable. The figures are most natural, and that of the dreaming artist in particular seems to actually lean away from the spectator as if it were a real figure in the foreground. There is nothing artificial about its pose, and it does not have that flat look so often apparent even in pictures of merit. It is only after repeated study, indeed, that one observes with what to many of the readers of PROGRESS. It fidelity all the details of the picture are worked out. Nothing is omitted that can James M. Sutherland, a Charlottetown special attention, and tells at once of a her. The ground for the enarge is that the next St. John amateurs. PROGRESS un-master hand. In the representation of the suspicion having been aroused by the pro-tracted and mysterious illness of Mrs. Sutherland, an analysis was made of not get an exceedingly cordial reception. that it was worth while making enquiries has been most successfully attained. One whiskey, etc., of which she had partaken. and then at certain hotels, and of can almost imagine that he sees the wind and traces of the poison found. The concan almost imagine that he sees the wind gently stirring the drapery, and that its shade lightens or darkens as it waves. has not yet been made by any of the evi-

The fidelity of art to nature throughout dence produced at the examination now in cannot fail to impress the most ordinary observer. The impression it finally leaves On the night of Saturday, the 1st of might have been a misiortune from an "Earthly Love, "is not there as wen, and that the interests of justice would have been been a bit of seeing really meritorious works. The register, but as ladies frequently do, gave who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper, and I will send a who will take your paper.

han ever in the future. Mr. E. Scholl, son of the artist, who is faithful, as those who are in the inner and confidential circles. There is no reason why information of men who are "wanted" should not be given to them. If they can-not be trusted they are not fit to be on the natural and the true in art. During the passage she got very wet, as Too Extravagant by Half.

If You Want Engraving Done GET FIGURES FROM "PROGRESS" ENGRAVING BUREAU. Promptness, Satisfaction and

PRICE THREE CENTS.

OBJECT OF INTEREST

savor of opinion is out of place in public an idea of the woman as she appears, or did appear before the shadow of this trouble

The story of Mrs. Weeks is well known fell upon her.

and unnecessary libel. She has reser it by some peculiarly sarcastic remarks on the subject.

Sarcasm, indeed, is one of her strong points, and she has no hesitation in ex-pressing her opinion of those who have been instrumental in procuring her arrest. The constable who followed her and the her and the St. John officers who assisted him have no reason to feel flattered when they remember some of the clear cut phrases used by her in referring to their obnoxious r

From this it will be inferred that she is in 'no wise alarmed or dejected by the situation in which she finds herself. She has given no indication of either guilt or fear. She simply asserts that she is innocent, and by implication bids the authorities go ahead until they come to the end of their tether. Her triends, also, have confidence that she has nothing to fear from the results. the first steps to unwind the tangled skein. Until they have finished, whatever would The case is a remarkable one, and she is a remarkable wor print. All that PROGRESS seeks is to give

TALK ON THE STREET.

The Imperial Trust company will remove to Bayard's building this spring. PROGRESS understands that this concern has made an exceedingly favorable impression, and has atready worked up a good business.

The retirement of Mr. McKay from the firm of Huzter, Hamilton & McKay was a surprise to everybody. The business will be conducted as usual by Messrs. Hunter & Hamilton. Mr. McKay who intended starting for himself, in the store now oc cupied by Messrs. Dowling Bros., has, PROGRESS understands, abandoned the idea for the present.

Messrs. Ward C. Pitfield and W. J. Fraser are among those who visited Upper Canada this week in search of the cream of the market for the maritime trade.

They Won't Go Again.

The Out at Sea company did not create a very favorable impression in the capital ; in fact, it was quite the reverse. The company lacked strength from the start, and when Mr. and Mrs. Mason found it convenient to be absent, the talent of the organization was considerably demoralized. There is no excuse for the foisting of such worked out. Nothing is omitted that can tend to completeness. The coloring of the picture attracts special attention, and tells at once of a master hand. In the resummentation of the second of a special attention of the second of the second

The "Progress" Clubs are Booming.

Every day there is fresh evidence that the club has taken hold of the young friends of PROGRESS. They have no difficulty in observer. The impression it finally leaves is one of regret that the companion picture, February, a very tired woman arrived at with $3.00 they earn $1.00. A Westmor-"Earthly Love," is not there as well, and that the Hotel Dufferin in this city and went land boy writes Thursday and sends $3.00 of seeing really meritorious works. The register, but as ladies requently do, gave her name, and stated that she was Mrs. their names in a few days." There are plenty of boys who can earn money this the latter place at two o'clock in the morn-

The Boston Buds Went Back.

A good story is told of a Fredericton youth who, enamoured with a celestial maiden, resolved to give her Boston roses for a recent fashionable event in that city. The roses were ordered and came—C. O. D.—and the bill was sixteen dollars. This

Bathurst at A. C. Smith

URST.

of establishing a branch of it association in our town, age mea seem to be taking istor, and will doubtless with a set of the set of the output of the set of the congenial company, good beingthy programme of means least, a hout and indness and sector faire uch a home, the party a pleasant. Duteal, was in town on to us that Miss Lizzie s not deprive us of seeing se in the post office. as returned from a few ne in Caraquet. Vife were in town a few Tom BROWN.

RGE.

he entertainment given k's church, on Monday cess; the music and re-ed. The "lusclouts bi-mber present.-, and Mrs. Jas. O'Neill their home in honor of their wedding day.-a con for their home or a confor their home, a confor their home, a confor their home, a confort day Mr. A. groom.-ry dangerously ill with

James Milledge, of St. St. Mark's church. ector, was here yester-GBANITE.

WANTED.

BES AND COMMER-n interested in real es-lding crected especially nests for commercial deneet with sufficient uch expenditures. An those interested—more deness prombly.

In Prince ward no new men have come to the front, though it is not because there is a lack of good material. The trouble is that the men who ought to be candidates are not the class of men who will push it is to the transfer to source a It is no wonder that lawyers get rich nomination. It is generally agreed that nowadays without a big practice. Mr. Jonas Howe would make an excellent representative, but as he is a busy man he The Thaw Stopped It. uld probably refuse to offer. There are There was a good prospect of war betwo admirable men, however, who doubttween the city and the street railway comless would consent to serve if they felt pany, last Tuesday. The former had care that the people wanted them. They are Messrs. James McNichol and James fully removed the snow from its Prince William street track, and piled it up on Reynolds, neither of whom are politicians, each side. When the corporation men but both of whom are of the class of which came along they quite as carefully removed good aldermen are made. They are careit from the street, and put it back on th ful men, who would consult the city's intertrack again. By the time the company ests in preference to their own, and their was ready to retaliate the thaw had interrecords as good citizens cannot be ques-tioned. Neither of them, however, would fered, and removed so much of the cause of contention that it was not worth fighting canvass, or attempt to curry favor by tricks. The only way that they could be brought forward would be by a requisition, about. Hostilities may be renewed with the next big snow storm. or better, by a call from a convention of A Word to "Progress" Agents. the rate-payers. If they would not consent The very frequent complaints from out-side places that no PROGRESS can be to serve, and PROGRESS has not consulted them on that point, some other equally obtai reputable men could be chosen. Prince ward should wake up to its opportunities. It is announced that Alderman Law and Busby will run together in Victoria ward. That is, they will start together, but if Ald. Law is re-elected they are not likely to be together at the finish. Mr. John J.

It is believed that Mr. C. E. MacMichael

The Boys Will be There

Forrest is to the front and from what PRo-Forrest is to the front and from what PRO-GRESS can learn this week is likely to be elected. If the ratepayers will bring for-ward another may the island to be the botel, tonight. Good luck to it ward another man, the ticket can be elected | and the cause of labor.

whose tell-tale forehead scar was either plainly visible or covered by a cock of the

It is possible that every man on the force might have been as unsuspicious as the officer in question. It is also possible that every man might not have been. Which reminds PROGRESS of a story that is current this week.

It is said that several years ago, but not so very many, a certain chief of police in a certain city received a circular descriptive of a notorious criminal who was wanted in the United States. Shortly after this a man arrived in the city, put up at a leading ed Saturday evenings, lead to the hotel, and made haste to see the chief to supposition that the agents of PROGRESS in some localities are not ordering enough papers for the demand. There is nothing like selling out all the papers, but do not introduced him to the city detective. The introduced him to the city detective. The three became very good friends, and day after day Old Rattlesnake visited headquarters to learn if there was anything new about s said to have smoked sundry cigars with wants, and the man who tells the story the genial stranger, whose writing was to says that they actually got fat on it. The to be seen on two hotel registers, and only piece of extravagance of which the student appears to have been guilty was in buying a ticket from St. John to Philadelhat which was enough of itself to excite phia. He should have walked there and saved his money.

The Design Is Good

The design for the cover of the prize list of the October exhibition, executed by the Maritime Lithograph company is a hand-some piece of work. The title of "Canada's International Fair" is a taking one, and shows that St. John does not propose to be second to any city of the Domin where exhibitions are concerned.

Plenty of Smart Girls.

A city insurance agent recently advertised for a young woman as copyist in his office, There were 47 applications in the next two days, and if the advertisement had not been stopped there would have been a good many more.

Her Three Terrors.

There is said to be a courageous you the man of whom he was in search. He things. One is a thunder-storm, another is a June bug, and the third is the rector of the church she attends. lady in St. John who is afraid of only three

The midnight train of the following Tuesday brought another person from Charlotte-town. It was Constable Cameron, with a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Weeks on the charge already quoted. Previous to his arrival, she had expressed her intention of returning to Charlottetown as soon as her health would permit.

did also her luggage, and she was still wet

For a time it looked as though the constable's errand would be a fruitless one. She seemed dangerously ill. It was not until the 17th that she was able to leave in and each province will have a league of its

The portrait of Mrs. Weeks, given herewith, is a good one, but does not flatter her. She is better looking than it makes & Sons, of Montreal. her appear. If it be allowable to state a lady's age, it may be added that she is about 28, that she has been a widow several years, and that her husband died leaving her with two children, who are still living. His name was R. T. Weeks, and he was the law partner of Mr. Suther-

Mrs. Weeks is a very attractive woman, who would be an ornament to any society. Of fair complexion, with blue eyes, her face is one which has marked character and individuality in every feature. There is any man would be apt to admire when he saw it, and remember it after it had passed Everybody is Glad.

The belief, as PROGRESS goes to press, that Judge Fraser will recover from his dangerous illness, causes a good deal of sincere pleasure. No kinder hearted or more upright judge has ever sat upon the bench, and the people as well as the pro-fession could ill afford to lose him.

No Maritime League.

The effort to form a Maritime Provinown. At the close of the season the best men in each province will play off for the

Not the Chairman.

In the haste of writing last week an unintentional injustice was done Ald. Busby in stating that he was once chairman of the Portland fire committee. He was simply a private member of the committee who allowed the other members to run things as they pleased.

Sample Them Today.

The delicious Franco-American soups are served up in style at George Robertnothing weak about it, and yet there is something very pleasing. It is a face which as their name.

Will See Him Later.

Hon. Thyckke Fogge, an old acquaintas stately, without being either over or PROGRESS office the other day, and will be undersized. She is of graceful carriage, on hand next week.

from his sight.

