Mrs. Smith and Mrs. McLeod, of St. John are the guests of their mother Mrs. Gordon. The apron sale given in Prince street hall last Friday evening turned out quite a success. The quiet has been rather acceptable, after so much gaiety, yet it has not been dull, for there have been several whist parties among those who are devoted to the game. Mrs. C. W. Young on Saturday invited several of her lady friends to tea with her and included in her invitation, the very young children of each lady. It was a very happy gathering, the beauty and cus- tomary quiet speeches and songs of the little ones making amusement for all. A party of young ladies and gentlemen went to Moore's Mills on Monday evening and enjoyed a dance and supper there. Mrs. Fredric Hiss gave a very pleasant party on Thursday evening for the entertainment of her son, Master Willie Ham, and his friends. The supper will be served at the Agave House, and those who care for snow-shoeing, will start from there. The carnival at the St. Croix skating rink was the last of the season. It was quite as successful as any previous one. The prizes were awarded to Miss Beale Blyth, as "Mexican Hunter," and Miss Jean Sprague, as "White Wings." The children's prize was given to Miss Grace Deland, who looked very quaint and pretty "as Mary with her little lamb." The gentlemen's prizes were given to Mr. Fred Holm as "St. Stephen shoe factory," and to Mr. Walter Stevens, "An English Green," and to Al- bert McMillan, as "Drummer Boy." Honora- tion was made of the "Champion backward skater," "Pansy Blossom," "Moonlight," "Mother Goose," and "The Snow Man." Messrs. C. C. Whitlock, H. M. Webber and W. W. Brown were the judges. Whist began at nine o'clock and continued until twelve. The prizes were then awarded. The first prize, a pretty silver ring stand, was given to Mrs. Henry Marchie, and her partner, Mr. George Eaton, became the happy pos- sessor of a silver bill fan. As a consolation prize, a beautiful bouquet of roses was presented to Mrs. Duncan Myhrall, and to Dr. Moore a lovely rose bud. The "body" prizes fell to the lot of Mrs. Ralph Wood and Mr. Harry Petrick, and were a handsome china fruit plate and a morocco bill book. Supper was then announced. Mr. and Mrs. John Prescott, expect to leave this week, for a visit to New York and Washington cities. Mr. C. H. Clarke, arrived home on Saturday, after six or eight weeks spent among the West Indies. MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Mon- ction Book Store, main street, A. H. Jones, and by J. A. McLeod.] MARCH 15.—Miss Maggie McKean returned last week from her long visit to New York, where she has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Williamson. Boddome have moved into their new residence, the house of the late Judge Boddome, which has been purchased by the Bank of Montreal, as a residence for the manager. It has been renovated and refitted in every respect for the new tenants, and is one of the most desirable prop- erties in town. Mr. and Mrs. Boddome are to be congratulated upon their good fortune in securing such a pleasant home in a town where large family residences are not very easy to obtain just when they are wanted. A meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. hall, Thursday evening, for the purpose of organizing a choral society, for the city. The meeting was well attended, numerous members of the different church choirs, and others interested in musical affairs be- ing present. Dr. G. T. Smith was elected chairman, and Mr. A. M. MacKay, secretary. Mr. W. Harry Watts, organist of the Central Methodist church, who is the promoter of the society, explained the objects of the meeting, and asked the hearty co- operation of all those present in the work. The audience seemed unanimous in their opinion of the excellence of such a society, which was at once formed, and successfully launched upon its career, [under the highly original and suggestive title of the "Moncton Choral Society." I know of no more admirable and striking evidence of the Moncton citizen's faith in the future of his city, than his extraordinary love for its name. Why was the society not called after its energetic originator and known to all people as the "Watts Choral Society." The officers chosen to look after the interests of the society were: Mr. H. Watts, President, Rev. E. B. Hooper Vice- President, A. M. MacKay, Secretary, Mr. G. W. Daniel, Treasurer, Mr. J. W. Hogg, Librarian, Mrs. Dunn, Miss Crosskill and Miss McCarthy, Accom- panists. After a vote of thanks had been tendered Mr. Watts for his energy, and interest, and some music, the meeting broke up. Mrs. Alexander McBean, who has been visiting relatives in St. John for the past few weeks, returned to Moncton last week. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winter left town last week for Halifax where they took the steamer Vancouver for Liverpool. They are spending three months in different parts of England, visiting relatives of Mr. Winter's. Miss Bertie Lindsay, of Riverview du Loup is spend- ing a short time with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Givan, of King street. St. George's church was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding last Wednesday evening, when Miss Florence Tait, adopted daughter of the late William Tait, was married to Mr. H. B. Titus, of the I. C. R. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Hooper, rector, in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride wore a very pretty costume of navy blue cloth, and was attended by her bridesmaid, Miss M. A. P. Tait. The bride who is a member of St. George's church choir will be greatly missed by her numerous friends in Moncton, as her home will be in Newcastle for the future. Mr. and Mrs. Titus drove directly to the station to take the evening train for their new home. Miss Thompson, of Newcastle, spent a few days in town last week visiting her sister, Mrs. C. J. Butcher, and it is scarcely necessary to say that her Moncton friends welcomed her very enthusiastically. Dr. Frank Blair left on Tuesday morning for St. John, spending Sunday in town, visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Marnie, of Alma street. News was received on Monday of the death of Mr. Allen Weir, eldest son of the late Jonathan Weir, who took place at St. John. Mr. Weir has been in failing health for some time, and was 42 years of age. Very great sympathy is felt for the family at this is the third death which has occurred in their circle, within a year. The funeral took place yes- terday from his mother's residence on Foundry street. Word was also received on Saturday of the death of Dr. C. W. Bradley's mother, which took place on Friday night at the home of her daughter, East Wat- ertown, Mass. Dr. Bradley was on his way home from the funeral of his uncle at Milwaukee when he was overtaken at Chandler by the sad news and at once returned to Watertown. It is more than a year since Dr. Bradley lost his father, and his friends will sympathize deeply with him in his bereavement. I am afraid my news this week is of rather a sad nature, as there seems to be so many deaths to chronicle. A particularly sad death took place on Wednesday morning when Mrs. Brady, mother of Miss Brady, a teacher in one of the public schools, died suddenly and alone, at her boarding house on Bedford street. Miss Brady left her mother ap- parently in the best of health in the morning, and on returning at noon, found her lying across the bed quite dead. Dr. Ross was summoned and pro- nounced the cause of death. Mrs. Brady was a Miss Stratford, of Philadelphia, and widow of the late Dr. Brady, of Barnstable, Kings County, Mass. Mrs. Brady, and great sympathy will be felt for the poor young girl in her bereavement. The body was taken to the Barnstable for interment on Thursday. I am happy to say that Mr. and Mrs. Butcher are to remain residents of Moncton. Mr. Butcher having gone into the insurance business. CECIL GWYNNE.

single ladies to play a match, that evening, each lady to choose a gentleman representative for the game. Skip, Mrs. G. M. Wilson by Mr. Wm. Langstroth, skip Miss M. Travis by Mr. L. Peters. Mrs. Wil- son's won by one point, amid great excite- ment. One gentleman had his silk hat badly crush- ed. After the game the ladies entertained a num- ber of the curlers to supper, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Langstroth, where a very pleasant time was spent.
