The ST. John Standard.

NEW BRUNSWICK. CANADA.
 ING TIES les, as many prizes will be reserved as ed before any prizes are awarded for For instance, it ten people tie on the would receive the first ten prizes, and iearest correct answers would receiv more ties than No money will have to. e presented. No of the second puzzle. The second ble and solvable.
; on the second puzze, a third will be It have tied. The second and third ly in casto of ties. Their purpose will a s, so that in the event there is a tie, ded without having to divide them oi ance, ance.
ee enzes will be presented, and in the ne ent of still another tie, the prizes will there are no ties, there will be only one IO DIVIDEND PRIZES. ded between those who have the cardanswers. ALL DIVIDEND prizes will answers. ALL DIVIDEND prizes w cording to the amount paid in by the ere are two contestants who tie having correct answer, they will divide the of $$ 100.00$ and $$ 75.00$, giving them Iso be entitled to DIVIDEND prizes, ie amount paid in for the first prize and ntitted to divide sixty times the amount ing thirty times the amount paid in on 2.00 and the other paid in $$ 5.00$, the ould receive thirty times the amount s DIVIDEND prize, while the one pay-receive thiry times the amount paid Vdend prize. be will fowed throughout nd in case of ties.

