A Contest For Those Who Can Cook

Here is a contest particularly for my nieces. Supposing you were asked to prepare a good meal for a poor hungry boy or girl who had called at your door, what would you give them, and how would you make and cook the food? Just write the answer out in your own words, using one side of the paper only, and send together with a coupon filled in, not later than July 15th to

UNCLE DICK,
Standard,
St. John, N. B.

Now my girls here is a chance to show how much cooking you have learnt. This contest is open to girls not over eighteen years of age, but the age must be stated on the coupon, as the prize of a book will be awarded with full consideration to same, for the best answer received.

GERMAN RAID DESCRIBED BY EYE WITNESS

Huge Ammunition Works in England damaged by Hostile Airship — Workmen killed.

An interesting description of the recent Zeppelin raid on the northeast coast of England has just been received by a resident of St. John from friends in that part of England.

It would appear that the German air squadron had as its object the destruction of the huge ammunition and naval works of Palmer's, Jarrold-on-Tyne, and that they were piloted by someone who knew every inch of the ground is evident by the successful way in which the raid was carried out.

An eye witness writes: "Just as we were retiring to bed there was the sound of an awful explosion which seemed to shake the house to its very foundation. On rushing to the windows we thought that a serious accident had taken place at Palmer's works, where they are at present working night and day turning out large quantities of ammunition. The real cause, however, was soon evident, as presently we were able to see a huge zeppelin outlined against the darkened sky. It was hovering right over the works, and as we watched, started to rain a perfect torrent of bombs down."

"The work of destruction being over the aircraft then vanished into the darkness, leaving behind a shattered works, nearly twenty dead workmen, who had been on nightshift, many injured, and a country side almost panic-stricken with fright, wondering if it was to be their turn next to be visited by the flying engine of destruction. "So far as we were concerned, sleep of course was out of the question, in fact we have hardly slept a wink since, fearing each night that a return visit will be made, and that their treat to drop gas bombs next time will be carried out. It is, however, understood that adequate protection has been prepared, and that a warm reception will be given the enemy."

OBITUARY.

Albert D. Wilson.

The death occurred yesterday, at Boston, of Albert D. Wilson, formerly of St. John, son of the late Francis E. and Elizabeth E. Wilson, aged seventy years. The deceased leaves four brothers and one sister. The brothers are W. E. Wilson of Fredericton; Jas. P. of Lynn, Mass.; George A. of the I.C.R., Moncton, and Z. O. of St. John. Mrs. John C. Perry of Havelock, Kings County, is the sister. The funeral will be held in Boston.

James J. Cook.

The death of James J. Cook, teamster, occurred on Friday at 2 White street, aged 59 years. He is survived by three sons, John, Samuel and Robert, of St. John, and four daughters, Misses Jennie, Letitia and Jessie at home, and Mrs. Fred G. Parzey of Fairville.

Mrs. Robert Patterson.

The many friends of Robt. Patterson will deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his wife, Bessie M., who died at their home Saturday evening after a lingering illness. Death was due to rheumatism. Mrs. Patterson was formerly Bessie Carson of St. Martins, but lived in Noak, Conn., until the past few years, during which she has been living on the West Side. She had a cheerful disposition and was held in high esteem by all those with whom she came in contact. She was a valued member of the Methodist Church and leaves a husband, one daughter, Grace, one sister, Mrs. McEwen of St. Martins, and two brothers, Thomas of St. Martins and Edward of Noak to mourn. Mr. Patterson is in the employ of the Maritime Dredging Company.

Kendrick Outhouse.

Many friends will hear with sincere regret of the death of Kendrick Outhouse, which occurred at his home, 28 St. Andrews street, on Saturday morning after a short illness. He was born at Tiverton, N. S., but about twelve years ago moved to St. John.

He was for a long time in the employ of Leonard Bros. Recently he was appointed as collector in the ferry department, West Side. Mr. Outhouse was well known and much respected. He was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters, being an officer of Court La Tour, 125, in which he took an active part. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. W. H. Plummer, of Sussex; Miss Linette and Miss Sheila at home, and one brother, Captain Hamford Outhouse of Tiverton.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 this afternoon, Rev. F. Ross officiating. Members of the order of Foresters will attend and the funeral service of the order will be conducted by high court officers.

"DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY" CALL MEN TO SERVE THE EMPIRE NOW

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton in forceful address presses home reasons for men in all walks of life enlisting as soldiers—The children will help.

"Duty, Honor, Country—three reasons why Germany must be defeated," was the subject of a patriotic sermon by Rev. Ralph J. Haughton in the Congregational church last evening. He said, in part:

"We are living in perilous times. We are living in times that mean freedom or bondage, life or death for us all; times that call for great courage and earnestness on the part of every man and woman. No man on this side of the Atlantic can truthfully and morally declare that the great conflict taking place upon European soil is of no concern to him. This is no time for any of us to be unconcerned. The courage and the sacrifices of the men who have gone, and are going to the front constitute a standing rebuke to the faint-heartedness and indifference of many who are staying at home. The selfishness and unconcern of quite a good many people who are comfortably enjoying the protection of the British flag are appalling and even tragic. With the safety and very life of the British Empire threatened by German military despotism this is no time for any Canadian to be unconcerned and that any Canadian can be unconcerned is almost too astounding to believe. Let me register my conviction tonight that for any Canadian to be selfishly unconcerned at a time like this in the history of his country is nothing short of a sin."

Volunteers Wanted

"Why is it that we are having such difficulty just now to secure sufficient volunteers for overseas service? Is our patriotism asleep? Is it possible that we do not care to rally to the assistance of our brothers in the trenches? Can it be possible that we are too bent upon having a 'good time' for ourselves? God pity us all if ever we get into the hands of the Hun. There are a good many reasons why Canada ought to be thoroughly alive to the needs of the hour, and why every man of recruit-able age ought to be ready to answer the call of his country in the hour of need and danger. I have chosen three reasons—duty, honor, country, why Germany must be defeated."

"With all her might Germany is fighting for a greater, a bigger Germany. Great Britain, thank God, is fighting for humanity. Germany is fighting for the enslavement of the world; Great Britain is fighting for the freedom of the world. Where is there a man anywhere in Canada who would sneak away and shirk the doing of his duty? If there is such a man let him be branded as the man who was a coward in the hour of his country's need, as the man who was too selfish to care when freedom at home and loved ones were in danger of destruction, when Germany went forth to Germanize and enslave the world. The call of the hour is the call of a great need and this need constitutes every man's duty. I can well imagine that if this were a war on the part of the British Empire simply for conquest, and for the gaining of more territory, that many of us might legitimately consider it not our duty to engage in such a war. But it is not that. It is a war for self defense and it is a war for the defense of great principles. German trickery, German spying and scheming have shocked the world—the world can have no peace until Germany is crushed. One of the great words of the English language is the word, Honor."

For Our Own Lives.

"Let us all fully realize what Sir Robertson Nicoll meant when he said the other day: 'We are fighting for our very life as a nation. If we are subjugated by Germany, we have no higher future before us than the life of a prisoner in a prison, harassed and humiliated at every point—a life so intolerable that death is infinitely preferred. It is a war against barbarism, of the most evil and remorseless kind, a war for freedom, civilization and Christianity. We are fighting for our children as our fathers fought for us. And Great Britain is calling across three thousand miles of ocean and saying to her children here in Canada, 'Come over and help us.' The fact that thousands have responded already to the call does not convince any of us who ought to go, if we are able."

An Appeal.

"The strong appeal that Kitchener made at Guild Hall, London, last Friday was not simply an appeal to the people of England, it was an appeal to the entire British Empire. 'I am here today,' he said, 'to make another demand on the manhood of the country to come forward to its defense.' That appeal was an appeal to the manhood of the whole British Empire. We must not overlook that appeal to which Kitchener made to the manhood of the Empire on behalf of the noble fellows who have already gone to the front. It was surely a stirring appeal which Kitchener made when he said: 'Our gallant soldiers in the fighting line are beset with an urgency at once pathetic and imperious, to those who remain at home, to come out and play their part too.'"

"And that is the appeal I want to send out tonight. That is the appeal that will go out on Tuesday next when another effort will be made by our own city of St. John to reach the men, who, for one reason and another, have not yet taken their places by the side of their brothers who have left their homes and firesides to fight our battles. That appeal goes forth in the name of duty, honor, country."

GARRISON ARTILLERY AT CHURCH SERVICE

Men from the Island paraded to St. Mary's church yesterday morning.

About 125 men of the garrison artillery stationed on Partridge Island landed at Reed's Point yesterday morning at 10:15 and paraded to St. Mary's church. The men who were in command of Lieutenants Ring, Rosenbaum, Compton and other officers, presented a smart appearance as they marched to the church headed by the bugle band.

A large congregation was present and great interest was taken in the service, which was conducted by the chaplain, Venerable Archdeacon W. O. Raymond. A feature of the service was the singing of a number of familiar hymns.

ST. JOHN ORANGEMEN GO TO FREDERICTON

Glorious Twelfth Celebration today promises to eclipse former efforts.

It is expected that at least six hundred St. John Orangemen will assist in the grand demonstration in Fredericton today. A special train will carry the local brethren to the Capital. On the way they will pick up the members of the order living along the line. At Fairville several hundred are expected to join the party.

Sussex and other places between St. John and, that town will send large delegations. They will arrive in St. John on the Sussex express this morning and go forward on the special train. The St. John Orangemen will assemble at the Orange Hall, Germain street, and will parade to Union station, headed by the Sons of England band. The parade will start from the hall at 8:30 o'clock in order to reach the station in time to board the special train, which is scheduled to leave at 9:30 o'clock. Besides the members of the subordinate lodges the Prentice Boys and the Black Knights will be represented by strong delegations.

PRESIDENT OF TRUST COMPANY SUICIDES

New York, July 11.—Daniel Leroy Dresser, president of the Trust Company of the Republic, which went out of business in 1903, committed suicide in a fraternity house on Riverside Drive yesterday by shooting himself. At one time Dresser was a prominent figure in financial and business circles in this city. He organized the firm of Dresser & Company, a big commission house. Afterwards he was elected president of the New York Merchants' Association and the Trust Company of the Republic, which met with a disastrous failure in 1903. Dresser was forty-nine years of age.

"Of duty," that appeal goes forth in the name of honor. It touches the very vestige of honor that may be left in any man's soul. That appeal goes forth in the name of country. Many of our brave lads have gone forth and have nobly died for their country. But sometimes when I see so many fellows reeling out of the bar room in a stupefied and idiotic condition, I do wonder what there is in the world that does appeal to them but the drink that is handed to them over the bar. Let us give for the things that are worth while, and among the things that are 'worthwhile' I have mentioned 'Duty,' 'Honor' and 'Country,' and they constitute three great reasons why Germany must be defeated. And now there is one more call that is being made to every man and every woman. It is the call of Christ. I want, in closing to remind you all of that call. It comes to every living soul. It is the call to be His disciple. It is the call to live a Christian life. It is the call to crown Him King of kings and Lord of lords."
