In a moment his Bible was out and silently he read a passage of Scripture. After reading the passage he knelt and engaged in silent prayer. No sooner had his knees touched the floor than he was conscious of the fact that he was receiving special attention from his fellow-students. Everything movable in the room seemed to be hurled at him by his comrades—willows. boots. Thursday afternoon the Baptist thurch at Carleton had three times as many at the evangelistic service as on the opening afternoon. Mr Martin conducted the services with spirit and enthusiasm, speaking on the subject of Prayer. Beside the other Carleton pastors, the Rev ar Dykeman of Fairville, tors, the Key ar Dykeman of Fairville, was present. Another meeting will be held this afternoon in the Baptist church. In the evening there was a largely in-creased attendance at the Carleton City Hall. Rev Dr Hartley made the an-nouncements. and Rev Mr Penna and Rev Mr Higgins offered prayer. He said there were three kinds of hope mentioned in the Bible; first, the Hope of Israel; s. cond, The Hope of the Church; third, The Hope of the Christian. The Hope of Israel was the coming of the Messiah. The hope of the church is the second The hope of the church is the second coming of Christ. The Christian's hope coming of Christ. The Christian's hope is the hope of heaven—the hope of some day being like Christ—the hope of some day meeting dear ones who have gons on before. There are four characteristics of the Christian's hope distinctly set forth in the word of God. If you have a bright hope of heaven through faith in Jesus Christ you will possess these four characteristics. If you do not possess these four characteristics. possess these four characteristice, if you do not possess these four character-istics you ought to spend an hour or two in self examination. A little self exam-ination will not hurt you anyhow. Have I a bright hope of Heaven? Am I really a Christian? The word of God will answer that question. So let us turn to the grand old book. AGAIN-OTHER MATTERS, The St John Presbytery was in session

Tuesday. A report was read from the commis sion of the Maritime Synod in the matter of the appeal of Rev J S Mullin against the decision of the presbytery. The commssiion dismissed the appeal. A motion by Mr Fotheringham to di-vide the presbytery into two parts was not seconded. A communication from the synod disapproving the action of St John Preeby-tery in appointing a lay moderator was read and ordered acknowledged.

The presbytery appointed a committee to visit augmented congregations before the end of March. The Bay. Kenneth J. Grant, D. D., of the mission in Trinidad, was nominated for the moderatorship of the next general assembly. Rev. J. A. McLean tendered his

SIR WM. Y. HARCOURT'S

Resignation of the Liberal Party Leadership Discussed.

LONDON, Jan 17-The Right Hon John LONDON, Jan 17—The Right Hon John Morley, Liberal member of parliament for Montrose Barghs, addressing his con-stituents this evening at Brechin, said he entirely concurred with the reasons which led Sir William Vernon Harcourt to resign the leadership of the Liberal party in the house of commons. It was his own intention, he declared, to retire from active and responsible participation in the formal counsels of the heads of the Liberal party, although his zealous and eager cooperation could SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION. he exclaimed, "we are nearer the begin-ning of them than the end." It was his firm conviction that "The prevailing spirit of imperialism must inevitably bring militarism, a gigantic daily growing ex-penditure, increased power to aristocrata and privileged classes, and war.'

Have you ever led a soul to Jesus Christ. How many persons have you spoken to on the subject of personal religion during the past twelve months. With the heart man believeth, but with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. What Chris-ians need is a lively hope, and what the church needs is lively Ohristians. Second, the Bible describes the Chris-tian's hope as a parifying hope. John says in one of his episties: "Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself." I would like to put the em-phasis on that last word. He purifieth himself. There are scores, if not hun-

There are scores, if not hun-dreds of people who are engaged in the business of straightening out their e neighbors. It does not occur to them that their own purification is being asdly neglected. It has never occurred to them that if they would only purify themselves the whole neighborhood would be improved by the process. Bait how quick they are to discern evil in others. If you have a weak spot, or a mean spot, or a sore apot, or a black spot, how they point the finger of scorn at it. How they deride. How they are iticise. "He's a pretty sort of a Christ-ian," they say. "iff I couldn't brea betists Christian than that man I wouldn't try." But the man who tries and fails is a thousand times better than the man who fails to try. When a man gets a good conception of the character pied in purifying himself that he does not spend his time criticising other poople. "He purifieth himself." Third. The Bible describes the Chris-tian's hope as a hope which is "both as ure and steadfast." In Paul's letter to the sure and steadfast." In Paul's letter walked forward between the two rear horses and at their heads gathered in all the reins. With these he succeeded in controlling the horses and soon stopped them. He was complimented by many who saw the brave act." Third, The Bible describes the Chris-tian's hope as a hope which is "both sure and steadfast." In Paul's letter to the Hebrews we read: "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast." When an anchor is in use it is out of sight, hid down beneath the water, but it holds the vessel firm to the rock below. So the hope of the Christian is an anchor to the soul, both sure and steadfast. Some men enjoy

Some men enjoy their religion just as a long as it is sweet within the sugar of properity, but when disaster comes they fail to "take the cup of salvation," and they cease to "call upon the name of the Lord." I knew a school-teacher who always gave a ringing testimony for Christ and entering the grocery and provision as school teacher and an entering the grocery and provision as bobot testing.
