Saw Mr. Bowser Ride the Rough Waters in the "Foolkiller"—Man and Boat Were in the Vortex for Two Hours—Hauled Ashore in Safety at Last.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 9.—Peter Nissen of Chicago, or Mr. Bowser, as he styles himself, went through the whirlpool rapids on the Niagara river this afternoon, in the presence of about 10,000 people. At 3:57 the boat started down the rapids. At 4:00 the boat was actually commencing. The fickle eddies, however, kept the Foolkiller drifting about until 4:30 when she got into the whirlpool current and started for the final plunge. The crowd then saw the craft rise on the crest of a smooth wave and then dive like a fishhook into the water. The boat was seen to be in the vortex for two hours. The boat was hauled ashore in safety at last.
