POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 30, 1901.

MAGGIE DEVON'S ENLIGHTENMENT.

den, with 'Dr. Kerr this,' and 'Dr. Kerr that'. . 'a most eligible man, desirable partner,' and so on. She is quite under his influence; and, if I stayed at home, he'd influence me, too, against my will, for there's something about him that fascinates as well as repels me. He reminds me of a rather face the truth."

"She'll take it in the right spirit. We read her daughter's farewell epistle and the lawer's explanatory letter, was far from kindly. She apostrophized Maggie as a "silly and audacious little chit," and Jack as a "penniless adventurer," and resolved to break off the match without scandal, if possible, during the lover's sojourn on the Continent. Her thoughts turned to Dr. Kerr as an ally, and she sent for that gentleman when her mind was fully made up. The doctor very soon put in au appearance, for his friend's hastily scribbled note.

ance, for his friend's hastily scribbled note,
"Maggie left home. Want your advice and halv please" aroused years mixed fact. end in this tashton? Look at the rings and help, please," aroused very mixed feelings in his breast. He was a tall, rather imposing-looking man, underliably handsome after his style, and there was much power behind the small, steady eyes—eyes which had earned for him Maggie's title of "box-constrictor."

"Oh, Dr. Kerr! I'm so glad you've come; please read this," said Mrs Devon, as she put Jack's letter into his hands.

"Delighted to be of service," answered the doctor.

"I'm determined that the marrisge shall not take place. I do not believe the tale about 'regular employment,' and so on; the se unsuccessful daubers are mendacious to a degree."

"I'm gather that the gentleman is an art-like the policy in the shall and the dollar one that the control of the service, and a case for the police the said, with deliberate and neck; these have been adjusted to another body. It is merely a composite picture—a truck that is done every day by clever photographers."

There was an awkward silence, and the women looked curiously at Dr. Kerr.

"I'skould like to assure myse f." he said, belding out thus hand for the protrait, and belding out thus hands for the protrait and so composite picture."

"I'skould like to assure myse f." he said, belding out thus hand for the protrait and blocked at the man's hands and tie. There was an awkward silence, and the scarching where a dozen, or even as many as 20, men were sleeping, the purifying action of its leaves would insure that the air was kept quite fresh.

"I gather that the gentleman is an artist," the doctor observed.

"He calls himself one. Yonder is his portrait of Maggie. I've turned the face to the wall, you see. I can't bear the sight

"There's a photograph of him in the al-his 'good looks — which do not appeal to my notion, I may say — have not bewitched you as they have Maggie."

"Nothing of the kind, I assure you," retorted Kerr, blandly; "but I seem to have a sort of recollection of the face. I trust that I am mistaken, for the recollection acarcely does the original credit."

"Oh!" cried Mrs Deven, impulsively, "my poor girl. Doctor, you'll help me to fight against her infatuation, will you not?"

"With all my heart, provided that my memory has played me no trick. May I take this porposit for a day or two to attempt to veriff the recollection?"

"By all means. Oh, I'm so glad I sent for you, and Maggie wilf learn to thank you have here from this designing person."

That young lady was uncomfortably surprised to see Dr. Kerr ushered in a week or so after her flight. "He's sent to fetch me

"Young people who feed each other work." she thought. "Well, I'm of age, and he dare not use force. We shall see."

"You see in me, Miss Devon," said the doctor, "a man charged with an unpleasant though kindly mission."

"I'm not coming back," Maggie broke in, rehelicionaly.

young people who faced each other across an arathment which was half parlor, half workroom and evidently the abode of a backelor.

"I couldn't stand it any longer, Jack," the girl went on to say, after certain tender passages. "Mother has made my life a burden with the Korn this," and the said in his most quiet and impressive manner, "I sincerely regret to have to destroy your romane, Miss Devon, for I know your lovable and trusting disposition. Will you oblige me by looking at this? It is a snapshot taken at Brighton by a friend of mine." He handed her a carte-de-visite day with the Korn this," and the Korn this, and the spoke.

"It's a decided fact, darling; I start tomorrow, and they have advanced me £25

morrow, and they have advanced me £25

"It's a decided fact, darling; I start tomorrow, and they have advanced me £25 toward expenses. Let me give you some;
I shall get on all right."

"No, dear, not a penny. I've brought my own little savings, and my portmenteau is at the luggage office. I couldn't bring more away, but mother will come round to the inevitable and send my belongings and all she can spare, I feel sure. Things have come right for us, Jack."

"You are certainly a courageous and optimistic little person," said the young fellow, with enthusiasm. "Now come along at once; we'll get your luggage, have something to eat, and give aunt a surprise. I russ telegraph to your mother, too."

"I left a little note," said the girl, with tears in her eyes. "Poor mother, I hope she won't be very unhappy over it, but really I couldn't endure the doctor."

distance. Do you really mean what you say, and am I not worthy an explanation?
Id onot recognize your dear self in the works at all, and feel sure you have been worked upon to write them Bat I am still the same, and do not intend to give you up, unless you have really ceased to care for
me. Write, my darling, and tell me more.
Always your own,
"Jack."

This c mmunication, with the fat-al portrast in her possession, simply aroused the girl's contempt, and out aged her every teling. She burned the letter straightway, and dn not recognize your dear self in the worked upon to write them. Bat I am still
the same, and do not intend to give you up,
unless you have really ceased to care for
me. Write, my darling, and tell me more.
Always your own,
"Jack."

This c mmunication, with the fat-al portrast in her possession, simply aroused the girl's contempt, and out aged her every teling. She burned the letter straightway, and dn not reply to it.

Things went very smoothly for Tr. Kerr within the next tortnight. He wisely did not attempt to press his wooing, knowing we: that a deceived woman at such a time is better won with a show of di interested kindness and support; and Maggie's averston began to her thoughts.

The break came one evening when mother, shall have a scolding, and then things will set le down."

But Mrs. Devon's mood, when she had read her daughter's farewell epistle and the

There was an awkward silence, and the women looked curiously at Dr. Kerr.

"I skould like to assure mysef," he said, holding out his hand for the portrait, and Jack passed it without hesitation or demur.

Kerr looked at the card with an intentness which was rather overdone; then he tore it across, and threw the pieces into the fire.

"The rascal—you are right, sir," he ejaculated. "A clever stroke to think to destroy all

"There's a photograph of him in the album, opposite to one of my daughter, if you care to see it," Mrs. Devon said, still in great irritation.

Kerr took up the album, found the young fellow's likeness, and studied it so long that his hostess began to lose patience

"You seem attracted, Dr. Kerr," she said, fanning herself vigorously; 'I hope his good looks—which do not appeal to my protion of may say—have not he witched you one, nevertheless, and Kerr saw that the ness, Sick Headache, Constipation, al Liver and Bowel Complaints. The cleanse the blood of all impurities Mild in their action. Of great benefit to delicate women. One pill is a dose Thirty pills in a bottle enclosed in wood-25 cents; six bottles, $1.09. Bold everywhere or sent post-paid. 1. 3. JOHNSON & COMPANY, Boston, Mass be disfluence ris, too, against my will, for there's something about him that fascinates as well as repels me. He reminds me of handsome bos-constrictor. Let's get married at once, dear, and face the future of the lady of the house must created to conce of the lady of the house must created to conce of the lady of the house must cannot be something to swell the income till your position improves."

NEW HEAD LINER.

Steamer Carrigan Head Launched at Belfast for Ulster S. S. Co.

Jack, otherwise Mr. John Ludlow, locked a little blank for a moment, then a smile the gross it is! The narious enough to be married at an hour's notice, even with the Bank of England at back of them. Then, noticing the girl's heightened color and distressed expression, his added, "But love to ber. She lives not far away, at Brond, but he her. She lives not far away, at Brond, but he her. She lives not far away, at Brond, and we'll be married immediately on may return."

"On your satura! Where are, you going, Japak?"

"On your satura! Where are, you going, Japak?"

"On your satural where he he butcher, baker, and candlestick-maker. A firm that I have done some designs for have employed me to go over to Paris for the Exhibition to attend to a show of at rental work, for the first month. The honorarium is a liberal one, and they have promised to find the purpanent. employment afterward here. What do, you think of that?"

"My Drank Macour-Vour cold and cruelly many they now to tailing, me this to cheer me up—I'd rather face, and the who was and the way to the rest of the distinct of the leaf of the contract of the cold have a course of the cold to the respective to the cold to the prevention of the cold to the cold to the prevention of the cold to the prevention of the cold to the cold to the cold to the prevention of the cold to On Saturday morning Messrs. Workman,

Alphonso Grise: Took Too Much Morphine and Apparently Died.

Holyoke, Mass., March 25.-Alphonse that life had departed, restored him.

Grise had been suffering from carbuneles and his pain seemed unbearable. His physician gave him the morphine pills and the man disregarded the directions. When his condition was discovered, the family Munro, Mrs. H. A. Doherty, Miss Wilson, physician was away and another doctor was called. He examined the man and pronounced him dead and went away. A local paper, Friday evening, published Richie, D. T. Craig, W.T. Watte, H.

a death notice and the news spread among the friends of Grise.

As soon as the family physician returned and learned that he had been wanted cathering the church keing crowded. to attend Grise, he hurried to the man's gathering, the church being crowded. home. He made an examination and no-ticed conditions which made him believe that life still remained. He at once called a council of physicians and although they considered it a hopeless task remedies were applied to restore the manand later the patient gave evidences of permanent improvement.

Heads Won.

The two mad bulls had blundered into a narrow alleyway. Before them were several policemen, behind them a surging

Oct. 7, 1829, saw the earliest snow of the England's rainfall is equal to 3000 tons en

The amount of water flowing out of the Nile is 16 times that of the Thames. Snow falls on 15 days in the year at Dublin, 71 at Moscow, and 46 in Iceland.

Soft White Hands Luxuriant Hair

Sald everywhere. Foreign depote: F. Newhere, London; L. Mitter, Paris: H. Townsando., Sydue; Porrest Davo and Chan. Conr., Sele Props., Boston, U.S. &

General French Has Been Doing Good Work

London, March 27—It is reported from Bloemfontein that General De Wet is again in Orange River Colony.

London, March 27—The Pretoria and Bloemfontein correspondents of the Times send long despatches admitting that Lord Kitchener's policy and operations have failed to acheive the results hoped for and pointing out that the British public must be prepared to return to the origina policy of occupying districts and studding the country with military posts as the only means of effecting complete pacifica-

London, March 27-The Daily Express prints a rumor that Sir Alfred Milner is dissatisfied with his qualified authority and has asked the government to give him "either a free hand or no hand." Mr. Chamberlain is said to have replied that it would not be advisable to dissociate the authority of Sir Alfred Milner from that of Lord Kitchener and the rumor goes that Sir Alfred contemplates rumor goes that Sir Alfred contemplates resigning.

"It is an open secret," says the Daily Express. "that Sir Alfred Milner has long chafed at having Lord Kitchener at his elbow to check or modify his proposals."

The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Express reports the capture by 100 Boers of 130 colonials in a rocky defile near Richmond last Thursday. He asserts that the colonials lost 13 men before they surrendered, adding that they were all liberated after having been stripped of their accoutrements.

Vryheid, Monday, March 25-General French, with Dartnal's and Pulteney's columns arrived here today, having killed, wounded or captured 1,200 Boers. He has also taken seven cannon, 1,000 rifles, 1,800 wagons and 26,000 head of horses, cattle and sheep.

Paris, March 27—Le Rappel gives space this morning to the following remarkable communication from Amsterdam: "Mr. Kruger will sail for the United States next month on the invitation of the American pro-Boer committee to give a series of lectures. The committee hopes to collect $50,000,000 and to form a volunteer flotilla with which to transport men and ammunition to the Transvaal."

The cantata, David the Shepherd Boy, was sung in St. David's church Tuesday evening, and the affair was a decided success in every way. The sol ists sang well Carise of this city, who, Friday, was pro- and the choruses were admirably done. The nounced dead by a physician from an work of all was greatly praised, and the overdose of morphine taken to relieve pain, is alive and will recover.

The incident was due to the fact that the man did take an overdose of morphine and that for a period of five hours he was as if dead but unremitting work by a second doctor who failed to believe that life had departed prestored him.

Mr. McGowan was conductor, Mrs. J.

A Bad Reputation.

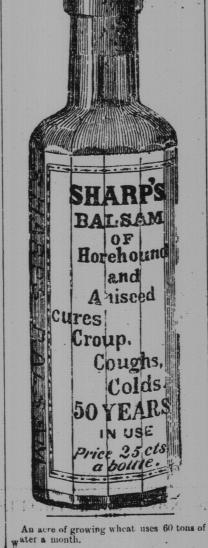

Miss Youngthing (reassuringly) - You needn't be afraid of father, Mr. Midwood. He isn't a pirate.

Midwood (calling) - He may not be to you, Miss Youngthing, but I have heard that to young men callers he is a regular old freebooter.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Power In Heat.

"Is there much power in heat, Willie?" asked the teacher. "You bet there is!" answered the boy. "Give an example."

"When ma bogins to warm things up pa just has to get up and hustle, and don't you torget it."—Chicago Post.

WHITE ENAMEL IRON BEDS--Brass Trimmings. A SPLENDID LINE OF THESE GOODS NOW SHOWING.

NO COMMECTION WITH AMY OTHER COMPAN

Has new Roll Top Rails, Brass

Rings and Scrolls.

Has Bow Foot, Half Brass,

Has Bow Foot and Brass Arched Top Rails.

$28.00 All Brass Bed. Has Bow Foot.

St. John Agricultural Society.

$18.50

The regular meeting of the directors of the St. John Agricultural Society was held yesterday, Dr. Frink presiding. The president reported concerning an interview with the government relative to an exhibition at Moosepath the coming autmun. The report was adopted, coupled with a vote of thanks. ton and the secretary were appointed a committee to look after this mater.

MEN FOR KITCHENER. Mr. Brodrick States War Office Has Filled

Its Engagement to Send 30,000 Mounted

The executive committee reported pro- to a question, announced that the war would have undoubtedly proved a ser inence to an act performed by Brakeman with a vote of thanks.

It was ordered that a supply of kangroot turnip seed be ordered for the use of members, and that the secretary open correspondence with a view of purchasing seed grain. S. Creighton, T. Fred Johnston as to whether the Russo-Chinese ton and the secretary were appointed a snow plough broke away from its engine and dashed past Maccan station at a high the government was still without information as to whether the Russo-Chinese Manchurian agreement had been signed of which was impeded by an upgrade, but ran out to the main line about a last the plough just in time to signal the action and the secretary were appointed a snow plough broke away from its engine and dashed past Maccan station at a high the grade of which was impeded by an upgrade, but ran out to the main line about a last the plough just in time to signal the action and the secretary were appointed as now plough broke away from its engine and dashed past Maccan station at a high the grade of which was impeded by an upgrade, but ran out to the main line about a last the grade of which was impeded by an upgrade, but ran out to the main line about a last the grade of which was impeded by an upgrade, but ran out to the main line about a last the grade of which was impeded by an upgrade. or not.

Mr. Brodrick, the war secretary, in reply rate of 40 miles an hour, thus averting what The executive committee reported propress in regard to offers for the lease of track at Moosepath.

A general discussion ensued in regard to farm labor, with particular reference to those persons seeking employment from Great Britain. No action was taken.

Representations were made by the deputy commissioner of agriculture that it is advisable to have the date of the annual meeting changed from October 20 to a later date. This was referred to a committee consisting of Dr. Walker, S. S. Hall and T. Fred Johnston.

A general discussion ensued in regard to farm labor, with particular reference to those persons seeking employment from Great Britain. No action was taken.

Representations were made by the deputy commissioner of agriculture that it is advisable to have the date of the annual meeting changed from October 20 to a later date. This was referred to a committee consisting of Dr. Walker, S. S. Hall and T. Fred Johnston.

A general discussion ensued in regard to office had fullilled its engagement, given forcements to General Kitchener, 28,569 and has since been confined to his home from over-exertion and exposure. His physicians have, it is understood, gone so far as to say that he will not fully recover as a result of his efforts to save the loss of life and property. It is understood that Mr. Corey's case has been placed before the I. C. R. management officially by Station Master the deputy commissioner of agriculture that it is advisable to have the date of the annual meeting changed from October 20 to a later date. This was referred to a committee consisting of Dr. Walker, S. S. Hall and T. Fred Johnston.

A Pair in 30 Minutes

More Home Knitters Wanted

To Work at Their Homes Under the Direction of The GLASGOW WOOLLEN CO.

37 MELINDA ST., TORONTO, To Fill Large Contracts - Good Wages Easily Earned.

We want a few more workers in this locality, at once, and in order to secure locality, at once, and in order to secure your co-operation without the delay of correspondence, we herewith explain our full plan in this advertisement. The work is simple, and the Machine is easily operated, and with the Guide, requires no teacher. If you wish to join our staff of Workers let us hear from you promptly with the Contract, order form and re-promptly with the Contract, order form, and remittance, as a guarantee, and we will send machine and outfit to begin work at once.

machine and outfit to begin work at once.

OUR METHOD OF

DOING BUSINESS

We wish to source the service of families to do knitting for an in-their houses, our method is the same as adopted in Emission We are the introducts of this plan and he in Emission We are the introducts of this plan and he in Emission We are the introducts of this plan and he in Emission We are the introducts of this plan and he in Emission We have been able to produce an Automatic Machine by which all definite the results of the work from the introduction of the heavier of ordinary intelligence to quickly learn to do the work from the introduction of the machine hereby enable to the operation so, simile it cannot now is for Blycele Stockings who was been such as the produce and the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the control of the many of knitting ever are able to turn out, by which we save rents, insurance, interest on capitals. The interest of the produce and the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an unchanged the product of the British Colonics, furnishes an un OUR METHOD OF DOING BUSINESS pense only.

There is a Large Demand by the Trade for this class of work. Our workers can depend upon it year after year, and if) you engage with us (whole or spare time) we will keen you smoded with work as long as you do it satisfactorily for us and return it promptly. We entrust our work ers with large quantities of valuable yarn, and as we give

NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER COMPANY