

Hopes for Result from Visit America.

New York, Sept. 9.-A former officer New York, Sejt. 9.-A former officer of the Salvation Army soid today that Herbert Booth, who ircoently left the army, is new in America, having ar-rived a few weeks ago, and that it is highly probable that General Booth will arrive in this country within a few weeks to make an effort to bring about a recon-rillation between himself and his children, six of whom are now out of the Salvation (Army, General) Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America, tonight, at his home in Montclair (N. J.), raised to dis-gues the mathem of the Salvation the Present Year.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—Immigration Agent Hall reports about 10,000 arrivals in Au-gust. Of the number registered, 2,520 were from the United States, 2,500 from were from the United States, 2,500 from eastern Canada, 957 from England, and the others were European. The total of registered arrivals from January 1 to the end of August was 53,-100, or 35 per cent more than arrived dur-ing the corresponding period of 1901. If 25 per cent were added to include un-registered arrivals, it would show an in-crease in the population of Manitolta and the Northwest Terviberies by immigration of over 66,375 souls. Of the harvesters who arrived from of over 66,375 souls. Of the harvesters who arrived from Eastern Canada during August about 2,000 will setttle in the west.

MISS YOUNG · RETURNS HOME.

Boston Woman Who Was Nearly Killed at Kentville, N. S.

Boston, Sept. 9-Miss A. M. Young, the Boston woman who jumped or fell from the D. A. R. train at Kentville (N. S.), about two weeks ago and was taken to a hospital there, left Saturday night for this city with her brother.

Good for Dupes of Miller.

New York, Sept. 10.—By a decision handed down yesterday by Judge Smith, of the supreme court, creditors of Wil-liam F. Miller, the 520 per cent syndicate man, have the right to look to Seymour, Johnson & Co. for $140,000 which Miller gave to Colonel Ammon, his attorney, tue iday the swindler fled from Brooklyn. Judge Smith finds that Ammon was agent for Miller, and as such loaned to the stock firm the money Miller obtained from his

to	Animal was Converted Into Mince-	No. 6,
	Animal was Converted into Mince- meat.	ton di winnin
	and friend - the	ain I

Danvers, Mass., Sept. 10-An innocentlooking cow, chewing her cud as she stood on the track placed a carload of people in danger of death and injury tanight. The car was on the new Middleton and Hawnence Railway and it left Lawrence the board of trade. This session of the grand lodge will close on Wednesday evening. Owing to pressure of business, no degree work was dene. The order has 98 members among the residents of Truro.

of Salem at 5 p. m., with 60 passe Tomorrow afternoon the Truro Driving Club will give the visiting members a drive around the city and vicinity. In his 13th annual report, J. C. Henry, of, St. Stephen (N. B.), grand keeper of the records and seals, suggested a penalty for failure to have semi-annual reports in the between a lord August 1 an into the cow on the hill near North Andover and was derailed, continuing for about 400 feet over the ties and the rock The 'car was under great headway at the time and it cut up the cow, scattering portions of the carcass for 150 feet: Most the passengers kept their seats and eseach year.

caped injury. A woman with a baby in her arms attempted to impp, but was held by a passenger.

HALIFAX HARBOR SUICIDE.

Great Influx Since Beginning of Young Man Who Jumped from Ferry Boat Is Identified.

Halifax, Sept. 9-(Special)-The body of the young man drowned from the ferry steamer last night was recovered this morning and landed at Dartmouth. In his morning and landed at Dartmouth. In his coat pocket were found some blank re-ceipts from the Pure Milk Company. Mr. Butcher, manager of the company, was asked if any of the employes were missing, and he replied that Ralph Mc-Cready, one of his drivers, had not yet been at the stables. Mr. Butcher identified the body as that of his missing divers and had a clearman

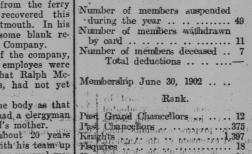

Mr. Butcher identified the body as that of his missing driver, and had a clergyman break the news to deceased's mother. Ralph McCready was about 20 years of age. He was at work with his team up to 7.30 last evening. Nothing unusual was noticed about him. He was well thought of by his employers. He is said to have been somewhat addicted to the cigarette babit

CHARLOTTETOWN FIRE.

to the Ground.

Charlotetown, P. E. I., Sept. 9-(Special) -Fire started at 4 o'clock this afternoon and burnt to the ground, with all the contents, including account books, etc., W. W. Harper's three story building, work-shop, door and sash factory. The com-bined loss estimates up more than $3.6(6; urance. The fire originated in the boiler department.

the state of the factor that the in 25 lodges. The 10 lodges in New Brun wick show a total of 970, an increase fo

> Finances of Subordinate Lodges.

Tomorrow afternoon the Truro Drivin

Membership June 30, 1901 Initiated during the year164 Admitted by card10

$36,809.54

Paid for sick benefits ... $2,307.45 Paid for funeral and W. W. Harper's Door and Sash Factory Razed Paid current expenses. 6,105.11 8.644.46

> Increased assets for year 2.122.61

than the previous year. At June 30, 1902, the total amount of widow and ouphan's fund was $7,275.32, an increase of $922.72. Grand Lodge Finances. Cash on hand Aug. 13, 1901$ 897.20 Receipts to Aug. 30, 1902 Interest on investment, to June 980.20 30, 1902 21.16 $1,898.56 Paid out, as per warrants 1,130.23 Cash balance Aug. 37, 1992$ 768.33 lash due by lodges, tax and sup-Value of supplies in grand lodge

Total assetts of grand lodge$1,097.70 Receipts of Grand Lodge. These were contributed by subordinate lodges as follows:-Lodge. Total.

widow of the late President McKinley, and the reply from Mrs. McKinley was given. Mr. Henry closed his report with ex-pressions of thanks for kindness and cour-tey extended him. No. 4, and Fredericton division, "Fowler," No. 6, Capt. W. H. Gray. The Frederic-ton division came off the victors, thus winning a valuable cup, called the Fowler cup. The judges were Colonel Blair, Capt. H. C. Blair and E. M. Fulton, president of the board of trade

THE DOMINION CAPITAL.

Arranging for Boer Frmer Students --- St Lawrence Wavigation.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.-(Special)-The Boe farmers who have been appointed to come of agriculture are Messrs. Jooste, Land and Smart from St Helena, with Lieuten ant Godson as guide and Messrs. Maritz and Taas, of Baden-Powell Horse, and his hands by February 1 and August 1 in and Taas, of Baden-rowan horse, and Shoeman, of Ceylon with J. M. Findlay, of Pretorin, as guide. These are all men who fought in the Boer ranks and who have been held as prisoners of war, for The gain in the order had not been as large as last year. There were no new lodges but nearly every lodge showed gain in membership and finance. These figures show the conditions:-ome time. The exact date of their sailing or arriving in Canada has not been an-nounced to the government here, but they 1,69 are expected shortly.

A cable announcing their coming states that they are to be here before the winter sets in. When these gentlemen arrive in Canada they will be taken in charge by government official; probably from one o the experimental farms, and escorted through the best farming districts of the country. They will be taken through the eastern townships and also through On-tario and the Niagara peninsula thence to Manitoba. Of course the programme o 1.815 their tour will have to be arranged accord ing to the time at their disposal, but in any event the visitors will be given the best opportunity to see Canadian farming The minister of marine has received a The minister of marine has received a letter from Sir Alfred Jones, head of the Elder-Dempster and other steamship lines speaking approvingly of the steps taken to improve the St. Lawrence navigation and suggesting a number of other mea tres that might be carried out. The ma ority of matters which Sir Alfred refer red to here have been carried out already or are now being undertaken. The English Lloyds has not replied to the min ister's invitation to send out an exper to go over the route.

LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

New Carnegie Steel Plant Will Surpass Any Ever Erected.

Homestead, Pa., Sept. 10 .- A swamp a E. Powers, Yesterday's Witness. West Homestead has been filled with ho shag which has amalgamated into a solu mass. On this share will be erected by the Carnegie Steel Company the largest struc-tural and angle plant for the manufactur of steel in the world. An openheard furnace will also be erected to supply th

Brighton three weeks ago and started fo his city, was arraigned in the mu ourt this forenoon and bound over to th January term of the superior court indicating that Powers has at least or wife in the eastern part of the state.

Females of All Ages find these Pills simply as a few doses will re free an regular condition fectua and of ich su remove the caus ing to the sex.

61118

ion, be to prejudice him in the judgment of the community in which he had lived for years.

He had tried to so carry himself in this inquiry as to prevent any reflection on his absolute fairness and impartiality.

Fair, Says Mr. Phinney.

Mr. Phinney said that while not re-sponsible for the statement published, that he felt the headline in question was a fair condensation of the actual facts, and fair condensation of the actual facts, and it did not purport to be a quotation of the actual words used. "Mrff!!Gregory fused the commissioner's remarks as a text for some glittering gen-eralities as to the bias of The Telegraph's reports all through the case. Mr. Phinney took exception to any reports all through the case. Mr. Phinney took exception to any general statement that the case was not being fairly reported in The Telegraph. He felt that The Telegraph's reports, while commends are remarkably centra ate transcripts of the tyidenes, and while the commissioner might perhaps have some cause for complaint in reference to the particular headlines complained of, yet in the main the reports were particu-larly accurate, far more so in fact than reports published elsewhere in the public press.

The commissioner closed the inciden with the remark that he did not care whether the reports in any of the papers were accurate, as he had the stend were accurate, as he had the stenograph-er's report to go by; but he felt The Telegraphy whether purposely or not, had ् अत्र हा अ So state exists.

What He Couldn't Remember.

one him a wrong in the headline in que G. Ernest Powers was on the stand al

An attempt was made to get from hin An attempt was made to get from him an explanation of the discrepancies exist-ing in the reports between the subscrip-tions credited and the receipts in the balance sheet. He could only suggest that this was made up of the collectors' ex-penses and also of amounts credited which were paid by contributions of grade were paid by contributions of goods.

Powers Unable to Explain.

But when it was pointed out that there was a variation of hundreds of dollars in different years, the witness was unable to explain the reason. He said that there had been different collectors in the differ-ent years, although he himself had been collecting year after year.

ollecting year after year. Jr. Phinney showed from the reports but there had been no change of any find in the collecting staff between 1894 and 1897, and yet in these years there had been a very great variation in these discrepancies. In 1894 the discrepancy in the reports was $565.31, in 1895, $588.78, the reports was $000.31, in 1890, $055.18, in 1896, $626.93, in 1897, $1,304.76. The suave Mr. Powers gave it up as a bad job and the world will never know how the balance sheet was made up, and why the discrepancies in the figures so greatly varied, even where the collectors were the same and the territory covere dentical. On the question of unpaid collection the witness after considerable cross-ques-tioning, was induced to break that empty bubble which has from the start of the

He did not know they were cautioned in this direction. The school hours were kept with regularity at the institution. Alice Archibald was not so rugged and robust as the other girls. She was a slight tall girl. She had not the vitality of the other girls. She was in bed for three weeks in April before he left for North Shore. He heard of her death at Camp-bellton. She died in May. She was nursed at time he left home. one took his place on the staff while he was absent. The witness visited England in 1891 for about two months and 1892 he again visited England. He made an kept with regularity at the instantion Alice Architald was not so rugged and here the relation of the second and the instantion of the second and the instantion of the second and the instantion of the second at the se Woodbuildge had were those produced. He If a pupils to bit the bit of the witness) kept the expenses of trip of harsh treatment and the principal saw it, he would not allow it to be sent. As a rule the fire after he returned. He did not supervision. w if any of the memoranda for 1891

The letters received from parents were all explained by the principal. The wit-ness mentioned a number of pupils who

What He Couldn't Remember. He had not seen them since the investigation began. He could not give the items for any one year. It would only be

B guess. Could not give it within $100. He had made up no statement to show how to make up the difference between the ac-thromelered address and thus a statement to show how to had no kindly intentions towards the in-stitution. He had no knowledge of the make up the difference between the ac-knowledged subscriptions and those cred-ited in the balance sheet. He could not remember for any year what the expenses would be. He was on salary the first year he was here. The salary was $100. He got an increase as teacher to $150, and that was the salary when he went to Eng-land in 1887. His salary as collector was $200. His salary last year was $350, and did not include expenses. He spent six weeks collecting in St. John and padd about $6 a week for board. He had no ther occupation while in St. John but col-lecting.

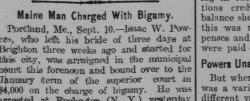

The court adjourned until tomorrow lecting. While in St. John he sold some rings as an occupation while collecting. He at-tended dancing school while in St. John. Quebec was first taken by Mr. Woodbridge afternoon, when the proceedings will be taken in camera, as all the evidence re-garding the financial charges has been

> LEEMING'S SPAN NMEN URES

and Soft Jumps, Spavins, Etc Large Bottles, 50 Cents at all Dealers The Baird Co. Ltd. Proprietors WOODSTOCK, N.B.

Se its

$4,000 on the charge of bigamy. He was arrested at Rochester (N. Y.) yesterda, after the local police had received letter invaluable,

Б Beecham's

Sold Everywhere. In boxes, 25 cents.

ingots.

